Terence F. McGuirk

Chairman and President

Terence F. McGuirk is vice chairman of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS, Inc.) and, since November 2003, chairman and president of the Atlanta Braves. In this capacity, he maintains executive oversight of all aspects of the company's Major League Baseball franchise, including play-er personnel, team operations and Turner Field.

McGuirk joined TBS, Inc. in 1972 as an account executive with WTCG, later TBS Superstation. In 1973, he assumed the same role at TBS-owned WRET in Charlotte, N.C. McGuirk returned to Atlanta in 1975 as director of cable relations, where he was instrumental in the launch of TBS Superstation. Since then, he has played a key role in the launch of every Turner network.

In 1978, McGuirk was named director of special projects for TBS, Inc. and in 1979 was appointed vice president of TBS, Inc. From 1987 to 1991, he served as president of Turner Network Sales and CNN International Sales, Ltd., where he set up the company's international sales operation. He was elected to the TBS, Inc. board of directors in July 1987. Concurrently, McGuirk was president of Turner Sports where, during his tenure, he was instrumental in securing coverage of the Olympics for cable television for the first time and oversaw the resurgence of the winningest team in Major League Baseball, the Atlanta Braves. As executive vice president, McGuirk served as the company's second in command from 1991 to 1996. When TBS, Inc. merged with Time Warner Inc. in 1996, he succeeded R.E. Turner as chairman, president and CEO. He served as chairman and chief executive officer of the company until March 2001. From that point through December 2003, McGuirk was chief executive officer of the company-owned Atlanta sports teams-the Major League Baseball Braves, the National Basketball Association Hawks and the National Hockey League Thrashers.

McGuirk has served on the board of many cable industry related groups and the International Olympic Committee's Radio and Television Commission. He was the 1989 recipient of the NCTA Vanguard Award for Young Leadership and was inducted into the fellowship of Cable Television Pioneers at the 1996 NCTA Convention.

A native of Bayshore, N.Y., McGuirk is a graduate of Portsmouth Abbey School, and holds a bachelor of arts degree in American history from Middlebury College. He sits on the boards of trustees of The Westminster Schools and Piedmont Healthcare and the boards of directors of Haverty's, Inc., Scientific-Atlanta and the Sea Island Company. McGuirk is the 2000 recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Stewart Lewengrub Torch of Liberty Award. In 2006, he received the Governors Award from the southeastern chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences.

Terry and his wife, Nancy, live in Atlanta and have four children.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman Emeritus ♦ Chairman of the Executive Committee

Bill Bartholomay, named Chairman Emeritus and Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Atlanta Braves in November 2003, was previously Chairman of the Board of Directors of the team since its move to Atlanta in 1966. He has witnessed the Braves win 16 division championships (including a record-setting 14 in a row), five National League pennants and one World Series. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982, won National League pennants in 1991 and 1992, another NL West crown in 1993, a World Championship in 1995, another pennant in 1996 and divisional titles in 1997 and 1998. The team won its fifth National League pennant in 1999 and division titles in each year from 2000 to 2005.

Bartholomay has been involved with the team as a director or owner for 44 years. In 1962, he became Chairman of the Milwaukee Braves and led the group in moving the club to Atlanta in 1966. In 2002, Bartholomay was inducted into the Hall of Fame at Turner Field. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Major League Baseball has recognized Bartholomay's expertise in several areas. He is Co-Chairman of the Ownership Committee and Major League Baseball's Equal Opportunity Committee. He also serves as a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council, a member of the MLB Finance and Legislative committees and as a trustee of Major League Baseball Player's Benefit Plan.

In January 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, which is presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area."

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is Vice Chairman of Willis Group Holdings (NYSE); Director of Midway Games; and Director Emeritus of WMS Industries, Inc. He has also served as a Commissioner of the Chicago Public Building Commission and past President of the Chicago Park District. He is a Director or Trustee of many other civic and business organizations and educational institutions throughout the country.

Philip I. Kent

Chairman/CEO Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. ♦ Atlanta Braves Board of Directors

Philip I. Kent is chairman and chief executive officer of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. Named to his post in February 2003, his responsibilities include corporate oversight of the TBS, Inc. domestic and international entertainment, animation and news networks and businesses, including TBS, TNT, Turner Classic Movies and Court TV; Cartoon Network, Adult Swim and Boomerang; GameTap; and CNN Worldwide, which includes CNN/U.S., CNN Headline News, CNN International and CNN.com. Kent has overall responsibility for all news and entertainment advertising and distribution both domestically and internationally, as well as for all corporate administrative functions, Turner Sports, the Atlanta Braves and Turner Field.

From August 2000 to August 2001, Kent served as president and chief operating officer of CNN News Group, where he oversaw a strategic reorganization of the news division, a radical redesign of CNN Headline News and high-profile hires including Lou Dobbs and Paula Zahn.

Kent's career at TBS, Inc. includes broad international experience as president of Turner Broadcasting System International, the division charged with overseeing Turner's wide-ranging business activity in Asia, Europe and Latin America, including all sales, distribution, business development, joint partnerships and business alliances outside of the United States. At the helm of TBSI, Kent led a regionalization strategy that introduced local-language versions of CNN and the Turner entertainment networks around the globe, further strengthening the company's position in critical international markets.

Earlier, Kent was president of Turner Home Entertainment, the former TBS, Inc. division comprised of the company's home video, new media, licensing & merchandising, feature distribution and book publishing operations. Kent joined Turner in March 1993, after spending six years with Creative Artists Agency (CAA) as a packaging agent in that company's television department. In 1981, he was one of a two-person team that launched Blair Entertainment, the television syndication division of John Blair & Co., where he began his career in 1975.

Kent earned a Bachelor of Arts degree at Lehigh University. He serves on the boards of directors of the Ad Council, the National Cable and Telecommunications Association, Central Atlanta Progress and the Atlanta Braves; on the board of trustees of the Woodruff Arts Center; and on the Dean's executive board of UCLA's School of Theatre, Film & Television.

Turner Broadcasting System, Inc., a Time Warner company, is a major producer of news and entertainment product around the world and the leading provider of programming for the basic cable industry.

Henry Aaron

Senior Vice President

Since his retirement from professional baseball, Aaron has given back to society for more than 30 years. His Chasing the Dream Foundation was established to help children between the ages of nine and 12 realize their dreams, as he realized his. The foundation provides grants to children to enable them to pursue advanced study in music, art, writing, dance and sports.

Aaron received the first Jackie Robinson Lifetime Achievement Legacy Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, honoring his "career excellence in the face of adversity" in February 2003.

At his 65th birthday celebration in Atlanta on February 5, 1999, Aaron was honored for his lifetime achievements both as a player and as a humanitarian. President Bill Clinton, the Commissioner of Baseball, Bud Selig, and Sammy Sosa were among those in attendance as Major League Baseball recognized Aaron's talents with the introduction of the Hank Aaron Award. The award is presented annually to honor the best hitters in the National and American leagues and was unveiled at the 1999 World Series.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83.

Since December of 1989, he has served as Senior Vice President.

The greatest home run hitter of all time, Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; Most Total Bases, Lifetime, 6,856; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755. Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), third in runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), games (3,298) and hits (3,771), 10th in doubles (624), 12th in singles (2,294) and tied for 14th in years of service (23).

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration.

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award.

He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972.

During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves.

Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three home run game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959.

Aaron serves on the Board of Governors for Boy's and Girls Clubs of America. He also serves on the board of the Atlanta Falcons, Atlanta Technical College, Retail Ventures, Inc., and Medallion Financial Corporation.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gaile, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. Aaron was born in Mobile, Alabama, on February 5, 1934.

John Schuerholz

Executive Vice President & General Manager

John Schuerholz, who in 2006 completed his 25th year as a General Manager and his 16th season as the Braves' Executive Vice President and General Manager, has the longest tenure with the same organization among all current major league GMs. Coming to the Braves from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, Schuerholz's time with Atlanta is about four years longer than that of the Minnesota Twins' Terry Ryan (September, 1994) and the St. Louis Cardinals' Walt Jocketty (October, 1994). Schuerholz's contract runs through the 2007 season.

Under his leadership, the Braves have achieved unprecedented success, compiling the best record in baseball (1,510-1,014; .598) over the past 16 seasons. The Braves established an American professional sports record by winning 14 consecutive division titles from 1991 to 2005 (the 1994 season was not played to completion).

The Braves have won five NL pennants, one World Series, several organization of the year awards and have surpassed the 3,000,000 mark in attendance six times in the past 16 seasons. By finishing 101-61 in 2003, the Braves reached the century mark in victories for the fifth time in seven seasons and for the sixth time since 1993.

During his career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, Schuerholz has been associated with three World Champions (1966, 1985 and 1995), eight pennant winners and 20 division crowns. In 2004, to honor his nearly 40 years of success at the major league level, Baseball America named him the recipient of the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award. Atlanta's overall success in 2005 also helped the Braves earn Baseball America's prestigious Organization of the Year award.

Various groups have honored the achievements of the Braves and Schuerholz. The Negro Leagues Baseball Museum recognized John as the National League Executive of the Year with its Andrew "Rube" Foster Award in 2001, 2002 and 2005. The Braves 400 Club bestowed its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" Award, presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" to Schuerholz in February 2000. Baseball America honored the Braves as the most outstanding major league franchise of the past two decades with its 20th Anniversary Award of Excellence in December 2001.

As a result of the Braves' 1991 worst-to-first performance, Schuerholz was named the Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend Magazine.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz achieved a unique distinction – he became the first executive to be General Manager of world championship teams in both the American and National leagues. Since he was appointed General Manager of the Kansas City Royals in 1981, his teams have more wins (2,264) than those of any active GM in the major leagues.

Winningest Teams Since 1991

Since John Schuerholz's arrival from Kansas City in October of 1990, the Braves have won more games than any other Major League team.

During Schuerholz's time with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship (1985), two American League pennants (1980 and 1985) and six division crowns (1976, 1977, 1978, 1980, 1984 and 1985). Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz as the Major League Executive of the Year in 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

Schuerholz has proven to be a man of action ever since joining the Braves. An average of about 10 new faces appear on the club's Opening Day roster each year, reflecting offseason transactions and the maturing of farm system products. Almost without exception during the season, Schuerholz has annually acquired at least one player who has contributed greatly to the Braves' successful run. John Smoltz, in fact, is the only current Braves player who has been around for all 14 division titles.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later, and as an administrative assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first ever Royals roster. He was named Assistant Farm Director in 1970 and became Farm Director in 1975. He was promoted to Director of Player Procurement and Development in 1976 and Vice President-Player Personnel in 1979. The Royals named Schuerholz Executive Vice President and General Manager in October of 1981, when he was 41.

Born October 1, 1940, Schuerholz is a graduate of Towson (MD) University, where he played soccer and baseball. He was an all-conference choice in baseball and was named the school's Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1973 and currently serves on the school's Board of Visitors. Towson's baseball facility is named John Schuerholz Park.

Schuerholz authored his first book, "Built to Win: Inside Stories and Leadership Strategies from Baseball's Winningest GM," which was released in the spring of 2006.

Schuerholz serves on the board and is active with Camp Sunshine, a summer camp for children with cancer, and YES! Atlanta, a program for disadvantaged youth. He and his wife Karen have a daughter, Gina, and a son, Jonathan, who is a minor league player in the Braves organization.

R.E. Turner

Board of Directors

Throughout his career, R.E. "Ted" Turner has received recognition for his entrepreneurial acumen, sharp business skills, leadership qualities, and his unprecedented philanthropy.

Over the past four decades, Turner stepped into the international spotlight with one accomplishment after another. Whether in billboard advertisement, cable television, sports team ownership, sailing, environmental initiatives or philanthropy - Turner's vision, determination, generosity and forthrightness have consistently given the world reason to take notice.

Turner is chairman of the Turner Foundation, which supports efforts for improving air and water quality, developing a sustainable energy future to protect our climate, safeguarding environmental health, maintaining wildlife habitat protection, and developing practices and policies to curb population growth rates; co-chairman of the Nuclear Threat Initiative, which works to close the growing and increasingly dangerous gap between the threat from nuclear, chemical and biological weapons; chairman of the United Nations Foundation, which promotes a more peaceful, prosperous and just world; and a partner in the Ted's Montana Grill restaurant chain, which operates more than 40 locations nationwide.

Turner is also chairman of Turner Enterprises, Inc., which manages his private landholdings in an economically sustainable and ecologically sensitive manner while promoting the conservation of native species. He owns more than two million acres of land in the U.S. and Argentina.

Ruby M. Lucas

Board of Directors

Ruby Mims Lucas is a member of the board of directors of the Atlanta Braves and serves in a consulting role on community and internal development matters relating to the franchise. From 1996 until her retirement in 2001, Lucas was vice president of community relations for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS, Inc.). As such, she served as the company's primary community liaison, overseeing the development and implementation of community relations and employee volunteer initiatives. From 1991 to 1996, Lucas was the company's executive-on-loan for The Atlanta Project, a resident-directed community initiative of former President Jimmy Carter and The Carter Center. In this position, Lucas directed Turner

Broadcasting's participation as a corporate partner to the Douglass Cluster, a southwest Atlanta community. Prior to joining TBS, Inc., Lucas served as a public school teacher in Florida and Atlanta public school systems for more than 25 years.

From 1981 through 1995, Lucas was a member of the board of directors for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. From 1990 to 1991, Lucas served as human resources administrator for management training. She is a former member of the Atlanta School Board, appointed by Gov. Zell Miller to serve an interim term.

Lucas is president of the board of directors of the Bill Lucas Foundation, which honors her late husband, William D. Lucas, the general manager of the Atlanta Braves from 1976 until his death in 1979. The Foundation provides college scholarships to high school students who excel in academics and varsity baseball, as well as provides funds for metro Atlanta community service projects. She is also a member of the board of directors for Florida A & M's Foundation.

Frank Wren

Vice President/Assistant General Manager - Player Personnel

Frank Wren completed his sixth season as Vice President/Assistant General Manager in 2006. Named to the position on October 13, 1999, Wren assists Executive Vice President/General Manager John Schuerholz in all aspects of the club's baseball operations at the major league level.

Wren, 48, was the Baltimore Orioles' General Manager in 1999 after serving as the Florida Marlins' Vice President/Assistant General Manager from 1991 through 1998. He began his front office career as the General Manager of the Jamestown Expos of the New York-Penn League in 1985. He then became Montreal's Assistant Scouting Director and, in 1989, was appointed the team's Director of Latin American Scouting and Operations.

Under his direction, the Expos built a new Latin baseball academy in the Dominican Republic. This academy was responsible for much of the talent that led to the Expos' success in the 1990's. The Expos' farm system was twice honored as Baseball America's "Organization of the Year" during Wren's tenure.

Wren began his professional baseball career as a center fielder in Montreal's minor league system in 1977 and reached the Double-A level before retiring in 1982. He coached in the Expos' system from 1981 to 1984.

Wren serves on the board of the Black Rock Foundation, a benevolent organization in Fayette County, Georgia, and on the board of Landmark Christian Schools. He, his wife Terri and their three sons, twins Kyle and Colby (15) and Jordan (12), live in Peachtree City.

Mike Plant

Executive Vice President/Business Operations

Mike Plant was named the Braves' Executive Vice President of Business Operations in November 2003. His responsibilities include overseeing stadium operations, security, finance, merchandise, personnel, special events and the operations of the minor league clubs.

Since joining the Braves, Plant has implemented numerous improvements at Turner Field including the installation of the largest high-definition display in the world, the wrap-around LED display boards, Tooner Field, Skip and Pete's BBQ and the redesign of the 755 Club, the Lexus Level and the Lexus Level suites. He also enhanced Turner Field parking and traffic patterns.

Plant joined the Braves after having served as an executive vice president of Turner Sports since February of 2002. In that position he was in charge of the day-to-day operations of the division, a $500-million acquisition, promotion and production company that broadcast approximately 1,200 hours of sports programming on various Turner networks.

Before becoming executive vice president of Turner Sports, Plant was president of Goodwill Games and vice president of events for Turner Sports. He was responsible for the overall direction and management of the Goodwill Games, as well as all sports properties acquired by Turner Sports.

Prior to joining Turner Sports, Plant was president of Medalist Sports, a full-service sports marketing company he founded in 1988. Medalist Sports created and operated premier cycling events, such as the Tour DuPont, Tour of China and the 1996 Olympic Trials. In addition, Plant was the associate executive director of the U.S. Cycling Federation in Colorado Springs, Colo., from 1986-88 and the executive director of the Canoe and Kayak Team from 1985-86.

Plant was a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Speed Skating team in Lake Placid, N.Y., and a six-time member of the U.S. World Championship speed skating teams. Since 1980, he has been appointed to numerous committees for the U.S. Olympic Committee (USOC), the U.S. International Speed skating Association and USA Cycling. In January 1989, after having served two four-year terms as the U.S. speed skating athlete representative on the USOC's Athlete's Advisory Council, he was elected to a four-year term as chairman. Plant served on the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games (ACOG) Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees for the Salt Lake City Olympic Bid Committee for the 2002 Winter Games.

Currently, Plant serves on the USOC Board of Directors. He served an eight-year term on the USOC's Board of Directors and executive committee (1984-92) and as chairman of the Athlete Performance Group (1992-96). Some of the other USOC committees he has worked on include the Olympic Broadcast Properties Board, the Finance Committee, Athlete Insurance Committee, Junior Olympic Committee, Games Preparation Committee, the President's Task Force on Central Funding, the Nominating Committee for USOC Officers and the Executive Director Search Committee.

Plant was the president of USA Cycling, the National Governing Body for Olympic cycling from 1995 - 2002.

He and his wife Mary have two daughters, Erika and Maddie, and a son, Drew.

Derek Schiller

Senior Vice President/Sales and Marketing

As senior vice president of sales and marketing, Derek Schiller is responsible for the management for all baseball-related revenues such as ticket sales, corporate sales, broadcasting, licensing and merchandising, community relations and the overall marketing strategy for the franchise.

He joined the Braves in November 2003, and, under his leadership, the team has increased emphasis on improving the overall fan experience through enhanced game entertainment, promotions, and guest services and made the Braves' season-ticket holders a business priority. He has redefined the Braves sports marketing and promotional campaigns and has actively grown the Braves community outreach.

Schiller also manages the Braves television relationships with Turner Sports, FSN South and SportsSouth and their radio relationship with Clear Channel Radio that includes 150 affiliates across the Southeast.

Schiller came to the Braves after having served as vice president of sales and marketing for the Atlanta Thrashers hockey team since 1998. In that position, he engineered highly successful marketing and advertising campaigns, which resulted in the Thrashers setting an NHL expansion attendance record of 705,389 fans for the 1999-2000 season. In addition, he was a driving force behind the team's community efforts and was responsible for the establishment of the Atlanta Thrashers Foundation, a nonprofit, grant-making public charity that assists charitable, educational and public service organizations.

He also was instrumental in negotiating the team's first television contracts with Turner South and UPN69 and he oversaw the Thrashers Radio Network, which grew to include nearly 24 affiliates throughout Georgia, Alabama and South Carolina.

Before joining the Thrashers, Schiller served as vice president of business development for the New York Yankees from 1996-97. While there, he was responsible for all revenue-producing and related functions, including sponsorship sales, marketing, ticket and suite sales, publications, concessions and merchandising, fan services and licensing.

Prior to joining the Yankees, Schiller was the executive director of Atlanta's International Sports Plaza (ISP). He developed the first-ever private press center serving non-accredited press organizations during the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games and managed the hospitality venue during the Games in partnership with several Olympic sponsors.

Schiller earned a bachelor's degree in engineering from Vanderbilt University in 1992. He and his wife Kristin and their two children, Luke and Carson, reside in Atlanta.

Chip Moore

Vice President/Controller

Chip Moore is in his 11th season as a Braves' Vice President and Controller and his 30th season with the organization overall.

Moore has moved up through the organization during his tenure. He began as an usher at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium before working nine seasons as a member of the Braves grounds crew. In 1985, he joined the Braves Accounting Department and rose to Assistant Controller in 1988 and eventually to the role of Controller in 1992. In his present capacity as Vice President and Controller for the Braves, Moore manages the accounting and finance functions.

The 45-year old Moore graduated from Oglethorpe University in 1985 with a degree in Business Administration majoring in Accounting. Moore serves on the Board of Directors and as Treasurer for the Atlanta Braves Foundation. He is also on the Board of Directors and serves as Vice President of the South Atlantic League of Professional Baseball. Moore currently serves as a member of Major League Baseball's Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Committee. In 2006, Moore was elected into the South Atlantic League Hall of Fame.

Moore and his wife Anne reside in Powder Springs. They have one daughter, Jordan, and one son, Will.

John Cooper

Vice President/Team Counsel

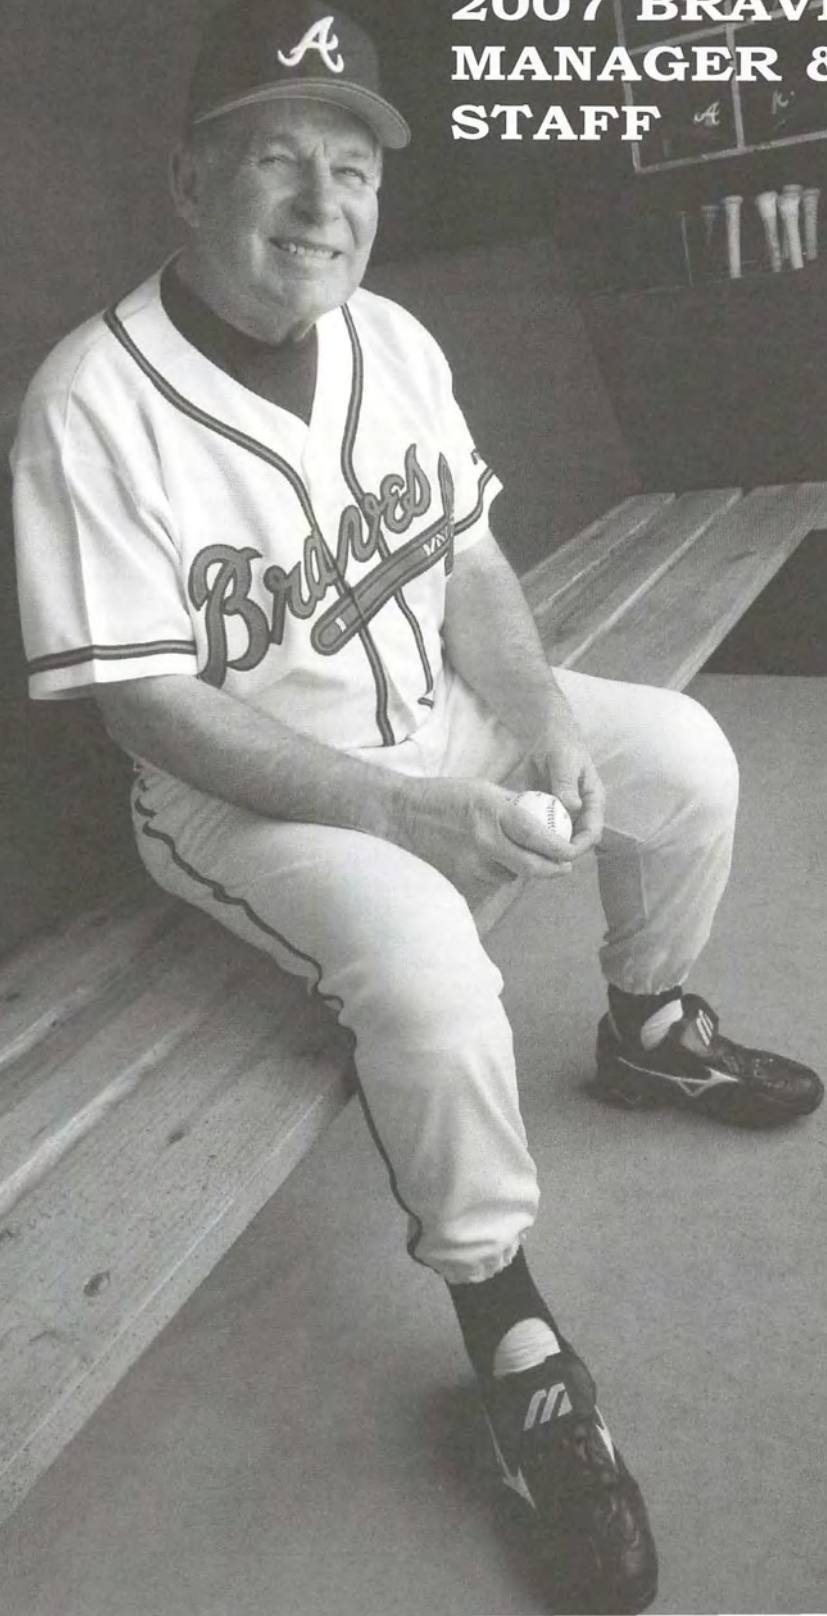

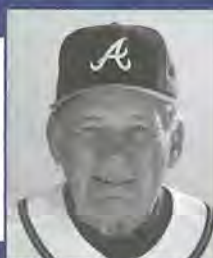

John Cooper, vice president and team counsel, has represented the organization as legal counsel since 1997. He also currently serves as Associate General Counsel for Turner Sports, handling Turner's sports rights licensing (e.g., NBA, NASCAR, NASCAR.Com, British Open) and talent negotiations (e.g. Doug Collins, Charles Barkley), as well as Turner Entertainment Group, representing Turner's non-animation entertainment networks such as TNT, TBS, Turner Classic Movies and Turner South.

Cooper joined Turner in 1997 as legal counsel to Turner Sports, Goodwill Games, World Championship Wrestling, the Braves and the Atlanta Hawks. In February 2000, he was promoted to Team Counsel of all three Turner-owned sports teams - the Braves, Hawks and Atlanta Thrashers and their venues, Turner Field and Philips Arena, managing all business and player operations legal work, and Assistant General Counsel to Turner Sports and Turner Sports Interactive. Prior to joining Turner, Cooper practiced corporate law at Troutman Sanders in Atlanta.

Cooper received his undergraduate degree in industrial management from Purdue University in 1989 and his law degree from Indiana University-Bloomington in 1992. He and his wife Jennifer have three daughters, Emily, Mimi and Sarah Jane.

BBWAA MANAGER OF YEAR: 1985, 1991, 2004, 2005

SPORTING NEWS MANAGER OF YEAR: 1985, 1991, 1993, 1999, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005

MANAGER

The 2007 season marks Bobby Cox's 26th as a Major League manager and his 22nd at the helm of the Atlanta Braves. Atlanta's 79-83 record in 2006 was just his sixth career losing campaign and snapped his string of 15 consecutive winning seasons, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time behind Joe McCarthy (20) and Sparky Anderson (17).

Cox's 2,171 wins rank fifth all-time and include a franchise-best 1,816 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox owns a career record of 2,171-1,686 and his .563 career winning percentage ranks third all-time. The Braves have won more games (1,510) in the 16-season span since 1991 than any other team in baseball. Cox has won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 in Atlanta that have led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995).

The 2005 season was one that many observers considered the finest of Cox's long and storied career, as he led the injury-riddled Braves to their 14th consecutive division title. Despite extended injuries to such stars as Chipper Jones and Johnny Estrada, as well as lengthy absences by three-fifths of the starting rotation (Mike Hampton, Tim Hudson and John Thomson), Cox again worked his magic, utilizing the services of 18 different rookies, 12 of whom made their Major League debut. The Braves' 2005 first-place finish was the 15th in a row for Cox in seasons in which he managed from the outset, including his final year in Toronto in 1985. The '05 campaign was Cox's 14th with 90 or more wins, placing him third all-time in 90-win seasons behind Hall of Famer skippers John McGraw (16) and Joe McCarthy (15). Cox was voted the National League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America for the second consecutive season, and fourth overall, as well as being named Manager of the Year by Sporting News, Baseball America and Sports Weekly. The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the NL's top skipper for the fourth straight season, marking the seventh time he received the honor with the Braves and the eighth time overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936.

In 2004, Cox was voted the NL Manager of the Year by the BBWAA, as well as Sporting News, Baseball America and Sports Weekly. Despite the off-season departures of such players as Gary Sheffield, Javy Lopez, Vinny Castilla and Greg Maddux, and prolonged injuries to such stars as Horacio Ramirez and Marcus Giles, Cox proved the prognosticators wrong and led the club to a 96-66 record, winning the NL East by 10 games. On September 29, 2004, in the season's final home game, Cox earned his 2,000th career victory with a 6-4 decision over the New York Mets. He became just the ninth skipper in big-league history to reach that lofty milestone.

The Sporting News named Cox the NL manager of the year in 2003 as he moved past Casey Stengel into ninth place on the all-time managerial win list. He joined the Yankees' Joe McCarthy as the only managers in major league history to guide their teams to 100 or more wins in a season six times. The Braves, with their 101-61 record, utilized a record-setting offense and quality pitching, finishing 10 games ahead of the Florida Marlins in the NL East. With the Braves' 101st win on the last day of the 2003 season, a 5-2 victory at Philadelphia, Cox reached 1,906 career victories, one more than Stengel.

Cox earned the Sporting News award for the fifth time in 2002, when the Braves won their 12th consecutive division title despite a mostly unheralded bullpen and injuries to key personnel.

*Hall of Famer

Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports world championship in 1995 when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians, four games to two, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise had won a World Series in three different cities.

In 1993, the Braves won a then franchise-record 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight division titles. The Braves' 400 Club honored Cox with its Mr. Baseball Award that season.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst-to-first and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several postseason honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to '81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by finishing 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America, the Associated Press and the Sporting News.

Cox returned to the Braves as General Manager in October of 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for the team's recent success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz General Manager in October of that year.

Cox spent five years in the Dodgers' farm system before being selected by the Chicago Cubs in the November 1964 Minor League Draft. He was acquired by the Braves in a 1966 trade that sent outfielder Billy Cowan to the Cubs. After playing for Triple-A Richmond in 1967, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team in 1968, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in '69.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire as a player at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class-A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. He served as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977.

Born May 21, 1941, in Tulsa, OK, Cox graduated from Selma (CA) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley (CA) Junior College. Cox, his wife Pam, and three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla, live in Marietta. He has five other children: Debbie, Bobby Jr., Connie, Shelly and Randy. Cox was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in May 2006.

After 11 seasons in the Braves organization, Chino Cadahia joins the Braves' Major League coaching staff for the first time in 2007. He served two years (1996-97) as the roving catching instructor and was named to the position of Minor League Field Coordinator in November 1997.

Cadahia, 48, came to the Braves in 1996 after serving in the Texas Rangers organization for 12 years as a pitching coach and manager in their minor league system. He began his coaching career as a pitching coach at Salem of the Carolina League from 1984 through 1985. The following year he managed Daytona Beach of the Florida State League, and in 1987 he managed at Gastonia of the South Atlantic League. From 1988 through 1995, Cadahia managed the Rangers' Gulf Coast League rookie squad in Port Charlotte, Florida.

After being drafted by Philadelphia out of Miami-Dade Community College, Cadahia spent seven minor league seasons, 1977 to 1983, with the Phillies and Minnesota Twins.

Chino and his wife Lynn reside in Visalia, CA, with their daughter Lauren.

GLENN HUBBARD

HEIGHT: 5-7 WEIGHT: 170
BORN: 9/25/57 at Hahn AFB, Germany
RESIDES: Stone Mountain, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 9th

FIRST BASE COACH

A former Braves' player (1978-87), Glenn Hubbard is in his ninth season as the club's first base coach. Prior to joining the major league staff in 1999, Hubbard spent the previous nine years coaching with the Braves' minor league affiliates: Bradenton (1990), Macon (1991-92, 1994 and 1998) and Richmond (1993, 1995-97).

Hubbard wore a Braves uniform for 10 of his 12 major league seasons. In 1981 he set a then Atlanta Braves' record for second basemen with a .991 fielding percentage. His most successful year was in 1983, when he hit .263 and set career highs with 12 home runs and 70 RBI and was also named to the National League All-Star team. Hubbard led all NL second basemen in double plays in 1982, 1985 and 1987. He ended his playing career with the 1988 pennant-winning and the 1989 World Champion Oakland A's.

Hubbard, the Braves' 20th-round selection in the 1975 June draft, was signed by Bill Wight. Hubbard began his career with Atlanta in 1978 when he was promoted after being named Rookie of the Year in Richmond. In only his second major league game, he participated in a triple play against Philadelphia on July 15, 1978. He hit his first major league home run on September 23, 1978, off Cincinnati's Manny Sarmiento. On April 14, 1985, he tied a major league record for assists in a game by a second baseman when he had 12 vs. the Padres. Hubbard holds the record with seven other second basemen.

In 1998 with Macon, Glenn was named as a coach on the South Atlantic League's postseason All-Star team.

Born in Hahn AFB in Germany, Hubbard graduated from Lomand High School in Ogden, Utah. A four-sport athlete, participating in basketball, wrestling, football and baseball, he was inducted into the Utah Athletic Hall of Fame in November 2001.

One of his prize pupils was Marcus Giles, who hit .316 in an All-Star season in 2003, when he led the major leagues with a .342 road batting average, set a modern-day franchise record with 49 doubles. Giles also improved immeasurably as a fielder, leading the National League in assists by a second baseman with 471.

Hubbard spent the 2006-07 off-season working rigorously with Kelly Johnson, as Johnson learned the second base position in preparation for the 2007 campaign.

Glenn and his wife, Lynn, reside in Stone Mountain, GA. They have three sons: Jeremy, Matthew and Daniel.

PITCHING COACH

The 2007 season marks Roger McDowell's second with the Braves and his second campaign as a big-league pitching coach. He spent the 2004-05 seasons as the pitching coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers' Triple-A franchise, the Las Vegas 51s, and was the pitching coach for the Class-A South Georgia Waves in 2002-03.

McDowell was one of the game's premier relievers during a 12-year career that spanned the 1985-96 seasons with the Mets, Phillies, Dodgers, Rangers and Orioles. He was a third-round draft pick of the Mets in 1982 and pitched in 723 games in his Major League career, posting a 70-70 record with 159 saves and a 3.30 ERA. In 1986, he was a member of the Mets' World Championship team and posted a 14-9 record with 22 saves in 75 games out of the bullpen.

McDowell graduated from Cincinnati's Colerain High school in 1979 and played for Bowling Green State University. He was inducted into BGSU's athletic Hall of Fame in 1988. He has made television appearances on Seinfeld, America's Funniest People and MTV.

McDowell and his wife Gloria reside in Palm Springs, Calif., with their daughters Amanda and Rachel. Roger also has a son, Logan.

HITTING COACH

Terry Pendleton completed his fifth and possibly most successful season as the Braves' hitting coach in 2006. The Braves led the National League in home runs (222) and slugging percentage (.455) and ranked second in the circuit in runs scored (849) and batting average (.270). The home run total ranked second in franchise history, while the runs total ranked second in Atlanta history.

The Braves have compiled 300 doubles in a season five times in franchise history, including each of the last four seasons (2003-2006) under Pendleton's supervision.

In 2005, Pendleton was instrumental in outfielder Andruw Jones' MVP-caliber season, as Jones adopted a new batting stance and established a Braves franchise record with 51 home runs. Pendleton also worked closely with a string of rookies who made huge contributions throughout the season. The 2005 Braves became the first team in history to reach the postseason with six rookies who had 100 or more at-bats (the previous record was four rookies by the 1983 Los Angeles Dodgers and the 1989 Chicago Cubs).

In his second season as Braves' hitting coach in 2003, the team established franchise bests in home runs (225), hits (1,608), doubles (321) and slugging percentage (.475) and had the highest team batting average in Atlanta history. Several individual players enjoyed "career" seasons as well, and much of the credit for those accomplishments went to Pendleton.

Named to the Braves staff in November 2001, this is Pendleton's first major league coaching position. He enjoyed a 15-year major league playing career and was selected the NL Most Valuable Player in 1991 and was an All-Star third baseman in 1992 while playing for the Braves.

A switch-hitter, Pendleton batted .287 with 71 home runs and 322 RBI in 593 games for Atlanta and .270 with 140 homers and 946 RBI in 1,893 games overall with the St. Louis Cardinals, Braves, Florida Marlins, Cincinnati Reds and Kansas City Royals. He was a three-time recipient of the Rawlings Gold Glove Award (in 1987 and 1989 with St. Louis and in 1992 with Atlanta).

Signed as a free agent in December of 1990 by Executive Vice President and General Manager John Schuerholz, Pendleton played for the Braves from 1991 through 1994 and in part of 1996. He was a key factor in the Braves' turn-around from being the worst team in the major leagues in 1990 to a pennant-winning club the next year, as he batted an NL-best .319 with 22 home runs and 86 RBI. He tied for the league lead with 303 total bases, helping him earn Comeback Player of the Year honors, as well as the MVP award.

He was voted an All-Star starter in 1992, hitting .296 with 13 home runs and 51 RBI before the break and finishing the year with a .311 average, 21 homers and a career-high 105 RBI to lead the Braves to another pennant. He led the NL with a .387 average with runners in scoring position and had a career-best 199 hits, a franchise record for third basemen.

Originally selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1982 June draft, Pendleton, after his first four seasons with the Braves, signed with the Marlins as a free agent in April 1995. Florida traded him back to Atlanta in exchange for outfielder Roosevelt Brown in August 1996. Pendleton was signed as a free agent by the Reds in January 1997 and the Royals in January 1998. He retired as a player the following December.

Terry and his wife Catherine and their three children, Stephanie, Terry and Trinity, reside in Duluth, Ga.

BULLPEN COACH

After concluding a 20-year playing career in 2006, Eddie Perez opens a new chapter in his baseball life in 2007. He joins the Braves' coaching staff as the bullpen coach after playing 11 seasons at the Major League level, including nine seasons with the Braves.

Perez, 38, played 18 of his 20 professional seasons in the Braves organization. The former catcher began his career with Bradenton in 1987 and reached the majors in 1995, the year Atlanta won the World Series. Perez was on seven postseason squads for Atlanta (1995-99, 2001, 2004) and played in 30 postseason games. His .464 (13-for-28) batting average in National League Championship Series competition is the highest ever for a catcher (minimum 25 at-bats). Perez batted .500 (10-for-20) in the 1999 NLCS vs. the Mets and claimed series MVP honors.

Perez spent the 2002 season with the Cleveland Indians and played with the Milwaukee Brewers in 2003 before re-joining the Braves in 2004. Right shoulder tendinitis plagued Perez throughout the 2005 season, and he spent the entire 2006 campaign at Double-A Mississippi. He was limited to just 13 games in 2006, but spent much of his time assisting M-Braves Manager Jeff Blauser.

Perez attended Doctor Raul Cuenca High School in Ciudad Ojeda, Venezuela, where he played volleyball and baseball. He and his wife Marisol have one daughter, Mariel, and one son, Andres Eduardo, and reside in Duluth, Ga.

THIRD BASE COACH

The 2007 season marks Brian Snitker's first as third base coach and his third stint on the Braves' major league coaching staff. His two previous stints with the major league staff came as bullpen coach in 1985 and again from 1988 to 1990.

Snitker managed at Triple-A Richmond in 2006 after spending four seasons as the skipper of the Club's Double-A affiliate in Greenville (2002-04) and Mississippi (2005).

Snitker, 51, joined the organization as a player in 1977 and has been with the Braves in a variety of roles ever since. The former catcher spent four seasons as a player. He retired at the conclusion of the 1980 season and began his coaching career as a roving instructor for the Braves in 1981. Snitker took his first managerial job in 1982, with Anderson of the South Atlantic League.

Following a three-year stint with the major league club, he returned to minor league coaching in 1991 and moved back into managing in 1992 with Macon. He coached in the Atlanta system from 1993 to '95, and again served as a minor league manager from 1996 to 2006.

In his 16 seasons as a manager, he compiled an overall record of 1,140-1,145 (.499). Five of his clubs advanced to postseason play, and he won two league championships (back-to-back titles with Myrtle Beach in 1999-2000) and two league Manager of the Year Awards (also in the Carolina League in 1999-2000).

An Illinois native, Snitker played college baseball at the University of New Orleans before signing with the Braves as a non-drafted free agent in 1977. Snitker and his wife Veronica reside in Lilburn, Ga., with their children, Erin and Troy.

FRANK FULTZ

HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 180
BORN: 11/15/51 in Chicago, Illinois
RESIDES: Alpharetta, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 16th

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH 59

Frank Fultz has served as the Braves' strength and conditioning coach since 1992, the second year of the team's remarkable run of 14 consecutive division titles. He pulled double duty in 1998, when he also served as minor league fitness coordinator.

Fultz's professional career began in 1986 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Houston Astros, while at the same time serving as associate head baseball coach at the University of Houston. He spent 1988 through 1991 as a strength and conditioning coach in the Pittsburgh Pirates' minor league system.

Prior to moving to Houston, Fultz was the head baseball coach at Texas Wesleyan College, which won the NAIA District II championship from 1979 through 1985 and the regional title in 1980-81. He began his amateur career as the pitching coach at Triton College in River Grove, Illinois, in 1976-77, before serving in the same capacity at George Mason University in 1978.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in educational psychology from Texas Wesleyan in 1973, Fultz earned his master's in physical education/exercise physiology from Utah State in 1974. He received a doctorate in health science from the University of Utah in 1976.

Fultz resides in Alpharetta, Ga., with his two children, daughter Natalie and son Warren.

Alan Butts ♦ Baseball Systems Operator & Bullpen Catcher

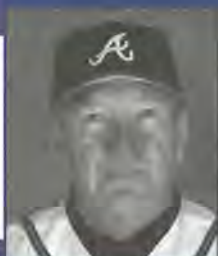

Alan Butts joined the Braves in 1992. He coordinates the team scouting reports for each opponent and assists with all aspects of the Braves' pre-game preparations. During the game he assists the bullpen coach and pitchers in the bullpen.

A native of Atlanta, Butts attended North Clayton High School and Valdosta State University, where he received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Public Relations-Speech Communications. At Valdosta State, Butts played under legendary coach Tommy Thomas, the winningest baseball coach in Division II history.

A highlight of Butts' career came in 2000, when he served on Bobby Cox's All-Star Game coaching staff and pitched in the Home Run Derby competition.

He and his wife Tammy reside in Newnan, Ga., with their children Colby, Ansley and Avery. The 43-year-old Butts enjoys golfing in his spare time.

BOBBY DEWS

HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 180
BORN: 3/23/39 in Alinton, Iowa
RESIDES: Edison, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 13th

SENIOR BASEBALL ADVISOR

A member of the Braves organization as a manager, coach, instructor or administrator since 1975, Bobby Dews joined Atlanta's staff for the third time when he was named third base coach in December of 1996.

Following the 2006 season, the Braves announced that Dews would assume a new role in the organization. Beginning in 2007, Dews will be utilized in a variety of ways. He will attend spring training with the Major League club and will assist at most Braves home games during the season. When the team is on the road, Dews will travel to the minor league clubs to assist in the development of the managers and coaching staffs, and to help make player evaluations.

Dews worked in Atlanta under Bobby Cox as a bullpen coach in 1979 and as third base coach in 1980-81. He served as first base coach under manager Eddie Haas and as third base coach for Bobby Wine in 1985. The 2006 season marked his eighth straight as the Braves' bullpen coach.

Prior to rejoining the major league staff in December of 1996, Dews had served as the Braves' minor league field coordinator since 1991, and, as such, was responsible for supervising instruction throughout the farm system.

Dews succeeded Hank Aaron as Atlanta's Director of Player Development in December of 1989, after having been the Assistant Director of Player Development for two years. Dews was a roving minor league instructor in 1986 and 1987.

Appointed manager of Class-A Greenwood of the Western Carolinas League in 1975, Dews spent eight of the next 11 years managing in the Braves' system, guiding five of his clubs to their respective playoffs. The Double-A Savannah Braves, who won the Southern League championship in 1978, earned Dews Manager of the Year honors. An infielder in the Cardinals' organization from 1960 through part of 1970, he actually began his managerial career in 1969 at Lewiston.

A native of Clinton, Iowa, Dews graduated from Edison (Ga.) High School and attended Georgia Tech, where he was a standout basketball and baseball player. He earned a degree in English from West Georgia College in 1968. An accomplished writer, Dews had a novel, Largo, published in 1986 and his book Legends, Demons and Dreams was published in 2004. Bobby and his wife, Glenda, live in Edison, Ga. They have one daughter, Dana.

Jeff Porter ♦ Head Athletic Trainer

The 2007 season marks Jeff Porter's fifth as the Braves' Head Athletic Trainer and his 23rd in the Braves organization. Porter joined the Braves in 1985 as the Assistant Athletic Trainer and assumed the Head Trainer duties in 2003, when Dave Pursley retired.

A native of Wilmington, NC, Porter graduated from Burgaw High School. He received a Bachelor's degree from the University of North Carolina-Wilmington in 1977 and earned his Master's degree from the University of Denver in 1979.

Following college, the 51-year-old Porter worked his way through the minor leagues. From 1979 to 1984, he had stints with the Denver Bears, Jamestown Expos, Memphis Chicks and Indianapolis Indians.

Porter was honored as the National League athletic trainer for the 1996 Major League Baseball All-Star Game in Philadelphia, and in 2006 was the athletic trainer for MLB's Japan All-Star Tour. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the American College of Sports Medicine and is a board member for the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society.

An avid hunter and fisherman, Porter and his wife Kathy reside in Loganville, Ga., with their son David.

Jim Lovell ♦ Assistant Athletic Trainer

Following 18 seasons in the Braves minor league system, Lovell joined the major league club on a full-time basis in 2003. He served as the Head Minor League Athletic Trainer, coordinating the minor league medical staff, and covered the Class-AAA Richmond club from 1991 to 2002. He served as athletic trainer for the Triple-A All-Star game in 1991.

Lovell joined the Braves organization in 1985 and spent six years at Class-AA Greenville, earning Southern League Trainer of the Year honors three times. He served as the trainer for the Southern League All-Star game three times.

Until 1992, Lovell also spent his off seasons as a part of the football program at Auburn University. He served as the interim assistant trainer for the major league club during the 1992 and 2000 seasons. Lovell joined the major league club in September 2002 and was named the full-time assistant trainer the following year.

Lovell holds a Bachelor's degree in Community Health and a Master's degree in Exercise Physiology. He is a licensed Emergency Medical Technician, and certified as an athletic trainer by the National Athletic Trainer's Association. An avid follower of Auburn football, Lovell is single and resides in Newnan, Ga. He enjoys golf, reading and listening to country western music.

Bill Acree ♦ Director of Team Travel & Equipment Manager

Bill Acree has served in the Braves organization since the club moved to Atlanta in 1966. He worked as a member of the grounds crew his first two seasons and began serving as Visiting Clubhouse Manager in 1968. Acree became the Equipment Manager in 1973. Since 1981 he has served in the dual role of Director of Team Travel and Equipment Manager.

Born in Gainesville, FL, Acree graduated from Atlanta's Briarcliff High School and attended Dekalb College.

Acree, 58, has three children: daughter Carolyn and sons Bill Jr. and Ben. Ben Acree serves as the Braves' Assistant Clubhouse and Equipment Manager.

Acree and his wife Cindy reside in Gainesville, Ga. He enjoys golfing and is an avid fisherman. Acree is an active supporter of Hemophilia of Georgia and holds an annual golf tournament to raise money for the organization.

John Holland ♦ Visiting Clubhouse Manager

The 2007 season marks John Holland's 39th with the Braves. His career began as a 15-year-old batboy in September 1968. Holland became an assistant in the visiting clubhouse in 1969 and was named Assistant Equipment Manager in 1973, a title he held through the 1982 campaign. In 1983 Holland was named Visiting Clubhouse Manager and has held that role ever since.

A native of Atlanta, Holland graduated from Columbia High School and earned a Bachelor's degree in Journalism from the University of Georgia in 1974.

Holland, 54, is an avid fan of Georgia Bulldogs athletics. He and his wife Patty reside in Suwanee, Ga. They have two sons, Andrew (27) and Nicky (22), and a daughter, Lauren (17).

Fred Stone ♦ Assistant Braves & Visiting Clubhouse Manager

The 2007 season is Fred Stone's 31st in the Braves organization and his 24th with the major league club. In addition to his duties in Atlanta, Stone also serves as the Clubhouse Manager for the annual Braves Fantasy Camp in Orlando, FL.

A native of Richmond, Va., Stone began his career in 1977 as a member of the grounds crew for the Triple-A Richmond Braves. He later became a clubhouse assistant and then served as Clubhouse Manager, as well as various other roles within the club.

Stone graduated from Chickahominy Academy in 1982 and joined Atlanta's clubhouse staff in 1984.

The 43-year-old Stone is single and resides in Woodstock, Ga. He enjoys golfing and is an avid NASCAR and hockey fan.

Chris Van Zant ♦ Assistant Clubhouse & Team Travel Manager

Chris Van Zant joined the Braves as a batboy and clubhouse assistant in September 1990 and continued in that role through the 2000 season. In 2001 he became the Assistant Clubhouse Manager and Team Travel Manager.

Part of Van Zant's duties include producing the annual team travel guide and itinerary. He also plans the bus and equipment truck times for all road trips and helps oversee the club's batboys. Van Zant has been an umpire's room attendant since 2001.

A native of Swarthmore, PA, the 33-year-old Van Zant attended St. Pius X High School in Atlanta. He graduated from Georgia Tech in 1999 with a Bachelor's degree in Management.

Van Zant is a contributor to a variety of charitable foundations, including Kate's Club (for children who have lost a parent), as well as various schools and hospitals.

He and his wife Katie have two sons, C.J. and Will, and reside in Mableton, Ga.

Ben Acree ♦ Assistant Clubhouse & Equipment Manager

Ben Acree joined the Braves staff in 1997 and is in his 11th season with the club. He has also served as an umpire's room attendant since 2001.

A native of Atlanta, the 28-year-old Acree has been around the Braves his entire life. Ben's father, Bill Acree, is the Braves' Director of Team Travel and Equipment Manager.

A graduate of Parkview High School, Acree and his wife Adria reside in Smyrna, Ga. In their spare time, the couple enjoys cooking and outdoor activities.

Rob Smith ♦ Video Coordinator

Rob Smith is in his 13th season with the Braves and his ninth season in his current role as Video Coordinator. Smith is responsible for the editing, logging and charting of every pitch for all Braves games. The video is then reviewed by the coaching staff and players for instructional and scouting purposes. Smith also coordinates video on all Braves opponents to be used in conjunction with team and player scouting reports.

Smith, 35, began with the Braves in 1995 as a game day employee in Corporate Sponsor Hospitality. In 1996 he served as a Customer Service Representative in the Ticket Sales department, and in 1997-98 he was a Marketing Representative and also worked part time coordinating the Braves' video efforts.

Born in Concord, NH, Smith graduated from Lafayette High School in Williamsburg, Va. He is a 1994 graduate of the University of Kentucky, with a degree in Sport Management.

He and his wife Carmen reside in Suwanee, Ga.

Ed Mangan ♦ Field Director

Known as one of the best Field Director's in the game, Ed Mangan joined the Atlanta Braves following the 1990 season. He previously served five years as the head groundskeeper at Boardwalk & Baseball, the Kansas City Royals' spring training complex. When John Schuerholz became the Braves' General Manager in October 1990, Mangan was among the first people Schuerholz hired.

Mangan's expertise extends beyond Turner Field. Each year, following the Braves season, he works with the NFL to prepare the practice facilities and main field for the Super Bowl. Mangan has worked each of the last 17 Super Bowls, including the last six as Field Director.

Following his duties with the Super Bowl, Mangan heads to Florida in February to oversee the preparations of the Braves' spring training complex at Disney's Wide World of Sports. He has been the only Field Director the Braves have used in their 10 years at Turner Field and nine springs at Disney.

A native of Leonardo, NJ, Mangan attended Mater Dei High School in Middletown, NJ, and the University of Southwestern Louisiana (Lafayette, La.). The 47-year-old Mangan is a member of the Georgia Golf Course Superintendents Association and the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association.

Mangan and his wife Janeen reside in Alpharetta with their four boys, Jake, Micky, Colby and Ty. He enjoys archery, aviation, hunting and fishing.

Last Home Run: 9/13/06 vs. PHI (off Randy Wolf).

Davies' 2006 Season Recap

- Struggled through an injury-shortened sophomore season and went 3-7 with an 8.38 ERA.
- Severely strained his right groin on 5/15 vs. FLA and was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/17.
- Underwent surgery to repair his torn groin in a procedure performed by Dr. Bill Meyers on 5/19 in Philadelphia. Was transferred to the 60-day DL on 5/20 and missed a total of 94 team games before he was activated from the 60-day DL on 9/1.
- Went 2-3 with a 6.12 ERA in eight starts before his injury, and just 1-4, 13.06 in six September starts after his return.
- Allowed career highs of nine runs and 12 hits and lasted just 2.1 innings in his start at COL on 9/23, as the Braves lost 10-9.
- On 9/18 at WSH, collected his first win since 4/30, allowing one run on four hits in 5.0 IP in a 6-1 victory. It marked the first time since 4/18 he allowed fewer than three earned runs.
- Had ND in a 6-5 loss to PHI in G1 on 9/13. Kyle was spotted a 5-0 lead but allowed three runs in the third inning and was removed after 2.2 IP.
- Took the loss in his second start since coming off the DL, allowing six runs on seven hits in five innings in an 8-0 loss at NYM on 9/6. He walked a season-high four batters for the third time.

- Returned to the rotation after a three and a half month absence to pitch the second game of 9/2 DH at PHI. It marked the worst start of Kyle's young career, as he allowed career highs of seven runs and 10 hits in just 2.1 IP (63 pitches) in the 16-4 loss.
- Made six total injury rehab starts from 8/1-27, posting a 3-1 record with a 2.48 ERA in 29.0 IP.
- His rehab starts included four with Double-A Mississippi (1-1, 4.50 ERA) and two with Triple-A Richmond (2-0, 0.60 ERA). Went 3-0 with a 1.23 ERA (3 ER/22.0 IP) over his last three outings.
- Pitched eight scoreless innings on 8/27 for Richmond in the last of his six rehab starts. Threw 99 pitches, allowing just four hits and a walk while striking out five in the R-Braves' 9-0 win over Norfolk.
- Left his start on 5/15 vs. FLA in the third inning after suffering a torn right groin. Kyle allowed five runs on seven hits and left trailing 5-0 before the Braves went on to win 11-8.
- Defeated the Mets for the second time on the year on 4/30, allowing three runs on four hits in 5.0 IP.
- On 4/24 at MIL, he allowed just four hits including three runs in a 3-2 loss. Two of the runs came in the seventh inning on a Cory Koskie HR, the other run in the fourth inning on a steal of home (double steal).
- Threw his first career complete game on 4/18 at NYM in a 7-1 win. The only run came on a solo homer in the third inning to Chris Woodward, as Kyle allowed three runs and one walk while fanning six.
- In his second outing, gave up six runs (five in the first inning) on nine hits, including four home runs, in a 7-6 loss to PHI on 4/13. The four homers were the most by a Brave since Kevin Millwood gave up four on 8/3/99 at PIT.
- Had a ND in his first start of the season on 4/7 at SF, going 5.0 IP and allowing three first-inning runs in a 14-6 Atlanta win.

Diaz's 2006 Season Recap

- Posted an impressive season in his first year in Atlanta, compiling career highs in every category.
- Batted .327 with 15 doubles, seven homers and 32 RBI in 124 games (62 starts).
- Posted a .328 batting average before the All-Star break and a .325 mark after the break.
- He batted .342 (91-for-266) from 5/4 to the end of the season.
- Ranked as one of the best pinch hitters in the majors, as he tied for ninth in the big leagues with 13 pinch hits (13-for-43, .302). Tied the Braves' franchise record by hitting safely in five straight pinch at-bats from 5/4 to 5/19.
- Batted .358 vs. RHP and .295 vs. LHP.
- Posted a .338 (22-for-65) batting average in "Close & Late" situations.
- Batted .311 at Turner Field & .339 on the road.
- Hit .465 (20-for-43) in May & .406 (28-for-69) in August.
- Went 22-for-47 (.468) in 16 games vs. FLA, including 13-for-26 (.500) at Dolphin Stadium.
- Went 13-for-35 (.371) in 15 games against WSH, including 9-for-23 (.391) at RFK Stadium.

Top N.L. Average vs. RHP

Player, Team	Avg. (H-AB)
1. Luke Scott, HOU	.366 (60-164)
2. Matt Diaz, ATL	.358 (54-151)
3. Brian McCann, ATL	.351 (122-348)
4. Chris Coste, PHI	.345 (48-139)
5. Daryle Ward, WSH/ATL	.345 (39-113)

- Put his name in the record books when he established an Atlanta Braves record and tied the NL record (first time since CIN's Bip Roberts in 1992) with hits in 10 consecutive at-bats, 8/12-14. After going 2-for-2 off the bench on 8/12 (vs. MIL), he went 4-for-4 on 8/13 (vs. MIL) and hit safely in his first four at-bats on 8/14 (at WSH) before grounding out to shortstop in the ninth inning. His streak is only the fourth in major league history that did not include extra plate appearances during the streak (walks, HBP, etc.). Boston's Walt Dropo hit safely in 12 straight PAs in 1952, while Washington's Jake Gettman (1897), Brooklyn's Ed Konetchy (1919) also did it in 10.
- Went 2-for-4 in Game 1 of a doubleheader on 9/3 at PHI, including a go-ahead homer in 9th inning.
- Homered and tripled on 5/18 vs. FLA and went 6-for-9 in the 5/15-18 FLA series.
- Hit first HR of the season 5/16 vs. FLA and had the game-winning single in the 11th.
- Went 9-for-12 (.750) on the team's 5/3-11 road trip to PHI/NYM/WSH.
- Had a career-best 5-for-5 night on 5/11 at FLA, with two runs and an RBI.
- Went 2-for-3 with two runs off the bench 4/8 at SF.
- Made the club out of spring training after batting .347 and leading the Braves in hits (26), at-bats (75) and home runs (3, tied). His 25 games played ranked second on the club.

Hampton's 2006 Season Recap

- Missed the entire 2006 season while rehabilitating from "Tommy John" surgery, performed by Dr. Dave Altcheck in New York on September 26, 2005...Is expected to be at full strength for the 2007 season.

Hampton's Career Highlights

2005: Despite getting off to a great start to the 2005 campaign, Mike struggled through an injury-plagued year that included five trips to the DL and missing a total of 118 team games...Allowed just one run in six innings of work in his 2005 debut on 4/6 at FLA, but went without the decision in the Braves' 13-inning, 2-1 win...Mike had an infield single and two sacrifice bunts...Earned his first win of the season with a dominating game vs. WSH on 4/11...Went 8.0 innings and allowed just one run (solo homer by Jose Guillen) on seven hits and no walks...He also had two hits of his own - his 26th career multi-hit game...On 5/8 vs. HOU, he threw his first CG since 5/18/04 and his first shutout since 5/9/01; also hit a home run (#15 career)...The two hits allowed mark the fewest in a complete game in Mike's career...Left his 5/14 start at LA in the third inning with a strained left forearm...Was placed on the 15-day DL on 5/21 (retroactive to 5/15)...Returned from the DL on 5/31 at WSH and pitched 4.0 scoreless innings before leaving the game...Was officially placed back on the DL on 6/5 (retroactive to 6/1)...Returned from the DL on 7/17 at NYM and lasted just 2.0 innings, allowing five runs on seven hits (1 HR) and throwing 58 pitches...The 8-1 loss was the 100th of his career and his season ERA jumped 68 points, from 1.83 to 2.51...Made his first start since 7/17 when he was activated from the DL on 8/14 after making two injury rehabilitation starts...Had an August setback due to a strained lower back...Missed his start at ARI on 7/23 and was placed on the DL on 7/27 (retroactive to 7/18). Was later found to have a herniated disk in his back...Had season-ending "Tommy John" surgery on 9/26 in New York...The 1-1/2 hour procedure was performed by Dr. Dave Altcheck, who on 9/14 had confirmed the earlier diagnosis of the Braves medical staff - that the source of Hampton's forearm pain was coming from his elbow.

2004: Ranked among National League leaders in percent of ground balls induced (66.7%) and GDP/9 IP (1.03)...Finished the year on a strong note, going 12-2 in his last 16 starts...Went 4-1 with a 4.67 ERA in August and was 5-0, 2.62 in July...Of his 86 runs allowed, 25 (29%) came in the first inning...Was on the losing end of Randy Johnson's perfect game on 5/18; Mike went the distance for his 20th career CG, allowing just two runs on eight hits in the historic contest...Was 0-5 for the first time in his career until winning on 5/23 vs. LA in a 5-1 Braves victory; It was his first scoreless outing of the season and hit his first homer with a solo shot off Wilson Alvarez in the fourth inning...Missed his start on 6/13 at CWS due to a bruised left biceps...Had his seven-game winning streak snapped on 8/21 at LA...Was also forced to skip his start vs. PHI on 9/6 due to a stiff neck...Suffered a torn meniscus cartilage in his left knee in his start on 9/11 vs. MON...Made a strong comeback in his first outing since injuring his knee on 9/25 vs. FLA, going 7.0 shutout innings and allowing just three hits while walking none...Eclipsed 2,000 career innings pitched on 10/1 at CHI...Underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair the torn meniscus (performed by Dr. Marvin Royster) on 10/5.

2004 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Hou.): Started Game 2 in Houston, going 6.1 solid innings, allowing two runs on four hits before leaving the game with tightness in his left forearm...The only damage came on solo HRs by Jeff Bagwell in the first inning and Raul Chavez in the third...Appeared in relief in Game 4, gutting out a scoreless seventh inning to help the Braves tie the series with a 6-5 win in Atlanta.

2003: Became the first pitcher ever to win a Gold Glove and Silver Slugger award in the same season...Allowed two or fewer ER in 18 of his 31 starts, including nine of his last 11...Went 11-3 with a 3.26 ERA (41 ER in 113.1 IP) over last 17 starts...Compiled a nine-game winning streak over 10 games 7/6-8/23...His nine-game streak tied for the longest in the NL in 2003...Ranked eighth in the NL with his 2.89 day ERA...Threw a complete game 8/7 at MIL - his first since 7/23/01...On DL with a strained right calf 3/28-4/19, when he lost his Braves debut, 4-0, to the Phillies.

2003 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Chi.): Started Games 2 & 5 vs. the Cubs going 0-1 with a 4.26 ERA...Received a ND in Atlanta's 5-3, Game 2 win (6.0 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 5 BB, 9 K)...He gave up both runs in the first inning, but rebounded to strike out the side in order to end the first and did so in the second inning to become just the fourth pitcher in postseason history to strike out six straight hitters (1985-Todd Worrell, STL vs. KC; 1966-Moe Drabowski, Bal. vs. LA; 1919-Hod Eller, Cin. vs. Chi-A)...Went 1-for-2 at the plate...In Game 5, he got the loss in the 5-1 Cubs' clincher (6.2 IP, 7 H, 4 R, 4 ER, 1 BB, 7 K).

2002: Made 30 starts for the sixth straight season...Led the NL in inducing grounded-into double plays at 1.41 per 9.0 IP...Worked 6.0 or more innings in 22 of his 30 starts and 7.0 or more eight times...Earned his fourth Silver Slugger Award, leading all major league pitchers with a .344 BA (22-for-64); his 22 hits were the most by a pitcher...Had an eight-game hitting streak, the longest by a pitcher in '02, 7/22- 8/29...Hit three homers to lead all pitchers...Got 100th career victory in a combined 10-0 shutout over the Pirates 4/30...Recorded career strikeout No. 1,000 by fanning the Marlins' Julian Tavarez on 5/16...Allowed the most runs in the NL (135), the second most ER (122), the sixth most walks (91) and tied for the sixth most hits allowed (228)...Made his 30th and final start on his 30th birthday, 9/9 at HOU; sprained ligaments in his right foot forced him to leave that game and ended his season.

2001: In his first season as a Rockie, led the staff in wins (14), starts (32) and innings pitched (203.0) en route to being named Rockies' Pitcher of the Year by the BBWAA...Earned the first All-Star berth by a pitcher in franchise history...Tied SF's Kirk Rueter for the NL lead in double plays induced per 9.0 innings pitched at 1.29...With seven homers he tied a pair of Dodgers, Don Drysdale (1958, 1965) and Don Newcombe (1955) for the NL record for a pitcher...His 23 hits and 16 RBI also set new franchise records and the 16 RBI were the most by any big league pitcher since Don Robinson had 16 with Pittsburgh in 1982...Became the first pitcher in Rockies history to earn the Silver Slugger Award...Started Opening Day, 4/2, vs. STL...First hit as a Rockie was his first career homer 4/7 vs. SD, at Coors Field off Woody Williams...Went 3-0 in April and then won his first two starts in May including a complete game shutout vs. NYM, on 5/9...On 6/5 vs. HOU, he homered in consecutive at-bats off the Astros Wade Miller to become first pitcher to do so for Colorado; also knocked in a season-best three runs and recorded the victory...Homered for the third time in four at-bats with a solo homer in his first at-bat 6/10 vs. STL...On 7/1, belted sixth homer, the 100th hit of his ML career...Belted his record-tying seventh homer off Chicago's Felix Heredia on 8/9 at Wrigley Field.

2000: Spent only campaign with the NL Champion New York Mets...His 3.14 ERA ranked fifth in the NL and sixth in the majors...His 2.05 home ERA was second in the NL...Had a 2.36 daytime ERA, second in the circuit...Held the hitters to a .325 slugging percentage, first in the NL...Started major league season vs. the Cubs on 3/29 in Tokyo...In his Met debut, he walked a career-high nine in a 5-3 loss...Left his start 8/17 vs. COL after 3.0 scoreless innings; Was diagnosed with a strained oblique and small stress fracture in his right rib cage...Missed one start, and returned to defeat ARI, 2-1, on 8/27, (8.0 IP, 3 H, 1 R).

2000 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (SF): Made his fourth consecutive trip to the NLDS (1997-99 with Houston)...Sustained a loss in Game 1 at SF...NLCS (STL): Earned series MVP honors, going 2-0 with 16.0 scoreless innings...He started Game 1 and the clinching Game 5 10/16, when he hurled a complete-game, three-hit shutout...World Series (NYY): Started Game 2 at Yankee Stadium vs. Roger Clemens...He went 6.0 innings in an eventual loss, and left trailing 4-0...From Game 1 of the NLDS to Game 1 of the World Series, he hurled 18.1 consecutive scoreless innings.

Hudson's Career Recap

- Completed his eighth Major League season and 10th professional campaign in 2006.
- Has never had a losing season as a professional pitcher.
- With a 119-60 (.665) lifetime mark, Hudson ranks 12th in career winning percentage among pitchers with at least 150 decisions and second among active pitchers (Pedro Martinez is 206-91, .694).
- Owns a 100-17 record in games in which his team has scored four or more runs. His record is 96-4 in starts in which he has received support of four or more runs while he is still in the game.
- Has gone 7.0 or more innings in 138 of his 247 career starts (56%). Is 90-16 with a 1.99 ERA in games in which he pitches seven or more innings, and his team is 111-27.
- Is 13-10 with a 3.92 ERA in 33 career starts at Turner Field.

Hudson's 2006 Season Recap

- Went 13-12 with a career-high 4.86 ERA.
- The Braves went 21-14 in Tim's 35 starts. He tied with John Smoltz for the team lead in starts.
- Notched 218.1 innings, marking the fifth time in the last seven seasons he has reached 200 IP.
- Took a ND on 9/17 vs. FLA despite allowing just one run on three hits in seven innings without walking a batter. It was his third start on three days' rest (2-0, 2.61 ERA, 20.2 IP, 6 ER).
- Won his fourth straight decision on 9/8 vs. CHI, allowing only one earned run (four total) in 6.0 IP while fanning seven.
- Earned his 11th win on 8/29 in the Braves' 13-8 victory over SF. In 6.1 IP, Tim allowed four runs on seven hits, including home runs to Barry Bonds (2) and Shea Hillenbrand.
- Picked up his 10th win on 8/18 at FLA, allowing his only run in the first of his 7.2 innings pitched in a 6-1 Braves' win.
- Had no decision in the Braves' 7-4 win over MIL on 8/13, allowing three runs on nine hits in 6.2 IP. Tim left the game with a 4-2 lead in the 7th, but the bullpen blew the save.
- Pitched seven scoreless innings on 8/8 in the Braves' 3-1 win over Philadelphia, allowing six hits while striking out eight.
- Took the loss on 7/29 vs. NYM when he allowed a career-high tying nine runs (fifth time, last: 5/30/03 at KC) in 5.2 IP. The game was tied 3-3 until the sixth when Tim allowed six runs in a seven-run inning.
- Earned the win 7/18 at STL on three days' rest in a 14-5 victory. Tim was perfect through 3.2 IP before allowing a solo homer in the fifth and a four-run sixth inning.
- In his last start prior to the break on 7/6 vs. CIN, he went 8.0+ IP and allowed four runs. Left with a 3-1 lead before the bullpen cost him the win.
- Lost four consecutive starts from 6/16-7/1, allowing 19 ER in 21.2 IP (7.89 ERA) with 14 walks, matching his longest career losing streak. His previous streak was May 4-19, 2002. In that 2002 streak he had an 8.06 ERA (23 ER/ 25.2 IP) and 13 walks.
- Suffered his fourth straight loss and was knocked out in the third inning on 7/1 vs. BAL. Tim allowed six runs (five earned) in 11 hits. It matched his shortest outing as a Brave (6/13/05 at TEX) and marked just the sixth time in his career that he failed to make it out of third inning.
- Earned his sixth win when he allowed just one hit through the first seven innings and only gave up a two-run home run in the eighth in a 4-2 win on 6/10 at HOU. Tim allowed just three hits in 8 IP.
- Was a victim of poor defense in a 5-4 loss on 6/5 vs. WSH. Tim carried a 2-0 shutout into the sixth inning, but was able to get just two outs before his exit. The Nationals scored five runs in the inning, two earned.
- In six May starts, Tim went 4-1 with a 2.79 ERA and held opposing hitters to a .227 batting average. His 48.1 IP for May led the NL.
- Posted his fourth win in a 2-1 victory at ARI on 5/21. Tossed 8.0 shutout innings and threw a season-high 122 pitches while fanning five batters and allowing six hits and three walks.
- Had ND in a 4-3 extra-inning win over FLA's Dontrelle Willis on 5/16. The Braves trailed 2-1 when he left, but a ninth-inning homer by Jeff Francoeur sent the game to extra frames. Tim fanned a season-best 10.
- Tossed his ninth career shutout - his first as a Brave - and his second career one-hitter in a 2-0 win over COL on 5/1. Allowed the game's only hit on a third-inning single by Rockies pitcher Jason Jennings.

- Threw his first CG of the season and 19th of his career on 4/19 at NYM, outdueling Tom Glavine, 2-1. Tim allowed just three hits and a ninth-inning run.
- Was hit for eight runs (six earned) in 4.0 IP on 4/8 at SF in a 12-6 Giants' win. It was his most runs allowed since 5/2/04 at TB.
- Made his fourth career Opening Day start on 4/3 at LA, pitching 4.0 innings in which he allowed five runs on six hits. The Braves held a 4-0 lead in the first and were up 8-1 in the fifth, but Tim allowed four straight hits in the bottom of the fifth and made his exit.

James' 2006 Season Recap

- Had a fine rookie campaign, going 11-4 with a 3.78 ERA in 25 games (18 starts).
- Ranked fourth among NL rookies in ERA and tied for fourth in wins. Ranked first in winning percentage (.733) and fifth in opponents' batting average (.232).
- Missed 30 team games from 5/6 to 6/6 after suffering a strained right hamstring on 5/5 at NYM (he left the game after facing just two batters).
- Made 17 appearances (all starts) after returning from the DL on 6/7.
- Went 11-4 with a 3.93 ERA as a starter and 0-0 with a 2.38 ERA as a reliever. Went unscored upon in six of his seven relief outings.
- Held right-handed batters to a .215 batting average and lefties to a .297 mark.
- Posted a 3.11 ERA in 17 night games and a 5.83 ERA in eight day games.
- Moved into the starting rotation on 6/25 at TB and posted all 11 of his wins, the most of any Major League rookie since that time.
- His 11 wins since 6/25 ranked second in the NL behind teammate John Smoltz (12).
- Went 6-2 with a 3.94 ERA in 11 games (10 starts) at Turner Field. Had a 5-2, 3.61 mark on the road.
- Allowed six runs on seven hits in 5.0 IP at COL on 9/24. Left with a 7-6 lead, but had no decision as the Rockies rallied for a 9-8 win.
- Walked a career-high six batters in just 4.1 IP while getting the loss in a 9-2 game at WSH on 9/19. It snapped his six-game winning streak and marked the first time since 8/4 he allowed more than two earned runs.
- Earned his career-high sixth straight win on 9/18, going seven scoreless innings on five hits in a 4-1 win vs. PHI. It was his eighth straight start allowing two or fewer earned runs.

- Went a career-high 8.0 IP for the second time and allowed just one hit (Wright's 2nd-inning single) in a 5-0 win at NYM on 9/4. It was his second start without an earned run allowed in 2006.
- Posted seventh win with a 5-3 decision on 8/30 vs. SF. Chuck allowed just two runs on six hits in 7.0 IP.
- Left the game on 8/25 with a 4-2 lead, but saw the bullpen unable to hold it in a 7-6 loss vs. WSH. Chuck had a ND, allowing two runs on four hits in five innings and a career-high five walks.
- Won second straight start on 8/19 at FLA, allowing two runs (one earned), over 6.0 IP in a 5-3 win.
- Pitched a solid game vs. PHI on 8/9 and left with a 3-1 lead, but the bullpen allowed eight runs in the eighth inning for a 9-3 loss. Chuck allowed one run (solo homer to P. Burrell) and five hits, with no walks and six strikeouts in 6.0 IP.
- Did not allow a hit until Royce Clayton's sixth-inning homer on 8/4 at CIN, but suffered his third straight defeat in the Braves' 5-4 loss. In the sixth inning, Chuck allowed four runs on two hits and a pair of walks, making his exit after 5.1 IP.
- Lost second straight start on 7/30 after allowing a career-high seven runs on seven hits in 1.0+ innings pitched in a 10-6 loss to NYM.
- Suffered his first career defeat on 7/25 in a 2-1 loss to the Marlins. The only two runs Chuck allowed in his seven innings of work came on a pair of solo homers by Cody Ross.
- Won fourth straight start on 7/16 at SD despite allowing five runs in 5.0 IP, but got lots of support in a 10-5 Atlanta win. Chuck became the first Brave to win his first four major league starts since Jesse Barnes to end the 1915 season and start the 1916 season.
- Won third straight start on 7/5 vs. STL, becoming the first Brave to win his first three career starts since Rick Behenna in 1983. Chuck allowed four runs in 6.0 IP in a 14-4 win, with three of the runs came on fourth and fifth inning homers.
- Won second straight start on 6/30 vs. BAL, going 6.0 IP and allowing three runs in a 5-3 win. All three runs came on back-to-back home runs in the sixth inning. He walked two and fanned five.
- Made first career start at TB on 6/25, going 8.0 IP and allowing just an unearned run on just two hits while picking up his first major league victory in a 4-1 Atlanta win. He fanned a career-high eight batters and walked a career-high four. His previous longest outing was 3.2 IP on 10/1/05 vs. FLA.
- On 6/25, was recalled from Triple-A Richmond, where he was 1-0 with a 2.67 ERA in seven games (six starts), including four rehab appearances.
- Went 1-0 with a 1.83 ERA (4 ER/19.2 IP) and 15 strikeouts in his last three games for Richmond.
- Was activated from the Atlanta disabled list on 6/7 and optioned to Richmond. Made five rehab appearances, including one with Class-A Rome on 5/17 (1.0 IP, 0 R), and four with Triple-A Richmond from 5/19 to 6/3 (14.0 IP, 6 R/ER, 3.86 ERA).

C. Jones' Career Recap

- His .304 career batting average ranks second all-time among switch hitters; Hall-of-Famer Frankie Frisch batted .316.
- Chipper is the only switch hitter in major league history to own a .300 career average and hit at least 300 homers (357).
- In 2006, became just the fourth player in major league history to begin his career with 12 consecutive 20-homer seasons (Eddie Mathews-14, Billy Williams-13, Frank Robinson-12).
- Ranks third in Braves franchise history in hits (1,944).
- His 357 home runs rank second in Atlanta history (Dale Murphy, 371).
- Has an Atlanta-record 383 career doubles.
- Only 15 times in major league history has a switch hitter posted a .300 batting average with 30 home runs, 100 runs scored and 100 RBI. Chipper has done it five times; Mickey Mantle, Eddie Murray & Lance Berkman are the only other switch hitters to do it twice.

C. Jones' 2006 Season Recap

- Was limited to just 110 games due to injury, but still compiled a typical "Chipper Jones" season.
- Batted .324 with 28 doubles, 26 homers, 86 RBI and 87 runs scored, despite three stints on the disabled list. Accumulated just 411 total at-bats (477 plate appearances).
- His .324 batting average would have ranked sixth in the NL if he had qualified.
- Batted what would have been a National League-leading .355 on the road and .283 at home.
- Hit .332 vs. RHP and .293 vs. LHP. His average vs. righties ranked fourth in the NL.
- Posted a .340 average in night games (NL high) and .282 in day games.
- Reached base safely via hit, walk or HBP in 100 of his 110 games and hit safely in 85 games.
- His various injuries included a sprained right ankle (April), a strained left oblique muscle (July and September) and a sore toe on his right foot (September).
- Hit his 351st career homer on 8/26 vs. WSH, moving him past Chili Davis for third place all-time among switch hitters (Mantle-536, Murray-504).
- Posted his first career three-homer game and 34th career multi-homer game on 8/14 at WSH. Became just the third Brave to homer in three straight at-bats in the same game.
- Saw his career-high 20-game hitting streak snapped on 7/26 vs. FLA (42-for-82, .512, 8 HR).
- Matched Paul Waner's 1927 record of collecting an extra-base hit in 14 straight games, 6/26-7/16.
- Passed Dale Murphy (1,901) for first in Atlanta history in hits on 7/15 at SD.
- Was named NL Player of Week (ending 7/2) after hitting .500 (12-for-24) with three HRs, a league-leading 24 total bases and league-tying 1.000 slugging percentage.
- Hit his first career pinch-hit homer in the 8th inning 7/2 off BAL's S. Rieal.
- Had four hits and two steals in a game for just the second time in his career on 5/24 at SD.
- Went on the 15-day DL on 4/10 with a Grade 1 sprain of his right ankle and a Grade 1 sprain of the lateral collateral ligament in his right knee.
- Went 6-for-17 with two HRs for the United States in the World Baseball Classic.

Smoltz's Career Recap

- Owns 193 wins and 154 saves in his career. He and Hall-of-Famer Dennis Eckersley (197/390) are the only two pitchers in Major League history to collect at least 150 wins and 150 saves.
- Ranks 19th on the all-time strikeout list (2,778) and is sixth among active pitchers, behind Roger Clemens, Randy Johnson, Greg Maddux, Curt Schilling and Pedro Martinez.
- Is only the seventh player in major league history to make 400 starts and 200 relief appearances.
- Passed 3,000 innings for his career on 5/28/06 at CHI.
- Ranks as the all-time leader with 15 postseason wins (15-4). Also ranks No. 1 in postseason strikeouts (194 in 207.0 IP).
- Ranks in the top 10 of nearly every Braves' franchise pitching list, including saves (first), games pitched (third-670), strikeouts (second-2,778), innings pitched (fourth-3,161.1), starts (fourth-429), wins (sixth) and ERA (10th-3.27).
- Was the 2005 recipient of the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award from MLB.
- John became just the sixth pitcher in history to post three straight 40-save seasons (2002-04).

Smoltz's 2006 Season Recap

- At 39 years of age, had a Cy Young-caliber season. Tied for the NL lead with 16 wins, finished seventh in the league ERA (3.49) and third in strikeouts (211).
- Tied for the NL lead in starts (35) and ranked fourth in innings pitched (232).
- The bullpen blew save opps. in six of John's 10 no-decisions.
- Fanned 200 batters for first time since 1997, tying him with Bert Blyleven (1976-'85) for the longest span between 200-strikeout seasons in major league history.
- His 211 strikeouts rank tied for seventh in franchise history for a single season.
- His 2.92 home ERA ranked fifth in the league, while his 3.43 night ERA was 10th in the circuit.
- John's 24 "quality starts" ranked third in the majors (C. Capuano & R. Oswalt, 25).
- Closed the season on a high note, going 4-0 with a 0.93 ERA in his last four starts, with 26 strikeouts and just eight walks in 29.0 IP.
- Pitched in the season finale vs. HOU on 10/1 and tossed 6.0 shutout innings, with five Ks in the 3-1 win. It marked the seventh time he allowed no earned runs.
- On 9/26 vs. NYM, threw eight scoreless innings in a 12-0 win.
- On 9/21, the Braves announced that they exercised John's 2007 contract option. That night, John posted his 14th win with a 6-3 decision at COL. He walked none and fanned seven in 7.0 IP. His last batter faced (Garrett Atkins) marked his 200th strikeout of the season.
- Defeated the Marlins 2-1 on 9/16, allowing one unearned run on eight hits.
- Allowed a season-high seven runs on six hits in 5.0 IP on 8/31 in an 8-6 loss vs. SF. It marked the 12th time in his career that he allowed 7+ ER, and the first time since 4/6/02 vs. NYM (8 ER in 0.2 IP in relief).
- Threw 8.0 scoreless innings and had his fourth 10-strikeout game of 2006 (40th career) on 8/21 in a 3-0 win vs. PIT. Tied his season low by allowing just three hits while walking one.
- Had six-game winning streak snapped at WSH on 8/16, as he threw 110 pitches in just 5.0 IP in a 9-6 loss.
- Pitched his third CG of the season and won his sixth straight decision in a 2-1 win vs. MIL on 8/11. Allowed just five hits, struck out eight, walked none, and retired a stretch of 18 consecutive hitters.
- Won his fifth straight decision on 8/1 at PIT, allowing just one run and six hits while walking none and fanning six in a 4-2 Atlanta win.
- Went 4-0 with a 3.00 ERA in five July starts.
- Got the win 7/8 and fanned 10 for the third time in '06 in a 4-1 win over CIN. John passed D. Cone (2,668) for 20th on the all-time strikeout list.
- Notched his fifth win with a six-inning outing vs. STL on 7/3. He allowed three runs and fanned seven while allowing no walks in the 6-3 victory.
- Allowed just one run in 7.0 IP on 6/28 at NYY and left with a 2-1 lead only to see the bullpen lose the lead and the game, 4-3, in 12 innings.
- Left 6/23 at TB game in the second inning with a strained right groin. He took a ND in the 4-3 Braves' win, but only went 1.2 IP, matching his fewest innings as a starter (done five times).
- Gave up a season-high eight runs, six earned, but left with an 11-8 lead on 5/28 at CHI before the bullpen blew the save in a 13-12 Atlanta win. The eight runs allowed matched a career high (ninth time). Also committed his first error since 9/18/01 (at PHI) in the sixth inning, a span of 262 games and 163 errorless chances.

- Matched in pitchers' dual with J. Peavy on 5/22 at SD. Peavy fanned 16 in 7.0 IP, but Smoltz tossed 7.0 shutout innings in a 3-1 victory.
- Threw second CG of the season and 52nd of his career in a 6-2 win over WSH on 5/12. Allowed four hits and one walk while fanning seven.
- Made his 18th career start on three-days' rest (and his first since 8/13/97) and posted a 13-3 win at NYM on 5/7. He went 6.0 IP and allowed one run (C. Beltran solo HR) on three hits.
- Threw 122 pitches and recorded his 37th career double-digit strikeout game on 4/28, fanning 10 batters in a 5-2 loss vs. Pedro Martinez and the Mets.
- Pitched after a 2:18 rain delay on 4/21 at WSH and gave up three runs in five innings, two of the runs coming on solo home runs by Alfonso Soriano including one to leadoff the game. It is just the sixth time a player had two HRs off Smoltz in a game; the last time was by Erubiel Durazo on 9/4/99.
- Had 51st CG and 16th shutout 4/15 vs. SD in a 2-0 win. Allowed four hits and four strikeouts while walking none.
- Allowed four runs in the second inning on 4/9 at SF, while getting a ND in a 6-5 Braves loss. After the second, he retired 15 of the next 18 hitters and faced only two batters over the minimum.
- Made his season debut 4/4 at LAD and got the loss in a 5-4 Dodgers' win. He allowed five runs on nine hits in five innings, four of the runs coming in the bottom of the first inning.

Smoltz's Career Highlights

2005: Made a team-high 33 starts and went 14-7 with a 3.06 ERA and 169 strikeouts in 229.2 IP...Received MLB's 2005 Roberto Clemente Award...Became the first pitcher in Major League history to follow a 40-save season with a 200-inning season. In fact, no pitcher has gone more than 150 innings in a season after he had 40 saves the previous year...Surpassed the 200-inning plateau for the eighth time in his career and the first time since 1997, when he led the NL with 256.0 IP. The last pitcher to go longer between 200-inning seasons was Jamie Moyer who went nine seasons in between 1988 and 1998 and tied Bill Dietrich's (1934/1944) ML record...His 0.71 HR (18 HR/229.2 IP) allowed per 9 IP ranked as the 13th best average in the majors...Reached the 14-win plateau for the eighth time in his career...Made 16 starts after a Braves loss. He went 9-1 and the team went 14-2 in those games...Was the victim of six blown saves by the Braves bullpen, including four in his last seven starts...Made his third career Opening Day start on 4/5 at FLA and lasted just 1.2 innings, tying for his shortest career outing as a starter (fourth time). It marked his first start since 6/9/01 (at NYY) - a span of three years, 300 days. John made 241 relief appearances between starts. He allowed seven runs (six earned) in the 9-0 loss, as the Marlins struck for five runs in the first, capped by a Juan Encarnacion grand slam (the first allowed by Smoltz since 5/14/94)...Matched up with NY's Pedro Martinez in a pitching duel on 4/10, but came out on the short end of a 6-1 decision. John took a 1-0 lead into the eighth inning, then allowed a two-run homer to Carlos Beltran before making his exit. The bullpen allowed four more runs for the 6-1 final score. John matched his career high and his own Atlanta record with 15 strikeouts (and no walks) in the game. He went nearly 13 years between 15-strikeout games - the fourth longest span in major league history...Earned his first win of the season (first win as a starter since 10/1/99) with a 4-3 decision at NYM on 4/26...Had a 47.0-inning homerless streak from the seventh inning on 4/16 until Jim Thome's homer in the first inning on 5/27...Pitched 4.2 innings of perfect ball and carried a shutout into the sixth on 6/6 vs. LAA, but still suffered a 4-2 loss. Left in the ninth after allowing four runs on 13 hits - one shy of his career high...On 6/10 vs. OAK, he threw his first CG since 4/30/99 vs. CIN. He allowed all three runs in the sixth and did not walk a batter. Posted his 15th career shutout with a 5-0 win over FLA on 6/21. He threw a season-high 123 pitches. He fanned six batters and moved past his childhood hero Jack Morris (2,478) on the all-time strikeout list...Went 4-0 with a 2.45 ERA in July after going 5-1, 2.50 in June...Went the distance for his third complete game in 8-1 five-hitter over BAL on 6/26. It was his 50th career CG and he passed Don Drysdale (2,486) on the all-time strikeout list. John's RBI on 6/26 was his first since 6/29/99 vs. MON...On 7/15 at NYM, John posted his 10th win in a hard-fought 2-1 victory against former teammate Tom Glavine. Had five strikeouts to become the 27th pitcher in history to reach 2,500 strikeouts in his career (he fanned Jose Reyes in the fifth inning for No. 2,500)...Recorded his 11th win with a solid eight-inning, six-hit performance at SF on 7/20. Fanned seven batters and moved past Hall of Famer Christy Mathewson (2,502) on the all-time strikeout list. It marked his first win over the Giants since April 1996...Had his eight-game winning streak snapped with an 11-3 loss at STL on 8/5, when he allowed five runs in 6.0 IP. Equaled his season high by allowing two homers, including a two-run shot by A. Pujols in the first...Pitched seven strong innings vs. LA on 8/16, but didn't earn the win, as the bullpen blew the save and the team suffered a 6-4 loss. John had six strikeouts and passed Hall of Famer Tim Lincecum (2,533) for 25th place on the all-time strikeout list...Notched his 13th win (in his fifth try) on 8/27 at MIL...Was staked to a 7-1 lead after three innings on 9/1 vs. WSH and came out after 5.0 innings with a 7-3 lead, only to see the bullpen blow another winning opportunity for him. The Braves won 8-7 after Andruw Jones homered to lead off the 10th inning...Matched up against NYM's Pedro Martinez and posted his 14th win with a 3-1 victory on 9/6, allowing one run in 7.0 IP...Made his fourth start vs. Pedro Martinez 9/16 at NYM and suffered a 4-0 loss. Martinez went the distance for NY, while John allowed all four Mets runs on seven hits in 7.0 IP...Made his final start of the season on 9/23 vs. FLA. Did not earn a decision (6.0 IP/3 R), but the Braves rallied for a 4-3 win.

2005 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Hou.): Started Game 2 in Atlanta and got the win over Roger Clemens, allowing one earned run over 7.0 IP walking one and striking out five...The win was his 15th postseason win, one more than Houston's Andy Pettitte for the most all-time...It was his first postseason win as a starter since winning Game 4 of the 1999 NLDS as Houston.

2004: Appeared in 73 games and recorded 44 saves in 49 chances (89.7%)...Owned a 2.76 ERA on the year, but had a 2.60 ERA (16 ER/55.1 IP) in his 49 save opportunities...Was second among NL relievers in fewest walks per 9.0 IP (1.43)...Had 15 saves of more than one inning. Pitched 2.0 innings five times, with four saves in those five games...Recorded his 40th save of '04 (and 150th of his career) 9/21...Blew third save (first since 7/9 at PHI) on 8/20 at LA...Had gone 22 appearances without a blown save...Recorded his 30th save 8/16 at SD, becoming the first Brave with three straight 30-save seasons...Two of the four inherited runners he allowed to score this season came in that game...Suffered his first loss (and fifth blown save of '04) since 8/10/03 at STL and allowed five ER 9/22...It was the most runs he allowed since 4/6/02 vs. NYM (8)...Recorded a save in nine straight appearances, 7/24-8/5...Was named NL Co-Player of the Week of 7/26-8/1, when he saved five games in five opportunities and allowed no runs...On 7/22 he issued two walks (one intentional) for first time since 8/16/02 vs. COL...Allowed a season-high four runs 6/11 at CWS...His walk to Frank Thomas was the first of '04...Had right elbow surgery on 10/7/03 to clean up scar tissue...Was limited to six games this spring.

2004 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Hou.): Allowed four hits and no runs in 5.0 IP in two games...Earned the win in relief in Game 4.

2003: With 45 saves in 2003 (second in majors) and 55 in 2002, joined Dodgers' Eric Gagne as only relievers in history to record at least 100 saves over a two-year period; Gagne had 52 saves in 2002, 55 in 2003...Smoltz's 100 saves in two seasons came in 108 opportunities for a .926 percentage...Reached 100 career saves in fewest number of relief appearances in major league history, 151, 7/19 vs. the Mets; Seattle's Kazuhiro Sasaki had set the old mark of 160 in 2002...His 34 first-half saves were the most ever before the All-Star break...On 7/31 vs. HOU, broke his own record (114 games in 2002) for reaching 40 saves in fewest team games (108)...Became 15th pitcher in major league history to have at least 100 career saves and 100 career wins; enters 2004 with 110 saves and 163 wins...Named to NL All-Star team in vote by players, coaches and managers; it was his sixth selection, second as a reliever...Gave up a home run to Expos' Michael Barrett on 7/6, the first homer he had allowed since Expos' Jose Vidro connected 7/1/02 (76 appearances in between); Albert Pujols also homered off John on 2000: Missed entire season after tearing medial collateral ligament in his right elbow in spring training... Underwent successful Tommy John surgery 3/23, performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham... Placed on the 60-day D.L. on 4/2.

1999: Went 11-8 with a 3.19 ERA (fifth in the NL), outstanding numbers for a pitcher plagued by elbow problems throughout the season... Was on the DL twice with a strained right elbow, 5/17-6/1 and 7/5-24... Tried everything to compensate for the discomfort, including adjusting his delivery to a low three-quarters motion 8/9 vs. the Astros and not throwing as many sliders, as well as mixing in a few knuckleballs each game, starting 9/15 at SD... Went 3-3 with 5 ND and a 2.63 ERA after changing his delivery... Was the winner in the Braves' division clincher, a 10-0 victory over the Expos on 9/26 at MON... Also won division clinching games in 1991 and 1996... Named NL's Pitcher of the Month for April after going 4-0 with a 1.51 ERA in five starts... Won his sixth start on 5/5 over the Cardinals, to open a season 5-0 for the first time in his career... Previous best beginning was a 4-0 start in 1998... Went 3-5, but had a 2.87 ERA after the All-Star break, compared with an 8-3 record with a 3.49 ERA prior to the break... Struck out a season-high 11 in 7.0 innings en route to his 11th win over the Marlins on 10/1 in his last regular-season start... Endured a career-high nine-game winless drought 6/24-8/19... Became the 53rd pitcher in Major League history to record 2,000 strikeouts when he fanned Tampa Bay's John Flaherty in the first inning on 6/7; hit his fifth career home run (first since 1996) in that game... Pitched the first one-hitter of his career, in Atlanta on 4/30, when he blanked CIN, 3-0 (9.0 IP, 1 BB, 5 K).

1999 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Hou.): Extended his own major league postseason mark for victories when he notched his 12th win, 7-5, in the Game 4 clincher at Houston... NLCS (NYM): Earned the save in his first big-league relief outing, a 1-2-3 appearance against the Mets in Game 2 in Atlanta in the Braves' 4-3 win... Turned in a strong start in Game 4 at NY, receiving ND in a 3-2 loss... Also appeared in relief in Game 6 in Atlanta, but gave up game-tying, two-run homer to Mike Piazza... World Series (NYY): Lost his only start, 4-1, in Game 4 at NY, despite a stellar effort... The 11 Ks set a Braves franchise record for a World Series start.

1998: Off-season surgery limited Smoltz to only 26 starts but he posted a career-high .850 winning percentage (17-3) to lead the majors... His 17 wins marked the third consecutive year of 15 or more wins and nine out of the last 10 years he has had double digit wins... Went 13-2 with a 2.51 ERA in 18 starts (34 ER in 122.0 IP) after coming off the DL the second time 6/20... Was 4-0 in both July and September with a cumulative ERA of 1.63 in 66.1 IP... Threw two three-hit shutouts; at PIT on 7/24 (3-0) and at NYM on 9/6 (4-0)... Finished third in the NL with 9.3 K per 9.0 IP, fifth with a .231 Opp BA, T5th with two SHO, sixth with a 2.90 ERA, T6th with 17 wins and eighth with 173 Ks... Also placed fourth with a .285 OBP allowed, fifth with an average of 7.78 hits and .054 home runs per nine innings, posted the fifth best average vs. RHB (.212) and allowed an average of 10.36 baserunners per nine for sixth best in the league... The Braves won 22 of his 26 starts... Smoltz began the season on the DL still recovering from December 1997 arthroscopic surgery on his right elbow, but won his first four decisions for the first time in his career after being activated 5/15... Lasted just 12 batters (2.0 IP) 5/23 against the Cubs before spending 5/24-6/20 on the DL with an inflamed elbow.

1998 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Chi.): Held the Cubs to five hits and one run as he pitched Atlanta to a 7-1 victory in Game 1... The victory gave Smoltz the most wins in postseason play with 11... NLCS (SD): Did not record a decision in either of his two starts; Game 1 or Game 5... In Game 1 pitched 7.0 innings allowing four hits, two runs and five walks... He left the game after seven innings, trailing 2-1... Pitched well in Game 5, striking out eight in 6.2 IP, but did allow two two-run home runs; one to Ken Caminiti in the first and one to John Vander Wal in the sixth.

1997: Proved to be the workhorse of the staff by making 35 starts, the most on the staff and the second consecutive year and fifth time overall John has made at least 35 starts in a year... He pitched a career high and NL-leading 256.0 innings, finishing third in the majors behind Pat Hentgen (264.0) and Roger Clemens (264.0) of the Blue Jays... With 241 Ks, became first pitcher in franchise history to record at least 200 strikeouts 4 times... He posted five double-digit strikeout games... Allowed two or fewer earned runs in 22 of his 35 starts and worked at least 7.0 innings in 26 of his last 29 starts... Finished first in the NL with 256.0 IP, third with 241 Ks, T3th with seven CG, fifth with 8.5 strikeouts per 9.0 innings pitched and T6th with 2.2 walks per 9.0 innings.

1997 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Hou.): Overpowered Astros in Game 3 clincher, going the distance in a 4-1 victory... The win tied Smoltz with Whitey Ford and Dave Stewart for the most ever in post-season play with 10... NLCS (Fla.): Lost Game 3, 5-2, at Florida.

1996: Won the National League Cy Young Award, continuing the Braves' dominance of the honor, after going 24-8 with a 2.94 ERA and 276 K in 253.2 IP... Greg Maddux won the Cy Young as a Brave in 1993-1995 and as a Cub in 1992, while Tom Glavine was the recipient in 1991... Smoltz led the majors in wins, strikeouts and strikeouts per nine innings (9.8) and the N. L. in innings pitched and winning percentage .750 (24-8)... His 24th victory 9/27 at MON set the Atlanta record for wins in a season previously held by Phil Niekro (23) in 1969... Smoltz also set a modern era franchise record in strikeouts, topping the 262 by Niekro in 1977... After losing his opening start of '96, ran off a franchise-record 14-game winning streak, accomplished with a 1.83 ERA over 15 starts... Ranked fourth in the N.L. in ERA (2.94), second in complete games (six), tied for second in shutouts (two), tied for sixth in fewest walks per nine innings (2.0); ranked second in the majors in opponents batting average against (.216)... He has been first or second in the N.L. in strikeouts four of last five years...Was winning pitcher in an 8-2 decision over MON on 9/22, clinching the N.L. East Division... He hit a go-ahead three-run homer in that game...Marked the second division clincher of his career (also on the hill in this situation in '91)...His first K on 9/27 at MON gave the Braves 1,222 for '96, a new major league record (team finished with 1,245)...Selected to the fourth All-Star game of his career, earning the start and the win...Captured N.L. Pitcher of the Month honors for both April (5-1, 2.70) and May (6-0, 1.73) becoming the first N.L. hurler to earn that distinction since the Cubs' Rick Reuschel in June and July, 1977...Struck out a season-high 13 batters three times (9/7 vs. NY, 5/29 at Chicago and 4/14 at SD).

1996 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (LA): Dominated throughout postseason by going 4-1 with a 0.95 ERA...Beat LA in 10 innings in Game 1, 2-1 (9.0 IP, 4 H, 1 R, 7 K)...NLCS (StL): Won the opener, 4-2...With the Braves trailing 3 games to 1, was the beneficiary of a LCS-record 22-hit attack in 14-0 victory in Game 5...Smoltz's two wins in series gave him an NLCS record six in his career; only Dave Stewart (8) has more victories in LCS play...World Series (NYY) (Cin.): Took a 12-1 decision in the opener...Suffered 1-0 defeat in Game 5, permitting only one unearned run...His 10 Ks in the loss were the most in a World Series game since the Phillies' Steve Carlton also fanned 10 in Game 2 of the 1980 Series vs. Royals.

1995: Rebounded from previous season troubles with a solid performance in '95... Finished second in the N.L. with 193 strikeouts...Placed second in the N.L. in strikeouts per 9.0 innings with 9.0...Became the first starting pitcher in franchise history to strike out more than one batter per inning (192.2 IP)...Showed consistency by never allowing more than four earned runs in any outing... Struck out a Braves season-high 12 batters 7/5 vs. LA...Hurled back-to-back complete game victories 6/14 at MON and 6/19 at CIN...Braves were 18-11 in his 29 starts and won 10 of his last 14.

1995 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Col.): Received no-decision in Game 3 and also in Game 2...NLCS (Cin.): Extended career NLCS strikeout record to 46...World Series (Cle.): Tagged for four earned runs in 2.1 IP in only World Series start, but received no-decision in the Braves' 11-inning, 7-6 loss to the Indians in Game 3.

1994: Underwent successful arthroscopic surgery by Dr. Joe Chandler, the Braves orthopedic surgeon, to remove a large bone spur and some chips from the back of his right elbow 9/8...Won six games with a 4.14 ERA in 21 starts...Finished the season 1-4 with a 6.32 ERA in his last eight starts, not making an appearance after 7/31...Four of the 15 homers he surrendered came in the first inning on 6/19 vs. CIN, tying the major league mark for most homers allowed in one inning...Endured a five-game losing streak 4/22 to 5/19...Served an eight-game suspension 6/20-28 for hitting the Mets' John Cangelosi with a pitch on 5/14 at NY...Hit the third homer of his career on 6/29 at MON...Was 4-1 with a 3.51 ERA in June (33.1 IP, 13 ER)...Ranked eighth in the league with a .239 opponents batting average against...Tied with teammate Tom Glavine for seventh in the league with 7.6 strikeouts per 9.0 innings.

1993: Ranked second in the NL with 208 strikeouts...Became the first Braves' pitcher to register consecutive 200+ strikeout seasons since Phil Niekro (1977-79)...Fanned a season-high 12 batters vs. LA on 6/6...His victory on 9/21 at MON gave the Braves four 15-game winners (Tom Glavine 22, Greg Maddux 20, Steve Avery 18, Smoltz 15) for the first time this century...The Braves scored just 24 runs in his 11 losses (2.2 runs/gm), eight of those 24 coming in one game...Was selected to his second consecutive and third overall All-Star team...Ranked second in the league with 243.2 innings pitched and tied for third with a .230 opponents batting average against.

1993 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: NLCS (Phi.): Smoltz lost for the first time in six postseason decisions, despite registering 10 strikeouts in the Braves' 2-1 loss in Game 4 of NLCS...Set a new NLCS record with 44 career strikeouts, passing Steve Carlton's mark of 39.

1992: Led NL pitchers with 215 strikeouts, joining Phil Niekro (1977) as the only pitchers in Atlanta history to take NL strikeout honors...Smoltz set an Atlanta record and tied Warren Spahn's franchise mark for strikeouts in a nine-inning game when he fanned 15 in a 2-1 win 5/24 at MON...Spahn struck out 15 in a 4-0 no-hitter vs. the Phillies on 9/16/60...The 15 strikeouts by Smoltz were also an NL high in 1992...Compiled longest shutout string by an NL pitcher in 1992, working 29.0 scoreless innings 7/5-22...Selected to the NL All-Star team for second time in his career...Belted second Major League homer on 4/18 at LA...Ranked third in the NL with 246.2 IP, T4th with nine complete games, T8th with three shutouts, T7th with 15 wins and sixth in OPP batting average at .224.

1992 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: NLCS (Pit.): Was named MVP of NLCS against Pittsburgh after going 2-0 with one no-decision and a 2.66 ERA...Gained victories in Game 1 and Game 4...Kept Braves within striking distance in Game 7...World Series (Tor.): Went 1-0 in two World Series starts with a 2.70 ERA...Received a no-decision in Game 2, while beating Toronto in Game 5.

1991: Tale of two seasons for Smoltz, who staggered through a 2-11 first half with a 5.16 ERA in 18 starts...Turned around the second half, ripping off a 12-2 mark with a 2.62 ERA...Most significant victory came on 10/5, when the Braves clinched the N.L. West Division championship against the Houston Astros, while the Dodgers lost to the Giants...Smoltz went the distance in the clincher, allowing only two earned runs...Was nearly untouchable from August on, going 8-1 with a 1.49 ERA in his final 13 starts...Did not give up a gopher ball after 7/31 (13 games, 96.1 IP)...Braves went 3-15 in Smoltz's first 18 starts; 15-3 in his last 18 starts...Finished T2nd in the N.L. with 36 starts, T7th with five complete games and T9th with 229.2 innings pitched.

1991 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: NLCS (Pit.): Was the benefactor in Braves' 10-3 rout in Game 3... Fired his first shutout of campaign in pennant-clinching 4-0 triumph over the Pirates in Game 7 at Pittsburgh ...World Series (Min.): Received no-decision in Game 3...Stopped the Twins in Game 7, hurling 7.1 scoreless innings, but received no decision in Braves' 1-0 loss in 10 innings...Compiled a 1.26 ERA in two starts ...Ended the postseason with ERA of 1.52 in four starts (5 ER in 29.2 IP).

1990: Recovered from a rocky first two months (3-6, 5.85 ERA in 13 starts through 6/16)...Dominated N.L. hitters over 16 starts between 6/21 and 9/5, spinning a 10-3 mark with three no-decisions and a 2.20 ERA...Smoltz T4th in the loop with 34 starts, tied for 5th with 231.1 IP, was sixth with 170 strikeouts, tied for seventh with 14 wins, tied for eighth with six complete games and tied for ninth with with two shutouts...Pitched 6.0 or more innings in 19 consecutive starts 6/21-9/20...Stopped Chicago on five hits on 5/16 for his first M.L. shutout (4-0)...Two starts later, at PHI on 5/27, came within two outs of hurling Braves' first no-hitter since 1973; Lenny Dykstra doubled, before Smoltz eventually prevailed with a two-hitter in a 6-1 victory (9.0 IP, 2 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 3 BB, 8 K).

1989: In first full Major League season, Smoltz became the youngest All-Star pitcher in Braves' franchise history (age 22)...Charged with the loss in AL's 5-3 win...Smoltz also became the youngest All-Star in Atlanta history, and the third-youngest in Braves' franchise history (Hank Aaron in '54 and Eddie Mathews in '52 were selected at age 21)...Smoltz finished tied for third in the N.L. with a .212 opponents batting average against ...Ranked ninth in the N.L. with 168 strikeouts...Reached All-Star break with an 11-6 mark, with a 2.10 ERA (2nd-best in N.L.)...Final ERA of 2.94 was lowest for a Braves' starter since Phil Niekro's 2.88 ERA in 1978...Hurled 21 quality starts...Tossed first M.L. complete game and slammed first M.L. homer 5/3 vs. PHI.

1988: Recalled from Richmond (AAA) on 7/23, and made Major League debut same day, beating NY 6-1 (8.0 IP, 4 H, 1 ER, 1 BB, 2 K)...Lost four straight before winning second game vs. CHI on 8/28 in Atlanta ...Named International League's top prospect in Baseball America's poll of league managers.

Soriano's 2006 Season Recap

Saves/Opp: 2/6 Holds: 18 1st Batter/retired: 53/31 Inherited Runners/Scored: 39/12

- After missing most of the 2004 and 2005 seasons, posted career highs in appearances (53), saves (2), and innings (60.0) despite not pitching the final month of the season due to a concussion.
- Was 1-2 with a 2.25 ERA (15 ER/60.0 IP).
- Was hit on the right side of the head by a line drive off the bat of the Angels' Vladimir Guerrero in the eighth inning 8/29 at Safeco Field.
- Team Medical Director Dr. Edward Khalfayan said the ball hit behind the right ear and that the reliever never lost consciousness. Was transported to Harborview Medical Center for further tests. Was hospitalized overnight and released the next day.
- Notched an 0.69 ERA (1 ER/13.0 IP) in first 11 games, including no runs (8.0 IP) allowed from 4/14-26.
- Stranded first 10 runners inherited before grand slam 5/3 at CWS in the seventh (Joe Crede), first blown save of '06.
- Retired all four batters faced 5/9 vs. TB for first save since 2003. Loss 5/5 was his first since 5/9/04 at OAK.
- Suffered blown save 5/19 vs. SD, but picked up first win since 8/29/03 at BAL.
- Allowed grand slam in eighth inning to tie game at 8-8 on 6/7 vs. MIN, allowing three inherited runners to score; that homer was the only run he allowed in 15 appearances (17.1 IP) from 5/23 until 6/28 (0.52 ERA)...allowed no runs from 5/23-6/5 (six games, 5.2 IP).
- Had an 0.66 ERA in June (11 games, 13.2 IP, 1 ER). Worked 10.0 scoreless innings (8 games) 6/9-28.
- Touched for three runs on three hits in 1.0 inning on 7/4 vs. LAA, those were only runs allowed from 6/9-8/9 (18 games, 1.23 ERA, 3 ER/22.0 IP).
- Allowed three runs over his final 16.1 innings pitched from 7/8-8/29. Did not allow a run from 7/8-8/9 (11.0 IP, 9 games).
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 7/29 (retroactive to 7/20) with right shoulder fatigue. Was 0-1, 3.12 (3 ER/8.2 IP) in 11 August appearances.

 - Came to the Braves from the Arizona Diamondbacks as a minor-league free agent. Worked mostly as a starter from 2001-2004 and primarily in relief in 2005.

Stockman's Career Highlights

2005: Started the season with Triple-A Tucson before being transferred to Tennessee (AA) on 6/8... Appeared in a career-high 64 games...Earned a win in his first game of the season, 4/10 at SLC (5.0 IP, 3 H, 2 R 2 ER, HR, BB, K)...Had a 1.93 ERA (3 ER/14.0 IP) in August at Double-A...Had a 2.30 ERA against lefties and a 4.19 ERA against righties.

2004: Had a whirlwind year, getting his first extensive look at AAA, then sustaining an elbow injury, followed by a stint at AA and a trip to the Olympics in Athens, where he pitched for the silver-medal winning Australian national team...Opened the season as a member of the Sidewinders' (AAA) rotation, going 3-2 with a 5.75 ERA in 12 starts...Notched his first victory of the season on 4/17 at TAC, working 5.0 scoreless innings of one-hit ball...His second triumph on the year came in his next outing, a strong 6.0-inning showing on 5/10 during which he limited Fresno to 2 hits with 2 walks and 5 strikeouts...He made six more starts for Tucson before landing on the disabled list from 6/30-7/14 with an elbow injury...Upon returning to action, he was transferred to El Paso (AA), where he went 1-1 with a 1.71 ERA over his first four starts...Phil was placed on the temporarily inactive list from 8/1-27, so he could participate in the Olympics, where he appeared in three games during the 10-day competition (vs. Chinese Taipei, Japan and Canada), going 0-0 with a 4.26 ERA...Upon returning to the States, he made two more starts for El Paso before season's end.

2003: Phil made 26 starts for El Paso (AA) with a pair of mid-season appearances in Tucson (AAA) and capped the year with a Texas League Post-Season All-Star team selection...his 151 strikeouts were tops among Arizona farmhands...he was among the T.L. pitching leaders, ranking third in strikeouts (146), and strikeouts per 9-inning ratio (8.90), while his 3.96 ERA was good for 12th...he allowed 3 runs or less in 20 of 27 assignments, including 5 starts in which he did not yield a run...he suffered a pair of setbacks to open May before going on a 13-game tear for the Diablos in which he was 7-1 with a 1.92 ERA (28 earned runs in 131.0 innings)...he had a quick jaunt to Tucson from June 3-8, splitting a pair of decisions with a relief appearance and start...Phil was named the organizational co-Pitcher-of-the-Month for July (with South Bend's Jared Doyle) after going 3-2 with a 1.48 ERA and a .224 opponents average...he struck out a career-high 11 batters on August 7 against San Antonio.

2002: Held the opposition to a .232 average (91-for-393), while righthanded batters were limited to a .217 mark (61-for-281)...he fanned a season-high 10 batters on June 4 at Mudville, then matched that total on August 9 vs. Rancho Cucamonga.

2001: Stockman was second on the Yakima (A) staff with 14 starts and 76.0 innings.

2000: Returned to the mound for the first time in 23 months and won his season debut on June 26 with 3.1 scoreless innings...he possessed a 1.11 ERA over his final 10 Arizona League games (4 earned runs in 32.1 innings) from July 14-August 22.

1999: Phil was disabled the entire season due to a right shoulder labrum tear.

1998: Phil missed most of the season because of tendinitis in his right arm.

PERSONAL/MISC: Resides in Mt. Warren Park, Australia...Scouted by Phil Dale...He was a 1999 graduate of Beenleigh State High School in Brisbane, Australia ...He was a member of Australia's Shadow Squad that participated in qualifiers for the 2004 Olympics...Was member of the Queensland Rams of the International Baseball League of Australia; he helped lead the squad to the Claxton Shield Championship in 2003...He was also on the IBLA International team that won the 2000-01 Claxton Shield Championship.

- Was 8-1 with a 3.63 ERA in 54 relief appearances (74.1 IP) and 1-0, 3.50 ERA in four starts (18.0 IP).
- Had a 2.06 ERA in road games (43.2 IP/10 ER). Boasted a .263 ERA after the All-Star break.
- Started the year 7-0, the best by a Brave since M. Remlinger in 2002 (7-0); Suffered his first loss 6/14.
- Earned his fourth win 4/14 vs. SD and became just the fifth pitcher since 1900 to claim four of his team's first five victories. Became the first Brave since Cecil Upshaw in 1971 to have four wins in his team's first 11 games played.
- Allowed no runs 14.0 IP after returning to the bullpen on 9/11, including two shutout IP on 9/18 at WSH.
- Earned ninth win on 8/17 at WSH (5.0 IP, 1 H, 0 R, BB, 4 K), making his first start since 4/8/03 with ARI.

- Made second career start 8/17 at WSH and first since 4/8/03. Earned the win after allowing just one hit and one walk while fanning four in a career-high 5.0 IP in a 5-0 Braves' victory.
- Went a career-high 4.1 scoreless IP in relief on 6/23, as the Braves snapped their 10-game losing streak with 4-3, 11-inning win at TB. Oscar relieved John Smoltz, who left with an injury in the second inning.
- Notched his 8th save with a 1-2-3 ninth inning in 3-1 win at SD on 5/22.
- Earned the win on Opening Day (4/3) and again on 4/5 as the Braves began the season by winning two of three games at LAD.
- Was charged with his second blown save on 4/10 vs. PHI, but also got his third win to become the first Braves pitcher to get three wins in the team's first eight games since Lew Burdette in 1959.
- Pitched for Mexico in the World Baseball Classic (2.2 IP, 1 ER).

Villarreal's Career Highlights

2005: Second straight year was interrupted by right arm trouble, this time it was a rotator cuff strain. Injuries have limited him to a total of 28 big-league appearances over the last two seasons...Opened the year with Tucson (AAA) and appeared once before being summoned to the majors on 4/9...Worked 1.2 scoreless frames on 4/9 and left the next day's outing vs. Los Angeles with a sore right shoulder...Rotator cuff strain disabled him from 4/11-9/2...Made 11 rehab outings with Tucson, going 0-3 with a 5.63 ERA...Surrendered a solo homer in 1.0 inning of work on 9/3, his first big-league game in over 20 weeks...Tossed 3.0 scoreless frames on 9/11 at Coors Field, tying his career high, matching a 3.0-inning start on 4/8/03 at LA...Victory in the 9/17 contest vs. Colorado was his first triumph since 9/25/03 at COL...Recorded his second win of the season with a scoreless frame on 9/30 at SF...Retired the first batter faced in 8 of 11 outings...Stranded 8 of 11 inherited baserunners.

2004: One year after setting the National League rookie record for appearances, Oscar was limited to only 17 outings due to recurring elbow pain that eventually required surgery...Soreness surfaced during spring training, when a tender right elbow limited him to only 3.0 innings of work, all coming during the final week of the exhibition slate...Was ready for Opening Day, tossing a scoreless frame against the Rockies, his first of a dozen outings in April, notching 15 strikeouts while issuing only one walk over 12.1 innings...Landed on the disabled list on 5/10 with a right flexor strain...After resting the elbow, he began a throwing program and went on a rehabilitation assignment with Tucson (AAA) in mid-July...Made six appearances for the Sidewinders, going 0-2 with a 14.34 ERA, allowing 20 hits and 17 runs in 10.2 frames...With a noticeable drop in velocity during his rehab work, an MRI exam was performed on 8/6 and he wound up undergoing season-ending nerve transposition surgery; the procedure was performed in Phoenix by Diamondback team physicians Dr. Michael Lee and Dr. Don Sheridan; additionally, Villarreal had bone chips removed from the elbow.

2003: After earning a spot on the big league roster out of spring training, Oscar rewrote the record book by appearing in 86 games, establishing the National League rookie mark, shattering the previous record of 78 originally set by Montreal's Tim Lincecum in 1985 and matched by Houston's Ricky Stone in 2002...Villarreal finished second in the majors in appearances, three behind the Dodgers' Paul Quantrill...The 21-year old's 86 outings were the most ever by a pitcher from Mexico, surpassing Pittsburgh's Enrique Romo, who pitched in 84 games in 1979...Villarreal ranked third among all hurlers with 95.0 innings of relief and, including his lone start, finished with 98.0 innings pitched...He also led rookies with a 2.57 ERA, which was sixth among all hurlers with as many innings pitched...He not only set an Arizona record for appearances, but also recorded 10 wins, breaking Gregg Olson's team mark for a reliever (in 1999) and matching Brandon Webb for the franchise record in victories by a rookie...Among N.L. rookies, Villarreal was third in opponents' average (.222), tied for fourth in wins, ninth in strikeouts (80), and 10th in innings...He made his big league debut on 3/31 vs. the Dodgers and recorded a strikeout on only one pitch, inheriting a two-strike count on Hideo Nomo after an injury to Bret Prinz and threw one strike to retire the Nomo...Made his only big league start on 4/8 in Dodger Stadium, hurling 3.0 innings, allowing 2 runs on 4 hits in a no decision, an eventual 5-3 Arizona loss...Recorded his first win on 4/20 in St. Louis with 2.2 shutout innings of a 1-0 win...Was struck on the left shin by a Frank Thomas line drive on 6/5, then retired two batters before needing assistance to get into the clubhouse...On 6/23 when he was struck in the chest by a Craig Biggio line drive...Did not allow an earned run in July, totaling 15.1 innings...His 9/8 appearance was his 78th of the year, tying Byung-Hyun Kim's franchise mark set in 2001, also matching the N.L. rookie record...Oscar broke both records when he picked up the win on 9/10 vs. Los Angeles.

2002: Oscar opened the season with El Paso (AA) and finished the year by making 10 starts for Tucson (AAA)...Was chosen as the farm system's Pitcher-of-the-Month for April after going 4-0 with a 1.26 ERA over six starts...He was struck on the thumb of his pitching hand during his 4/25 start vs. Shreveport but still tossed 7.0 scoreless frames of three-hit ball...Tossed his first career complete game in his next start on 4/30 vs. Arkansas, surrendering a run on six hits with six strikeouts...Back-to-back rough outings on 5/6 & 5/11 totaled 13 runs in 10.2 innings and signaled something was wrong...Oscar was diagnosed with a fractured bone in his right thumb and was disabled from 5/14-7/7...Made six more appearances (5 starts) for the Diablos before he was promoted to Tucson on 7/11...Oscar pitched winter ball for Mexicali, going 7-2 with a save, 4.36 ERA and 56 K in 14 games (11 starts)...His win total was tops on his club and tied for third in the league.

2001: Oscar spent the entire season at AA, finishing second on the staff with 27 starts, 140.2 innings and 108 strikeouts...He went 4-1 in his six starts during May with a 3.82 ERA...He fanned a season-high 10 batters at Wichita on 6/27...Missed his final start of the season due to bone chips in his right elbow...After the season he returned to Mexico and played winterball for Mexicali, going 6-2 with a 2.55 ERA in 14 starts.

2000: Oscar played at four levels, opening the year with a win in relief for Tucson (AAA) on 5/6, tossing 2.2 scoreless innings with 4 K...Was 1-0, 1.66 ERA as a starter for South Bend (A) and 0-3, 9.82 in relief...He made one appearance for Tucson (R) and finished the season at High Desert (A), going 0-1 with a 4.76 ERA in five relief appearances before closing the year with four starts, going 0-1 with a 2.70 ERA.

1999: He made his pro debut on June 24 with Tucson in the rookie level Arizona League...He was second on the staff with 11 starts, 64.1 innings pitched and 51 Ks.

Wickman's Career Highlights

2005: Finishing tied for the American League lead with a career-high 45 saves and earned a spot on the AL All-Star Team (2nd career appearance)...His 45 saves were the 2nd highest single season total in Cleveland history as he became the 2nd Indian to ever share or lead the AL in saves (joined Jose Mesa who recorded a franchise record 46 in 1995)...Now ranks 2nd in club history behind Doug Jones with 124 saves in 138 chances (90%)...Was nominated by Major League Baseball for AL Comeback Player of the Year and by DHL for Reliever of the Year...Saved 45 games in 50 chances on the season (90%) and converted 31 of his last 33 after 6/7 (blown saves on 7/27 at OAK; 8/4 vs NYY)...Earned his 100th save as an Indian on June 26 vs. Cincinnati and became the 35th reliever in MLB history to record 200 saves on 8/7 at Detroit...Made his 700th major league appearance on 8/3 vs. New York (71st pitcher with 700GP)... Had save streaks of 16 games (8/6-end of season/current), 11 games (6/7-7/26) and 10 games (4/23-5/31) during the season and did not allow a run over 11 straight appearances from 4/23 to 5/24 (11.0 IP, 4 H, 9 saves)...Appeared in his 2nd career All-Star Game in Detroit (walked Andruw Jones)...One run saves: 16-for-19; 2-run saves: 22-23; 3-run saves: 6-7; 4 run saves: 1-1...Blew first save chance in the season's 2nd game on 4/6 at Chicago-AL (0.1 IP, 4 H, 4 R/ER, 2 HR) and after that recorded an ERA of 1.90 (61.2 IP, 53 H, 13 ER) thru the remainder of the season... Converted 29 of his last 30 chances at Jacobs Field dating back to 2002 (only blown save 8/4/05 vs. NYY; Giambi HR)...Over his last 57 appearances from 4/23 thru the end of the season his ERA was 1.78

(55.2 IP, 49 H, 11 ER)...Recorded his career-high 38th save on 9/9 vs. MIN and save #40 on 9/13 vs. OAK...Final and career-high 45th save came on 9/23 at KC...His .149 (13-for-87) average with runners on base was the lowest mark among league relievers and his .094 (5-for-53) average against with RISP was 2nd...Batters hit .077 (2-for-26) off him with RISP-2outs...Over his last 43 appearances from 6/7 on, his ERA was 1.93 (42.0 IP, 38 H, 9 ER) and from 7/28 on it was 1.50 (24.0 IP, 18 H, 4 ER)...Over his last 16 appearances from 8/21 on his ERA was 0.59 (15.0 IP, 10 H, 1 R/ER, 13 SV)...ERA in May was 0.77 (11.2 IP, 9 H, 1 ER) and in Sept/Oct it was 0.79 (11.1 IP, 7 H, 1 ER)...Committed the first balk of his big league career on 5/3 at Minnesota.

2004: Proved to be a very reliable closer for the Indians in the second half after missing the first three months of the season with a strained right elbow... Bob saved a team-high 13 of his 14 save chances (93%) and recorded saves in his last 12 chances from 8/5 thru the remainder of the season...The 12 consecutive save conversions were also a season-high by a Tribe reliever...Following Wickman's 2004 debut on 7/6 the Tribe bullpen as a whole converted 19 of 28 chances (68%) after saving only 13 of 32 (41%) opportunities from 4/5-7/5...Suffered a sprain of his surgically repaired right elbow ligament on 3/15 in spring training and missed the first 3 months of the season...Was placed on the disabled list 4/2 (made 1 official spring outing) and rehabbed in Cleveland until beginning a rehab assignment at AA Akron and AAA Buffalo from 6/18-7/3...Was activated from the disabled list on 7/3 and made his 2004 debut on 7/6 vs. Texas (1.0IP, 1H, 0R, 1K), his first appearance in the big leagues since 8/10/02 vs. Texas...His save on 7/28 vs. Detroit was his first since 7/20/02 at Kansas City...Allowed only 4 runs (4ER) over his first 16 appearances covering 16.0IP (17H) and sported an ERA of 2.25 thru August 22...Indians were 25-5 when he appeared in a game as he saved the final game of the season on 10/3 at Minnesota...Did not allow a run over his last 4 games (3SV, 4.0IP, 3H, 4K)...His 13 saves in 2004 were T13th among AL relievers.

2003: Did not pitch in a major league game the entire season as the Indians look for Bob to resume his late-inning dominating presence in 2004...Bob spent the entire season rehabbing his surgically repaired right elbow after undergoing "Tommy John" surgery on his right elbow in December of 2002...Bob's rehab and recovery progressed well enough for him to make 4 rehab appearances from 8/19-30 at A Lake County and AA Akron, striking out 6 batters in 3.2 innings of work.

2002: Season was marred by right elbow problems that ended his season in early August that eventually led to constructive surgery on his right elbow (aka "Tommy John" surgery)...Elbow bothered him most of the season, but he battled his way to 36 appearances and 20 saves in 22 chances (91%)...Saved his first 9 chances of the season from 4/3-5/18 to set a new career high for consecutive saves w/o a blow save with 21 dating back to 8/14/01...First blown save came on 5/19 vs. Kansas City... Since 7/23/01 he has saved 37 of last 40 (93%)...Allowed runs in three straight outings, 7/16-21, and blew his 2nd save of the season on 7/21 at Kansas City and was placed on the 15-day DL for the first of two trips in 2002 on 7/22...Marked the first in his big league career that he was placed on the disabled list...Was on the DL from 7/22-8/9 and from 8/11 thru the remainder of the season...Tossed 1.0 scoreless inning after his activation on 8/10 vs. Texas (1.0IP, 1H, 0R, 0BB, 1K) and did not pitch again the rest of the campaign...Picked up his lone win of the season in that outing on 8/10 vs. Texas...Flew to Anaheim, CA to be examined by Dr. Lewis Yocum on 8/13 where the "Tommy John" procedure was recommended due to ligament and tendon damage in his right elbow...Yocum performed reconstructive surgery ("Tommy John") on his right elbow in Anaheim, CA on 12/6 to repair ligament and tendon damage in the elbow...At the time of his injury he was 10th in the American League with 20 saves and he was 7th with 57 Rolands Relief points.

Executive Biographies

Paul Snyder

Director of Baseball Operations

Celebrating his 50th season in professional baseball, Paul Snyder's dedication and contributions to the Atlanta Braves organization are immeasurable. No discussion of the Braves' success is complete without the mention of Paul Snyder.

Snyder, 67, was named the team's Director of Baseball Operations in August 2006. In his new capacity, Snyder's responsibilities include overseeing the scouting and player development departments as well as international operations.

Since joining the Braves' front office in 1966 Snyder has held a variety of front office positions. Most recently he served as a Special Assistant to the General Manager (1991-95 and 2000-06), and previous to that he was the Director of Scouting and Player Development (1996-99). Snyder's first scouting opportunity came in 1967, one year after joining the club as the Director of Stadium Operations. He later became General Manager Bill Lucas' Assistant Minor League Administrator in 1973.

Honoring Snyder's many years of service and dedication to the game, Minor League Baseball crowned him as the 2006 King of Baseball. In addition, Snyder has twice been recognized by Baseball America, in 2006 as being one of baseball's 25 most influential men of the past 25 years and in 2001 with the Excellence in Scouting award for the last 20 years (1982-2001). He was the recipient of the Roland Hemond Award in 2004, presented by the Society of Baseball Research (SABR). This award is presented annually to the major league executive who has contributed to both the history of baseball and the scouting profession. In 1992 he was named the East Coast Scout of the Year by the Scout of the Year Foundation.

Snyder, a member of the Atlanta Braves Hall of Fame (2005), was signed by the Braves organization in 1957. His playing career was slowed by a back operation in 1960 and, by 1963, he found himself in a player-manager role at Greenville. His other managerial experience includes West Palm (1965) and Greenwood (1972).

Paul and his wife, Petie, live in Murphy, NC. They have two children, Michael and Lauren, and four grandchildren.

Kurt Kemp

Director of Player Development

Kurt Kemp has been a member of the Braves' organization since 1998. In August 2006, he was named the Director of Player Development after serving five years as a cross checker, the first three (2002-04) as a west-coast cross checker and the next two (2005-06) as a national cross checker. In his role Kemp is primarily responsible for overseeing all minor-league operations.

Kemp originally joined the organization in 1998 as an area scout. During his tenure as a scout, Kemp is credited with signing future major leaguer John Foster.

Prior to joining the Braves, Kemp spent 13 seasons as an assistant coach at the collegiate level, four years (1984-87) at Yavapai Community College and nine years (1988-96) at Oregon State University.

A graduate of Oregon State University, Kemp received his degree in business administration in 1983. Kurt resides in Peachtree City with his wife, Marcie, and their son, Garrett (5).

Roy Clark

Director of Scouting

Roy Clark enters his ninth year as the Director of Scouting. In that role he is primarily responsible for directing the amateur scouting for the entire organization.

Prior to his appointment as the director, Clark held various positions in the Braves scouting department. For four seasons he worked as a national supervisor (1996-July of 1999) and in 1995 he was the scouting supervisor for the Southeast. Clark originally joined the club in 1989 as an area scout and remained in that role through the 1994 season.

Before joining the Braves, Clark spent a little over one year (1988 and part of 1989) with the Cleveland Indians organization as an area scout. Previous to that he worked in the Seattle Mariners organization as a coach (1984) and as an area scout (1985-86).

Clark, an all-Atlantic Coast Conference infielder at North Carolina in 1979, was selected by the Mariners in the 24th round of the June draft that same year. He played in the Mariners farm system for four seasons and advanced as high as the Triple-A Pacific Coast League in 1982.

Roy, 49, and his wife Debbie have three children, Justin, Travis and Lauren, and reside in Marietta, GA.

Johnny Almaraz

Director of Latin American Operations

Johnny Almaraz joined the Atlanta Braves organization in December 2006 as the Director of Latin American Operations. Prior to joining the Braves, Almaraz worked in the Cincinnati Reds organization for the past 16 years in various capacities, most recently as the Director of International Scouting and Player Development.

Almaraz is best known for his work as a scout and his dedication to the reinstatement of the Reds presence in Latin America. He is credited with establishing the team's Latin American baseball academies, in Venezuela and the Dominican Republic. In addition to developing the academies he was also instrumental in signing Latin-based players Ray Olmedo and William Bergolla.

Almaraz, recognized by many as one of the most prolific talent evaluators in baseball, originally joined the Reds' organization in 1991 as a scout. Over the next 10 years he was credited with signing a number of future major leaguers, including Adam Dunn and B.J. Ryan.

A 14th-round draft pick out of Southwest Texas State University, Almaraz was taken by the Reds in 1988 and pitched two seasons in the their minor leagues before shoulder problems ended his professional playing career. Almaraz received his degree in health management from Southwest Texas State University and also attended Arizona Pima College on a baseball scholarship.

Johnny and his wife, Tonya, and their two daughters, Cameron (8) and Jaiden (1) reside in San Antonio, TX.

John Coppolella

Director of Baseball Administration

John Coppolella begins his first season in the Braves organization as Director of Baseball Administration. He joined the Braves front office in October 2006 and assists John Schuerholz and Frank Wren in all aspects of the club's baseball operations at the major-league level.

Coppolella, 28, was formerly the Assistant Director of Pro Scouting for the New York Yankees. He began his career in professional baseball with summer internships with the Lake Elsinore Storm in 1997 and 1998 and the Anaheim Angels in 1999. Hired as a baseball operations assistant by the New York Yankees in 2000, he was promoted to Assistant Director of Pro Scouting in 2003.

Coppolella graduated magna cum laude from the University of Notre Dame in 2000 with a degree in business management. At Notre Dame he spent four years working in the Athletic Department and was a student manager for the football team.

A native of Laguna Hills, California, he and his fiancé, Cheryl Decker, live in Newnan.

Matt Price

Assistant Director of Player Development

Matt Price was named the Assistant Director of Player Development in August 2006 after previously serving as Baseball Operations Assistant since November 2002. Price assists in all aspects of the minor league operations, including player movement, roster and statistical analysis, professional scouting assignments, international operations and free-agent signings.

He originally joined the Braves organization in 2001 as a trainee in the promotions department.

Price, a native of Greensboro, NC, earned a business degree from Wake Forest University (2001) where he was a three-year starting outfielder for the three-time Atlantic Coast Conference Champions (1998, 1999, 2000). Matt, 28, and his wife, Caroline, reside in Atlanta.

Tommy Shields

Minor League Field Coordinator

Tommy Shields begins his second season with the Braves and his first as the Minor League Field Coordinator. In his position, Shields is responsible for coordinating all minor-league field instruction. Shields spent his first season with the Braves as the Assistant Minor League Field Coordinator and worked as a roving infield and baserunning coach.

Prior to joining the Braves, Shields was a member of the St. Louis Cardinals' player development department for seven seasons. In addition to serving as a Cardinals scout from 1999-2005, he also managed 2002 through '04 (New Jersey Cardinals) and was the roving infield coach in 2005. From 1995-98, Shields worked for the Baltimore Orioles as a coach and a manager and in 1997 his Delmarva Shorebirds won the South Atlantic League.

Originally a 15th-round draft pick in 1986 by the Pittsburgh Pirates, Shields played for three organizations over a nine-year playing career. He reached the major leagues in 1992 (Orioles) and in 1993 (Cubs) and recorded his first major league hit on April 7, 1993 off Steve Avery.

Shields received his bachelor's degree in government from Notre Dame and his master's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts. Tommy enjoys bowhunting and resides in Lititz, PA, with his wife, Melonni and their children: Kelsey (14), Derrick (13), Samantha (9) and Connor (6).

Dick Balderson

Special Assistant to the General Manager Major League Scout

Dick Balderson is in his fifth season as a Special Assistant to the General Manager/Major League Scout. Balderson originally joined the Braves organization as a major league scout in 1997 and held that position until July 1999 when he was appointed the Director of Player Development (2003). Prior to joining the Braves, Balderson worked for the Colorado Rockies where he was the Director of Player Development from 1992-94 and then Vice President Player Personnel 1995 through '97.

Balderson began his executive career as the Assistant Farm Director for the Kansas City Royals in 1976. After a series of promotions that culminated with his being named Director of Scouting and Player Development in 1981, he moved to the Seattle Mariners organization as Vice President of Baseball Operations for four seasons (1985-88). He then joined the Chicago Cubs as Director of Scouting before being named Vice President of Scouting and Player Development in 1990.

A former pitcher in the Royals' minor league system, Balderson is a graduate of the University of Richmond and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1995. Dick and his wife, Marcia, reside in Englewood, CO.

Tim Conroy

Special Assistant to the General Manager Major League Scout

Tim Conroy was promoted to Special Assistant to the General Manager/Major League Scout in December 2004. Entering his seventh year with the Braves organization, he previously served as a national cross checker for two years (2003, 2004) and was a national supervisor for two years (2001, 2002).

A former pitcher, Conroy was drafted in the first round of the 1978 amateur draft by the Oakland A's and spent eight years (1978-1985) in the Athletics' organization before being traded to St. Louis in 1986. Conroy pitched his final three seasons in St. Louis and rejoined the organization in 1994 to begin his professional scouting career. From 1994-98 he worked as an area scout and was an east coast regional supervisor from 1999-2000.

Tim and his wife Michele have three children, Jenna, Brooke and T.J., and reside in Monroeville, PA.

Tony DeMacio

Special Assistant to the General Manager Major League Scout

Tony DeMacio, who originally began his career with the Atlanta Braves as an area scout in 1983, returns for his second stint with the organization. In his first tenure (1983-90) with the Braves, DeMacio was credited with signing two-time Cy Young Award winner Tom Glavine (1984) and No. 1 draft pick Chipper Jones in 1990.

DeMacio has been a part of four Major League organizations over a 16-year span, including the Cleveland Indians (1991-94), Chicago Cubs (1995-98), Baltimore Orioles (1999-2004) and Pittsburgh Pirates (2005-06). While with the Indians, DeMacio was involved in drafts and signings that brought future major leaguers Manny Ramirez, Chad Ogea, Albie Lopez, Jon Nunnally, Paul Shuey, Paul Byrd and Herbert Perry to their organization. With the Cubs he was involved in the selections on Kerry Wood, Corey Patterson and Jon Garland, and his Orioles draft picks included such players as Larry Bigbie, Brian Roberts, Erik Bedard, Willie Harris, Nick Markakis and John Maine.

A native of McKees Rocks, PA, DeMacio attended Parsons College in Fairfield, IA, where he played four years of baseball. Tony, 61, and his wife, Diane, reside in Virginia Beach, VA. He has one daughter, Heather, and one son, Robert.

Jim Fregosi

Special Assistant to the General Manager Major League Scout

Jim Fregosi joined the Atlanta Braves as a Special Assistant to the General Manager/Major League Scout in November 2000 after spending two years as Manager of the Toronto Blue Jays.

Fregosi began his managerial career in 1978 and spent four seasons with the California Angels. He managed three seasons with the Chicago White Sox (1986-88), six with the Philadelphia Phillies (1991-1996) and two with the Blue Jays (1999-2000). Fregosi has posted a career mark of 1028-1095 and has taken two teams into postseason play. In 1979, he led the Angels to their first playoff appearance and in 1993 was in charge of a Phillies team that won the National League Pennant before falling to the Blue Jays in the World Series.

During the 1997-98, seasons Fregosi was a Special Assistant to the General Manager for the San Francisco Giants.

During his 18-year Major League playing career, the former shortstop spent time with Los Angeles (AL), New York (NL), Texas, and Pittsburgh. A career .265 hitter, Fregosi was named to the American League All-Star team six times.

Duane Larson

Duane Larson came to the Braves organization in 2003 from Toronto, where he worked in scouting and player development for 26 years. Larson joined the Blue Jays organization in 1977, working as a minor-league scout and Manager of Utica in the New York-Penn League.

The former infielder played in the Padres system from 1972-76, and began coaching as a player/coach with Reno of the California League during the 1975-76 seasons. From 1982-84 Larson managed at Medicine Hat, where he led the team to a Pioneer League Championship in 1982. In 1985 Larson became a scouting supervisor and was named a special assignment scout in 1994. Larson was honored in 1996 with the Toronto Blue Jays Al LaMacchia Award for excellence in scouting.

Larson graduated from the University of Santa Clara, majoring in economics. He and his wife, Gail, live in Knoxville, TN.

Special Assistant to the General Manager Major League Scout

Jose Martinez

Jose Martinez, whose professional baseball career dates back to 1960, enters 13th year as Special Assistant to the General Manager/Player Development. Martinez, 65, came to the Braves before the 1995 season after serving eight years as the Chicago Cubs' first base coach.

Martinez spent 12 years (1960-71) as an infielder in the Pittsburgh Pirates' organization, playing for the major-league club in 1969 and 1970, and then played three seasons (1972-74) with the Royals' AAA Omaha team. He managed four years in Kansas City's farm system, three with Sarasota (1976 and 1978-79) and one year with Daytona Beach (1977) before coaching for the Royals from 1980-87.

Martinez stayed active in the winter, managing in Colombia and South America from 1979-84, winning three championships and being named Manager of the Year in 1980, 1981 and 1982. He also worked in the Venezuelan winter league, managing at LaGuaira from 1985-87, Barquisimeto in 1988 and Cabimas in 1992. His 1985 LaGuaira team won the Venezuelan championship and finished second in the Caribbean series.

Jose resides in Miramar, FL, with his wife, Amelia.

Special Assistant to the General Manager Player Development

Chuck McMichael

Chuck McMichael joined the Atlanta organization in September 2000 as a Special Assistant to the General Manager/Major League Scout. Prior to joining the Braves, McMichael served as Director of Scouting in the Texas Rangers organization from 1996-2000. Previous to that he spent 15 years as a scout with the Kansas City Royals' organization, the last 10 as a national cross checker. His scouting career began with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1982 and ended in 1987 as a national crosschecker.

During his tenure as a scout, McMichael was influential in the signing of major-leaguers Mike MacFarlane, Jeff Conine and Carlos Beltran.

McMichael originally signed with the Royals in 1979 as a left-handed pitcher and played three years in their minor-league system. He pitched on the 1976 University of Arizona National Championship team and went on to graduate from LaVerne (CA) College.

Chuck and his wife Rebecca have two sons, Patrick and Andrew, and reside in Keller, TX.

Special Assistant to the General Manager Major League Scout

2007 Scouting Staff

Bobby Wine
Advance Scout

The Braves recognize Bobby Wine for his 50 years in professional baseball as a player, manager, coach and executive.

Wine, who joined the club in 1984 as an advance scout, has served in a variety of roles over the past 24 seasons and has been an integral part of the Braves success.

Wine, a Gold Glove winner in 1963, began his professional career in 1957 when he was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies as an amateur free agent. He played 12 years in the majors with the Phillies and Montreal Expos, all under the guidance of Gene Mauch.

League: International
Class: AAA

General Manager: Bruce Baldwin
Public Relations Manager: John Emmett

Manager: Dave Brundage is in his first season with the Braves organization and his 10th campaign as a minor league manager. He comes to the Braves after spending the previous 19 years as a player, coach and manager in the Seattle Mariners organization. Most recently Brundage managed the 2006 Triple-A Tacoma Rainiers to a 74-70 record (2nd place, Pacific Coast League North Division) and prior to that was manager of the San Antonio Missions (AA) from 2001-2005.

In 2003 Brundage was named the Texas League manager of the year and Minor League manager of the year by Baseball America, as he led San Antonio to the Texas League Championship for the second straight season and finished first in the Texas League for the third straight season. Brundage also managed the West Division in the 2001 Texas League All-Star game.

From 1998-2000 Brundage served as the hitting coach for triple-A Tacoma. During the 1997 season he managed the Memphis Chicks (AA), their only season as a Mariner affiliate. Brundage began his managerial career in 1995 with the Mariners' Single-A affiliate in the California League, leading them to a 72-67 record. He remained with the Single-A affiliate through the 1996 season.

In his nine-year managerial career Brundage has posted a 653-519 (.519) record and has reached the playoffs four different times.

Originally drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the fourth round of the 1986 draft, Brundage spent a total of seven seasons (Philadelphia, 1986 and Seattle, 1987-1992) in the minor leagues as an outfielder and pitcher before being re-signed by Seattle in 1993 as a player-coach at Calgary. Brundage, 42, resides in Portland, OR, with his wife, Dameron and son, Beau and twins, Baylor and Barrett.

Pitching Coach: Guy Hansen is in his third stint with the Braves organization and his fifth season overall as the Richmond Braves pitching coach. Hansen originally joined the organization in 1998 as a special assistant to the scouting and player development office. During his two seasons as a special assistant Hansen also served as the minor league pitching instructor. Following a two-year hiatus, Hansen returned to the organization as the Richmond Braves pitching coach, a position he held from 2001-04.

Hansen spent the 2006 season with the Kansas City Royals as a special assistant in the player development department and was the Major League club's pitching coach in 2005, a position he also held during the 1991-93 seasons. During the 1996-97 campaigns Hansen served as the Royals bench coach. Hansen began his professional coaching career in the Royals minor league system in 1986 with the Eugene Emeralds (Single-A) of the Northwest League (1986-88) and worked his way up Kansas City's minor league system with stops in Memphis (1989-90) and Omaha (1991).

As an area scout in the Royals system (1981-83), Hansen is credited with signing Bret Saberhagen, Kevin Appier, Cecil Fielder and Jeff Conine. In addition to scouting stints with the Atlanta Braves, Baltimore Orioles, Kansas City Royals and Major League Scouting Bureau, Hansen has worked at the collegiate level for UCLA and Pepperdine University.

He began his professional career with the Royals as a 44th-round draft pick in 1969 and played four seasons in the Royals farm system. Guy and his wife, Ivette, have four children, Eva Lolita, Ariana, Dakota and Bret and reside in Goochland, VA.

Coach: Leon Roberts rejoins the Braves organization after previously serving as a manager in the Braves farm system from 1992-95 and as a roving minor league hitting coordinator from 1996-99.

Roberts spent the 2001-06 seasons as the hitting coordinator in the Cincinnati Reds organization and prior to that he was the Major League hitting coach for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays for two seasons (1999-00).

Roberts, 56, owns a career managerial record of 414-425 (.493) with the Detroit (1985-88) and Atlanta (1992-95) organizations. The former outfielder played 11 seasons with six teams (Detroit, Houston, Seattle, Texas, Toronto and Kansas City) from 1974-84. Leon resides in Arlington, TX.

Trainer: Mike Graus is in his 15th season with the Braves organization and second with the Richmond. Prior to joining the Richmond club in 2006, Graus served as the athletic trainer for the Mississippi. Graus originally started with the Idaho Falls Braves and has had assignments in Danville, Eugene, Macon, Myrtle Beach, Greenville and Mississippi.

In addition to his training duties with the Braves organization, Graus has worked several winters in the Instructional League as well as the Venezuelan Winter League and Arizona Fall League. He is also the Braves full season Athletic Training Coordinator and has worked Major League spring training in 1998, 2001, 2003 and 2005.

Graus earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training from the University of Nebraska in 1991 and his master's degree in exercise physiology from the University of Alabama at Birmingham in 1993. Mike, his wife, Erica, and their daughters, Ashton and Avery, reside in Marietta, GA.

Mississippi Braves

PO Box 97389
Pearl, MS 39288
(601) 932-8788

Stadium: Trustmark Park
1 Braves Way
Pearl, MS 39208

League: Southern Class: AA

General Manager: Steve DeSalvo
P.R. Director: Nicholas Skinner

Manager: Phillip Wellman is in his first season as manager of the Mississippi Braves after serving as a coach for the two previous seasons. Wellman's most recent managerial experience came in 2004 with the Danville Braves when he led them to a 41-25 (.621) record and a first-place finish in the Appalachian League. Before rejoining the Atlanta organization in 2004 as a manager, Wellman served as a coach in the Cincinnati Reds organization for eight seasons (1996-03).

During the 2002 season Wellman was selected as a coach for the Major League Baseball Futures Game and in 2003 he was selected as "Prospect Manager" of the Southern League by Baseball America.

Wellman's coaching career began in 1988 as a hitting instructor for the Pulaski Braves and he remained with the organization in various capacities until 1991, when he left to manage the Baltimore Orioles' Gulf Coast team.

As a player, Wellman spent parts of four seasons (1984-87) with the Atlanta, Minnesota and Pittsburgh organizations. From 1980-82 he attended Sam Houston University and earned a Bachelor of Science degree in education from Southwestern University at Georgetown (Texas) in 1985. Wellman, 44, resides in Spring Branch, TX, with his wife, Montee, and their children Britnee, 18, and Brett, 15.

Pitching Coach: Derek Botelho comes to the Mississippi coaching staff after working as Richmond's pitching coach in 2006 and Danville in 2005. Botelho was a member of the Gulf Coast League Braves coaching staff for the 2003 and 2004 seasons. In 2003, he led the pitching staff to the third-best combined ERA in the GCL.

Prior to joining the Braves organization, Botelho spent 12 seasons as a pitching coach in the Reds' organization.

The former right-handed hurler pitched professionally from 1976-89, including Major League stints with Kansas City (1982) and Chicago Cubs (1985). He attended Miami Dade South Junior College and was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies in 1976. In his minor league career, he compiled over 100 wins. Botelho, 49, resides in Burlington, IA.

Coach: In his 20th season of professional baseball, Franklin Stubbs joins the Mississippi coaching staff from Myrtle Beach, where he spent the 2005-06 campaigns as a coach. Prior to his coaching position Stubbs served as a roving Instructor for two seasons (2003-2004) and the minor league hitting instructor for four years (1999-2002). During the 1998 season he managed the Danville 97s, the Braves' Single-A Carolina League affiliate. Stubbs originally joined the Braves in 1997 as a coach for the Danville Braves.

A member of the 1988 World Series Champion Los Angeles Dodgers, Stubbs was originally drafted by the Dodgers as a first-round pick in 1982 and enjoyed 10 years in the major leagues with four different clubs, including Los Angeles (1984-1989), Houston (1990), Milwaukee (1991-1992), and Detroit (1995).

Stubbs attended Virginia Tech and was inducted into its Athletics Hall of Fame in 1992. Franklin, 46, and his wife LaTanya reside in Prospect, KY, with their four children: Paige, Blaine, Michael and Celeste.

Trainer: Drew Van Dam is returning for his second season with the Mississippi Braves in 2007. He is also in his second campaign as the short-season athletic training coordinator. Van Dam has been a member of the Braves organization for six years, having previously worked at Myrtle Beach (2005), Rome (2003-04) and Danville (2002).

In 2005 Van Dam was a trainer for the Phoenix Desert Dogs of the Arizona Fall League and in 2004 he worked Braves' Major League Spring Training. The South Atlantic League honored Van Dam in 2003 with the Trainer of the Year award.

A member of the Springfield College baseball team, Van Dam received a Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training in 2000 and a master's degree in athletic training from Ohio University in 2001.

Drew and his wife, Stacy, reside in Northfield, NJ, with their newborn daughter, Colby Shea.

Stadium: Coastal Federal Field
1251 21st Avenue North
Myrtle Beach, SC 29577
League: Carolina
Class: A
President and Managing Partner: Chuck Greenberg
General Manager: North Johnson

Manager: Returning for his second season as manager, Ralph "Rocket" Wheeler is in his fifth season overall as a skipper in the Braves organization (Myrtle Beach, 2006 and Rome, 2003-05). During the 2003 season, Wheeler led Rome to the South Atlantic League Championship with a 78-61 overall record and a first-half division title en route to being named the Braves' Minor League Coach of the Year.

Prior to joining the Braves organization, Wheeler spent 26 seasons in the Toronto Blue Jays organization as a player, coach and manager. From 2000-2002, he was manager of the Tennessee Smokies of the Southern League.

In 1999, Wheeler was named Florida State League Manager of the Year, leading his Dunedin Blue Jays (Toronto) to an 85-51 record. In 1996 at St. Catharines, Wheeler was awarded the inaugural Bobby Mattick Award for excellence in player development after being named the Manager of the Year in the New York-Penn League.

A 13th-round draft pick in 1977, Wheeler played six seasons in the Blue Jays farm system and began his coaching career in 1981 while also a full-time player at Florence.

The 50-year-old Wheeler attended the University of Houston, where he majored in health and physical education, while playing baseball for the Cougars. He resides in Pawleys Island, SC, with his wife Leigh. They have one son, Marty, 23, and a daughter Kate, 17.

Pitching Coach: A fixture in the Braves organization since 1982, Bruce Dal Canton returns for his ninth season as pitching coach with Myrtle Beach. In 2004, Dal Canton's pitching staff led the Carolina League with 1,051 strikeouts and 19 shutouts and placed second in the league with a 3.44 ERA. In 2002, his pitching staff finished with a 70-61 record and a 3.20 ERA (2nd in the Carolina League) and in 2000, his Pelicans' pitching staff led the Carolina League with a team ERA of 2.51.

Prior to joining Myrtle Beach in 1999, Dal Canton worked in the same capacity with five different Braves affiliates over a 24-year span: Danville (1998), Greenville (1994-97 and 1984), Richmond (1991-93 and 1985-86) and Savannah (1983). Dal Canton was a member of the coaching staff on the 1997 Southern League Champion Greenville Braves.

Dal Canton's major league coaching experience includes three years (1987-90) as the Atlanta Braves pitching coach. He originally joined the Atlanta Braves organization in 1982 as a roving minor league pitching instructor.

Over a 12-year major league career beginning in 1967, Dal Canton compiled a 51-49 record as a spot starter with the Pirates, Royals, Braves and White Sox. Primarily a reliever with Pittsburgh, Dal Canton went 20-8 for the Pirates between 1967 and 1970. He pitched over a year without a loss, recording a 7-0 mark from June 29, 1969 to July 20, 1970. With Kansas City, Dal Canton set a Royals' club record (later broken by Steve Busby in 1974) when he retired 23 consecutive batters against the Yankees on August 14, 1972. Signed by the Braves after his release by Kansas City in 1975, Dal Canton pitched in Atlanta through the 1976 season. In April of 1977 he was signed as a free agent by the White Sox. Following his release in June of 1978, he served as the White Sox pitching coach for the remainder of the season.

Dal Canton, 61, attended California University of Pennsylvania and the University of West Virginia, earning a Bachelor of Science degree in education and a master's degree in biology. Bruce and his wife, Helene, reside in Carnegie, PA.

Coach: Rick Albert joins the Pelicans coaching staff from the Richmond Braves where he spent four seasons (2003-06) in the same capacity. Prior to his four-year stint with Richmond, Albert managed the Gulf Coast League Braves for five seasons (1998-2002).

In 2000, Albert was named the Braves' organization Manager of the Year after leading the team to a 26-34 record and a third place finish in the Eastern Division race.

In previous managerial stints within the Braves minor leagues, Albert managed at Burlington (1988), Anderson (1983-1984), and Pulaski (1982). In addition, he has coached at various levels within the Braves' farm system, including Richmond (1987), Durham (1994), Eugene (1996), Bradenton (1978-81, 1989-91) and the Gulf Coast Braves (1992-93, 1995).

Albert, a native of West Seneca, NY, has been a player, manager or coach within the Atlanta Braves organization every year since 1972. Rick, 53, his wife, Veronica, and their three children, Keith, Luke and Jill, reside in Hollywood, FL.

Trainer: Ricky Alcantara returns for his second season as the Myrtle Beach Pelicans trainer. Prior to joining the Pelicans staff he was the GCL Braves head trainer for two seasons (2003-04). During the 2003 season Alcantara was an intern for the Braves Instructional League and also worked a Colorado Rockies homestand that year.

Alcantara attended Major League spring training in 2006 and this past winter he worked as a trainer in the Venezuelan Winter League for the Leones de Caracas.

A 2003 graduate of Texas State University in San Marcos, Alcantara was a member of the TSU athletic training staff and earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training. Ricky resides in Dallas, TX.

Rome Braves

PO Box 5515
Rome, GA 30162
(706) 368-9388

Stadium: State Mutual Stadium
755 Braves Boulevard
Rome, GA 30161
League: South Atlantic
Class: A
General Manager: Mike Dunn

Manager: Randy Ingle is in his 16th season as a manager in the Braves organization and his second with the Rome Braves. Ingle's previous managerial stints in the Atlanta farm system include Myrtle Beach (2002-05), Macon (2001 and 1993), Richmond (1999-2000), Greenville (1997-98), Durham (1996) and Pulaski (1990-92). In his 15 seasons as a manager he has twice been named the organization's minor league Manager of the Year (1996 and 1997).

In 1997 Ingle led the Greenville Braves to the Southern League Championship and was named Southern League Manager of the Year. During the 1996 season, he led the Durham Bulls of the Carolina League to a 73-66 record, including a 38-31 first place finish in the first half.

Ingle, a former infielder, played within the Braves farm system from 1979 to 1987, including an appointment as a player-coach at Greenville in 1987. Randy and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Forest City, NC, with their two children, Taylor and Meghan.

Pitching Coach: Doug Henry is in his first season as the Rome Braves pitching coach. During the 2006 campaign Henry led the Danville pitching staff to a 3.67 ERA, second best in the Appalachian League. In his first year (2005) in the organization he worked alongside pitching coach Bruce Dal Canton at Myrtle Beach.

The former right-hander was originally drafted in 1985 by the Milwaukee Brewers out of the University of Arizona. He pitched professionally from 1985-2002 for five major league clubs, the Brewers (1991-1994), New York Mets (1995-1996), Houston Astros (1998-2000), San Francisco Giants (1997 and 2000) and Kansas City Royals (2001). Following his retirement from professional baseball in 2002, Henry coached for the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater.

Henry and his wife, Monique, reside in Hartland, WI, with their four children, Danielle, Jason, Zachary and Mikayla.

Coach: Bobby Moore returns to the Rome club for his seventh season. Before joining Rome, Moore spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as a coach for the Braves' Class-A affiliate in Greenville. In 1998, he worked under Paul Runge with the Danville 97s. His inaugural season of professional coaching was 1997 when he served as a coach with the Braves Single-A affiliate (Eugene Emeralds) of the Northwest League.

Moore attended Eastern Kentucky University and was a 16th-round draft pick by the Kansas City Royals in 1987. Moore played in the Braves organization from 1992-96, when in 1996, a fractured hip cut short his last season in Richmond.

Twice in his career Moore was named to an all-star team (Northwest League, 1987 and Southern League, 1990). During the 1991 season, Moore received a call-up to the majors with the Kansas City Royals which lasted 18 games, resulting in a .357 average in 14 at-bats.

In December of 1991, Moore was traded to the Atlanta Braves in exchange for Rico Rossy. He spent the 1992 season with Richmond and after a one-year stint playing for the Laredos of the Mexican League. He rejoined the Royals organization in 1994 before being signed as a free agent by the Richmond Braves in June. Moore finished the 1994 season in a flurry, hitting .366 in 60 games along with 10 steals. During his 10-year professional baseball career (1987-1996) Moore compiled a .279 average and recorded 175 stolen bases.

Bobby and his wife, Jane, reside in his hometown of Cincinnati, OH, with their son, Robert.

Trainer: Greg Hall is in his second season as the Rome Braves trainer and his third in the Braves organization. Hall spent his first year with the Braves as the Gulf Coast League trainer. In 2006 Hall was named to the South Atlantic League all-star staff and in 2007 he attended Major League spring training.

Greg graduated from Springfield College (IL) in 2004 with a bachelors of science in athletic training. Greg and his wife, Alli, reside in Orlando, FL.

Danville Braves

P.O. Box 378
Danville, VA 24543
(434) 797-3792

Stadium: American Legion Post 325
Field at Dan Daniel Park
302 Riverpark Dr.
Danville, VA 24540
League: Appalachian
Class: Rookie Advanced
General Manager: Dave Cross

Manager: Paul Runge, the Braves' 2006 minor league Manager of the Year returns to Danville for his third season after leading the team to back-to-back first place finishes in the Appalachian League (2006, 40-27. and 2005, 47-20).

Runge's managerial experience dates back to 1993 with the Idaho Falls Braves, one year after he began his professional coaching career with Idaho. His previous managerial stops within the Braves organization include Greenville (1999-2001), Danville (1998 and 1994), Durham (1997), Macon (1996) and Eugene (1995). In addition, he has managed in the Arizona Fall League (1997) and the Australian Winter League (1994-95).

Runge's playing career began in 1979 when the Atlanta Braves selected him in the ninth round of the draft as a shortstop out of Jacksonville University. Runge enjoyed an eight-year playing career (1981-88) with the Braves. He was also a member of the San Diego Padres organization (1989) and the Toronto Blue Jays organization (1990).

Paul and his wife, Rae Ellen, have two daughters, Renee and Marissa, and reside in Jupiter, FL.

Pitching Coach: Jim Czajkowski returns for his second tour of duty (2002-04) with the Danville Braves after a two-year stint (2005-06) with the Rome Braves.

An Atlanta Braves' 29th-round selection in 1986, Czajkowski was a member of four different organizations before receiving his first Major League call-up in 1994 with the Colorado Rockies.

As a member of the Toronto Blue Jays organization, Czajkowski finished his professional career in 1997 with 121 career saves. Czajkowski prides himself in being a member of four championship teams: 1995 Colorado Springs (Rockies, AAA), 1995 Acricebo Wolves (Puerto Rico), 1993 Iowa Cubs (Cubs, AAA) and 1990 Stockton Ports (Brewers, A).

Jim and his wife, Cheri, reside in Sevierville, TN, with their sons Josh and Zak.

Coach: Mel Roberts is in his 11th year with the Braves organization and his third season as a coach with Danville. Roberts spent seven years combined (2001-04 and 1996-98) as the coach of the Braves' Double-A affiliate in Greenville. From 1999-2000 Roberts was a coach with the Richmond Braves.

Before joining the Braves organization, Roberts served as first base coach for the Philadelphia Phillies from 1992-95. He managed the Spartanburg Phillies from 1988-91 where he won the South Atlantic League Championship in 1988 and was also named as an all-star manager. Roberts began his coaching career in 1969 with the Phillies organization as a player-coach at Raleigh-Durham. He later worked as a roving outfield instructor (1984 and 1986) prior to managing at Bend (OR) in 1987.

Roberts, a former outfielder, played nine seasons of professional baseball from 1961-70, signing first with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1961. He was out of professional baseball in 1965, playing semi-pro ball for the Jenkintown Quakers (PA). He then signed with the Phillies organization in September of 1965 and remained with the organization through 1970.

Roberts' commitment to the youth of Spartanburg, SC, resulted in the establishment of the Mel Roberts Scholarship Foundation. Then Spartanburg Mayor James Talley proclaimed July 26, 1993, Mel Roberts Day in the community.

Roberts graduated from Abington (PA) High School and attended Temple University and Spartanburg Tech. Mel, 60, and his wife, Lucille, reside in Spartanburg, SC. They have two sons, Jimmy and Juan, and two daughters, Jacqueline and Linda.

Trainer: Chas Miller is back for his second season as the Danville Braves trainer. Before joining the Braves organization, Miller worked as an intern for the Pittsburgh Pirates through the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society and has also served as a seasonal athletic trainer with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Chas graduated from West Virginia University with a degree in athletic training and received his master's degree in sports psychology from the University of Tennessee. Originally from Morgantown, WV, Chas and his fiancé, Melanie McCadden, reside in Lexington Park, MD.

Gulf Coast League Braves

P.O. Box 470517
Celebration City, FL 34747
(407) 939-2301

Stadium: The Ballpark at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex
700 South Victory Way
Kissimmee, FL 34747
League: Gulf Coast League
Class: Rookie
Administrator: Mike Morris

Manager: Luis Ortiz returns to the Gulf Coast League Braves for his third season after managing the Danville Braves in 2004 and the Braves' Dominican Summer League second team in 2003. In his first year as a manager, Ortiz led the DSL second team to a 39-27 record and a third-place finish overall.

Ortiz began his professional career in the front office in 1998 with the Texas Rangers organization. He remained with the Rangers as a part-time scout through December 2002.

Ortiz played professionally for four seasons (1977-80) in the Yankees minor league system, winning three championships in four years. After retiring from playing, Ortiz joined the United States Army and served 22 years (1981-2002).

Luis resides in San Antonio, TX, with his wife, Noris. His daughter, Siobahn, 21, attends college in San Antonio.

Pitching Coach: Derrick Lewis is in his fourth season as the Gulf Coast League pitching coach. Lewis' affiliation with the Braves dates back to 1997 when Atlanta selected him in the 20th-round of the June free agent draft.

Lewis spent six years (1997-2003) as a pitcher in the Braves' minor league system and was selected by the Braves organization as the Myrtle Beach Pitcher of the Year in 1999 when he finished second in the Carolina League in ERA. For his career he posted a 31-37 record with a 4.05 ERA.

Derrick and his wife, Roslyn, reside in Montgomery, AL.

Coach: Sixto Lezcano begins his seventh season with the Gulf Coast League Braves. After seven years as a member of the Kansas City Royals coaching staff, Lezcano spent his first year in the Braves organization in 2000 as a coach for the Myrtle Beach Pelicans of the Carolina League.

From 1997-99, Lezcano was the Royals' minor league outfield instructor. Prior to being an instructor, he was a coach at the Class A Wilmington Blue Rocks from 1994-96. In 1993, Lezcano was a coach at Kansas City's Eugene affiliate.

The former major league outfielder played in 1,291 games spanning 12 seasons and recorded a career .271 batting average with 148 home runs and 591 RBI. Lezcano began his career in Milwaukee in 1974 and played with the Brewers for seven years before being traded to St. Louis in 1981. From 1981-85 he played with four teams (St. Louis, San Diego, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh). Lezcano was a member of the 1983 NL-pennant winning Philadelphia Phillies. He also played in Japan and in the Senior League.

Sixto, 51, resides in Orlando, FL, with his wife Mariangelly, and their four children, Zurielle, Michael, Steve, and Sergio.

Trainer: Allan Chase is in his first season with the Braves organization. Chase begins his professional career with the Braves after having previously worked as an athletic trainer for three different colleges and one professional baseball team over the past three years. Most recently he served as an assistant athletic trainer at Hawaii Pacific University and prior to that he was the trainer for the Rockford Riverhawks of the Frontier League from 2005-06.

Chase received his Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training and his Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology from Southern Illinois University. While working on his graduate degree he served as an athletic training graduate assistant at the University of Texas at Taylor. Allan is currently working to complete his master's degree at the University of Texas at Tyler.

Trainer: Daniel Easley is in his first season with the Atlanta Braves. From August 2006 through May 2007 Easley was an athletic trainer at Stanford University and covered football and men's and women's swimming and diving.

Easley earned his master's degree in athletic training at San Jose State University, where he was the athletic trainer for the women's basketball team. As an undergraduate student Easley was a member of the Angelo State University training staff. He covered football, track and field and women's volleyball and graduated with a degree in kinesiology with an athletic training emphasis.

Daniel resides in San Jose, CA and enjoys going to the beach.

2006 Review: Enjoyed first full season at Rome as a shortstop. Rated the fourth-best prospect in the Sally League by Baseball America. Selected to the South Atlanta League all-star team as a utility infielder after hitting .281 with 32 RBI and ranking third in the league with a .948 fielding percentage in the first half. Ranked sixth among Braves minor leaguers with 25 doubles and 23 stolen bases and seventh with 67 runs scored. Hit .302 (29-for-96) in May with five doubles, one triple, 15 RBI and six stolen bases. Collected a career-high four RBI on 4/8 and recorded a career-high four hits twice (8/26 and 9/1). Longest hitting streak of the season was seven games, 4/27-5/3. Batted .370 (10-for-27) during the streak. Reached base safely via hit or walk in 14 consecutive games from 4/7-24. Played in two games and went 2-for-7 (.286) with a walk, a strikeout and a run scored for Magallanes of the Venezuelan Winter League. 2005: Recognized by Baseball America as the second-best overall prospect in the Braves organization. Named the Most Valuable Player of the Year for the GCL Braves. Led the GCL Braves in hits (49), on-base percentage (.377), stolen bases (7), runs scored (26) and walks (19). Reached base safely via hit or walk in 35-of-46 contests for the GCL Braves. Honored by the Braves organization as the GCL July Player of the Month when he batted .351 (27-for-77) with 15 RBI, three doubles, nine walks and four stolen bases. His overall .293 average was ninth best among Braves minor leaguers. Of the 31 contests he earned a hit in for the GCL Braves, 13 of them were multi-hit games. Earned an end-of-the-season promotion to Danville on 8/25 and hit .400 in the Appy League Championships.

2006 Review: 2007 Review: Played first full season a Single-A Rome as a third baseman. Overcame a midseason back injury to lead the South Atlantic League with 22 home runs (2nd most among Braves' minor leaguers) and rank fifth in both slugging percentage (.571) and extra-base hits (52). His 22 homers and 77 RBI set single-season Rome records, while he led the Rome squad in average (.296, 77th among Braves minor leaguers), hits (133, 2nd among Braves minor leaguers), doubles (27, 3rd among Braves minor leaguers) and runs scored (83, 2nd among Braves minor leaguers). His .296 average was fourth-best among all class A first baseman. Named the Rome Braves MVP by Braves organization. Was a Sally League all-star. Elected Rome Braves August player of the month after hitting .330 (33-for-100) with seven doubles, seven home runs, 18 RBI, six stolen bases and 19 runs scored in 26 games. Also hit .330 (30-for-91) in June with seven doubles, four homers and 16 RBI. Twice named Sally League player of the week. First honor came for the week ending 5/7 when he hit .385 (10-for-26, five hits for extra bases) with 3 home runs, 9 RBI and a .808 slugging percentage. The second came in August, 8/6-13. Despite starting the week 0-for-7, batted .419 (13-for-31) over the final five games recording a multi-hit performance in each game, including one three-hit game and one four-hit game. In a seven-game span (5/12-19), he went 14-for-30 (.467) and raised his average from .271 to .310. Recorded 38 multi-hit games and 17 multi-RBI games including three four-RBI games. Hit .346 (47-for-136) in 59 road games. Despite recording 187 more at bats than the 2005 season, his strike out total only increased by four. Matched career-high with four hits in 3-2 (13) win vs. AUG on 8/24. Had three four-RBI games. Played in 18 games, 10 of them as a second baseman, and hit .250 (15-for-60) with six 2B, one HR and seven RBI for the Honolulu Sharks of the Hawaii Winter League. 2005: Rated by Baseball America as the overall ninth-best prospect in the Braves organization. Named Most Valuable Player of the Year for Danville and shared Appy League Co-Player of the Year honors with teammate Max Ramirez. Also named Topps' Minor League Baseball Co-Player of the Year for the Appy League and voted to the 12-player Topps' Class A-Short Season/Rookie League All-Star team. Honored by the Braves organization as the July Co-Player of the Month for the D-Braves. Was Appy League Player of the Week 7/18-24 when he batted .414 (12-for-29) and drove in 10 runs to help lead the D-Braves to six straight wins and a 6-1 mark for the week. The weekly honor was highlighted by a three-game performance when Campbell went a combined 8-for-12 with seven runs, five doubles, a triple and six RBI. His 1.017 OPS was tops among Braves minor leaguers, while his .313 average was fourth best. Dominated the Appy League in power statistics, leading with 26 doubles, 18 home runs (fifth best among Braves minor leaguers), 64 RBI (eighth best among Braves minor leaguers), 77 runs scored (third best among Braves minor leaguers) and a .634 slugging percentage. His 18 homers were best among all short-season players, while the doubles, home runs, RBI and runs scored all set Danville records. 77 runs scored bested the Appy League record, set in 1961 (72) and tied in 1964. Led the Appy League with 18 homers, 64 RBI, 26 doubles, a .527 slugging percentage (.044 points higher than the next closest player), 126 total bases and 77 runs scored. He ranked third in hits (82) and ninth in batting average (.313). Member of the Appy League All-Star team. Named to Baseball America's Postseason Rookie All-Star Team. Had a 12 game hitting streak 7/31-8/10 (.440, 22-for-50). Seven of the 12 games in the hitting streak were multi-hit games. Had a career high five RBI 6/22 and 7/28 and a career high four hits 8/5. 2004: Named by the Braves organization as the Gulf Coast League June Player of the Month when he led the team in home runs (3) and was second in RBI (6).

2006 Review: Hit .342 (40-for-117) with 7 2B, 10 RBI, 10 BB and 10 SB to earn Myrtle Beach August player of the month honors from the Braves' organization. His 35 stolen bases were tops for Myrtle Beach and third-best in the Carolina League and the Braves organization. Led Myrtle Beach with 125 hits (fifth in organization) and 470 at-bats. Ranked seventh among Braves farmhands with 23 doubles and 65 runs scored. Set career-highs in hits, at-bats, walks and runs scored. Hit in the leadoff spot in 103 of the 116 games he played in and posted his best average in that spot (.292, 49-for-168). Led off the ballgame on 8/22 vs. Wilmington Blue Rocks, with a single to centerfield to extend his hitting streak to 19 games, surpassing the MB single-season hitting-streak record (18 g., Martin Prado, 2005). The streak would end at 20 games, with Holt hitting .385 (30-for-78) during the time streak. Had five three-hit games, including two during the streak. Matched a career-high four hits on 7/26. Hit safely in 40 of his last 46 games. Batted .388 (26-for-67) with three doubles, one triple, one home run, eight RBI and 14 runs scored in 16 games for the Peoria Javelinas of the Arizona Fall League, 2005: Was third on the team in hits (118) for the D-Braves. Had his best month of the season in July when he led the Pelicans with a .352 (25-for-71) average and collected six doubles, one triple and 10 RBI. Matched his career high four hits on two separate occasions, 4/22 and 8/13. 2004: Selected by Baseball America as the 16th-best prospect in the Appalachian League. Was a member of the Appy League postseason All-Star team. Led the Danville Braves in hitting (.321, 67-for-209) and stolen bases (17) and was tied for first in hits (67). Hit just .212 in early July and .348 the rest of the season.

Placed on the disabled list on 8/15 and missed last three weeks of the season after surgery to repair a labrum tear in his throwing shoulder. Opened the season at MB hitting safely in each of his first 11 games, extending his hitting streak to 16 games, dating back to '05 when he ended the season with a five-game hitting streak. Hit .341, 14-for-41 during the streak. Three of his first four hits at AA were doubles. Had 20 extra-base hits at MB. Managers voted Jones the best power prospect in the Carolina League. Voted M-Braves July player of the month. Finished tied for third in the organization with six triples, fifth with 60 RBI, and seventh with 14 round trippers. Recorded a combined 29 multi-hit games. Hit .315 (12-for-38) during a nine-game hitting streak (7/26-8/4). Hit a two-run walk-off homer to give the M-Braves a 2-1 win on 7/20 [2]. Went 2-for-3 with a home run, double, four RBI and two runs scored in the M-Braves 6-3 win on 8/8. Tied the ballgame with a solo homer in the bottom of the ninth on 5/9. Pelicans went on to win in extra innings. 2005: Rated by Baseball America as the #7 overall top prospect in the Braves organization. Named the Rome Braves July Co-Player of the Month by the organization as he led the team with seven homers, tied for the lead with 19 RBI, was second on the team with 32 hits and had a .323 average. Ranked second among Braves minor leaguers with a 0.921 OPS. Reached base safely via hit or walk in 19 consecutive games with Rome (4/8-7/10) and in 18 of the 19 games played with MB (8/8-25). Had two four-hit games, 7/8 and 7/23 and one four-RBI game, 7/23.

2006 Review: Started the season at Double-A Mississippi. Was reassigned to High-A Myrtle Beach on 5/1 and played in his first game 5/3, the start of a 10-game hitting streak. Saw playing time at all three outfield positions. Won the Carolina League batting title with a .323 average (118-for-365). He became only the second Pelican in MB history to win the batting title (Marcus Giles, .326 in 1999). Led the Carolina League and ranked sixth among all Class-A hitters with a .425 on-base percentage. Was the fifth-best hitting outfielder among all class A outfielders and his .323 average was ninth-best among Class-A hitters. Combined .305 average was fourth-best among Braves' farmhands. Was fourth in the organization in hits (126), fifth in runs scored (71) and stolen bases (30). Named the Braves organization July player of the month for MB. Went 4-for-5 with a pair of doubles and singles in a 9-8 Pelicans at Lynchburgh 6/23. Had back-to-back three-hit games, 6/5-6. 2005: Ranked second among Braves minor leaguers with 82 runs scored and tied for fourth with five triples and 34 stolen bases. Had an eight game hitting streak 6/7-17 (.364, 12-for-33). Recorded a combined (Rome and Myrtle Beach) 29 multi-hit games. 2004: Named by the Braves' organization as the Danville Braves Most Valuable Player of the Year and was a member of the Appalachian League postseason All-Star team. Led the Appy League and Danville in games played at 65. Was tied for third in the Appy League and led Danville with 73 hits. Ranked first for Danville in at-bats (239) and walks (32). The next closest teammate was 21 runs behind his 60 runs scored. Honored by the Braves organization as the July Player of the Month. Collected 35 hits (.330, 35-for-106) and 15 RBI in 30 games, and led the team in slugging percentage (.462) and on-base percentage (.413) during that time frame. 2003: Named to the Gulf Coast League All-Star team. Led the GCL Braves and ranked third in the Gulf Coast League with 21 stolen bases.

Braves In The World Series

1914 World Series - Boston 4, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' "Miracle Braves," who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, including a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 World Series - Cleveland 4, Boston 2

The Braves, under manager Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost in the World Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in Game 5, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive home runs off Feller.

1957 World Series - Milwaukee 4, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' 10th-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days' rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 World Series - New York 4, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come back from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with 10 hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two games and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 World Series - Minnesota 4, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic epic. Four of the last five games were decided on the final pitch and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Braves' consensus MVP Mark Lemke was the catalyst, as he singled in the game-winning run in Game 3, scored the game-winner in Game 4 and tripled twice in Game 5 on the way to a .417 Series batting average. Lonnie Smith also became the first NL player in Series history to homer in three straight games. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing just one more win, but Kirby Puckett and Series MVP Jack Morris led the Twins to consecutive wins and the championship.

1992 World Series - Toronto 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays claiming the championship in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play (the last three setbacks to the Twins in 1991 were also by one run). The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's sixth-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. Toronto answered back in Game 2 with a comeback 5-4 win, sparked by a ninth-inning, pinch-hit homer by Ed Sprague. The Jays saw the momentum of their comeback win carry over to Toronto, limiting the Braves to a total of four runs over Games 3 and 4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. Lonnie Smith's grand slam sparked a 7-2 win in Game 5 to keep the Braves' hopes alive. The Series returned to Atlanta, and the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the ninth on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 (8-for-15) with five stolen bases.

1995 World Series - Atlanta 4, Cleveland 2

The Braves captured Atlanta's first championship in a major professional sport by defeating 100-game winner Cleveland in six games. Atlanta's pitching held the American League hitting leaders to a .179 batting average. Tom Glavine earned MVP honors as he notched wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6, allowing two earned runs and striking out 11 in 14 innings. The Braves captured Game 1 of the series at home, 3-2, behind Greg Maddux's two-hitter, Fred McGriff's homer in his first World Series at-bat and a Rafael Belliard suicide squeeze bunt. In Game 2 Glavine picked up a 4-3 win as catcher Javy Lopez slugged a game-deciding two-run homer. Cleveland took Game 3 at home, 7-6, in 11 innings, with John Smoltz lasting only 2.1 innings. After falling to Atlanta in Game 4, 5-2, behind a fine pitching effort by Steve Avery, the Indians avoided elimination at home by defeating Maddux, 5-4, in Game 5. The Braves won their first World Series in three tries since moving to Atlanta by winning Game 6, 1-0, behind Glavine's superb one-hit, eight-inning performance. David Justice provided the offense with a dramatic right-field home run blast in the sixth inning, and Mark Wohlers nailed down the save, his second of the series. Marquis Grissom collected nine hits in the series, giving him 25 postseason hits (11 Division Series, 5 NLCS), the most ever in a postseason. Grissom hit safely in all 14 postseason contests, the longest streak ever in one postseason. Third baseman Chipper Jones finished the postseason 19-for-53 (.358, 3 HR), setting a major league record for postseason hits by a rookie. Ryan Klesko became the first player ever to homer in three straight World Series road games. It was the third World Championship in the history of the franchise, making the Braves the first team in history to win world titles in three different cities, the '95 Braves joining their predecessors in Boston (1914) and Milwaukee (1957).

1996 World Series - New York 4, Atlanta 2

All signs pointed towards a second straight World Championship for the Braves as Atlanta captured the first two games in Yankee Stadium, but an inspired New York team rallied to win the last four contests and the title. Andruw Jones became an immediate World Series legend as he homered in his first two at-bats in Game 1 (3-for-4, 2 HR, 5 RBI), leading the Braves to a 12-1 triumph. Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972) is the only other player to perform that feat. At 19 years, 6 months and 28 days, Jones became the youngest player ever to homer in a Fall Classic. Greg Maddux shut down the Yankees in Game 2, 4-0, allowing only six hits and no walks in 8.0 innings. Of the 24 outs recorded by Maddux, two were strikeouts and 21 others came on ground balls. Fred McGriff had three RBI in Game 2, after getting two in Game 1, to give him 15 RBI for the postseason, a new major league mark. He finished with 16 RBI in the postseason. Including the final three victories over the Cardinals in the LCS, Atlanta had outscored its opponents, 48-2, in its last five games. In Atlanta, the Yankees' Bernie Williams broke a 1-1 tie with a two-run homer in the eighth inning of Game 3, leading New York to a 5-2 win. In Game 4, the Braves held a 6-0 lead entering the 6th inning, but three in half. Still, the Braves held a 6-3 lead in the eighth, when New York's Jim Leyritz reached Mark Wohlers for a three-run homer to tie the game at 6-6. Two 10th-inning runs by the Yankees proved decisive, and the Series was knotted at two games each after the longest game by time (4 hours, 17 minutes) in World Series history. The final game ever played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium saw New York's Andy Pettitte outduel John Smoltz 1-0 in Game 5, with the only score coming on a fourth-inning unearned run. The Series returned to New York, where the Yankees wrapped up the championship by tagging Maddux for three runs in the third in their 3-2 victory.

The Braves lost the Series despite standout performances by their top three starting pitchers (Smoltz: 0.64 ERA; Maddux: 1.72 ERA; Glavine: 1.29 ERA), and individual heroics on offense by Marquis Grissom (.444 BA) and Andruw Jones (.400 BA).

1999 World Series - New York 4, Atlanta 0

In a rematch of the 1996 World Series, the Braves were held to just nine runs in a four-game sweep by the Yankees. Greg Maddux carried a 1-0 lead into the eighth inning of Game 1, thanks to a Chipper Jones homer in the fourth, but the Yankees parlayed three hits, three walks and two errors into four runs for a 4-1 victory. Jones' homer was Atlanta's only hit in the contest until Bret Boone's ninth-inning single. After the offense's two-hit performance in Game 1, manager Bobby Cox shook up the lineup, inserting Ozzie Guillen, Keith Lockhart and Greg Myers, but were held scoreless until the ninth inning of a 7-2 loss. Kevin Millwood was tagged for five runs (four ER) on eight hits in only 2.0 IP, marking his shortest outing of the season. A change of venue initially aided the offense in Game 3 at New York, as Bret Boone stroked three doubles in the first four innings to lead the Braves to a 5-1 lead. A flu-weakened Tom Glavine allowed solo homers to Chad Curtis in the fifth and Tino Martinez in the seventh to narrow Atlanta's lead to 5-3, before the Yankees tied the score at 5-5 in the eighth on a two-run homer by Chuck Knoblauch, knocking Glavine out of the game. A scoreless ninth sent the contest into extra frames, with Curtis striking again, this time belting a leadoff homer off Mike Remlinger to give the Yankees their third straight win. The Braves, despite collecting 14 hits, were blanked over the final six innings. In Game 4, Roger Clemens shutout Atlanta over the first seven innings and the Yankees' three-run third proved decisive in the 4-1 finale. John Smoltz provided a stellar effort (7.0 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 3 BB, 11 K), but couldn't prevent the Braves' eighth straight loss in the World Series, dating back to Game 3 of the 1996 Fall Classic.

1991 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games 2 and 6; Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game 7 in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh, on the way to a 1.57 series ERA against the league's top offense.

1992 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Series MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Pirates in Game 2. The Bucs captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Wakefield's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for Game 7 drama. Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the ninth scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win. With their improbable ninth-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive postseason game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 League Championship Series - Philadelphia 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueled John Smoltz in Game 4 to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves with a .435 series batting average.

1995 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Cincinnati 0

The Braves returned to the World Series for the third time in the last four Fall Classics by sweeping the Reds with the first four-game sweep in NLCS history. Atlanta won Game 1 at Cincinnati in 11 innings, 2-1, after rallying to tie the game in the top of the ninth. Series MVP Mike Devereaux, an August acquisition from the Chicago White Sox, provided the game-winning single in the 11th. Game 2 also was forced into extra frames as the Braves prevailed in 10, 6-2. Javy Lopez provided the finishing touches with a three-run home run in the 10th. Back in Atlanta, Greg Maddux held the Reds to one run over eight innings on the way to a 5-2 victory in Game 3. Rookie sensation Chipper Jones went 3-for-4 with a home run and two RBI, and catcher Charlie O'Brien also added a three-run homer. Starting pitcher Steve Avery nailed down the sweep in Game 4 by leading the Braves to a 6-0 shutout. Avery became the first pitcher in NLCS annals to start three shutouts (also Games 3 and 6 in 1991). Devereaux, forced into the starting lineup after an ailing knee sidelined right fielder David Justice, hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning.

1996 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, St. Louis 3

The Braves added another chapter to their postseason saga by becoming the first NL team to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the LCS, as they crushed the Cardinals 32-1 over the final three games. Game 1 saw Javy Lopez break a tie in the eighth with a bases-loaded, two-run single, giving the Braves a 4-2 win behind John Smoltz. Chipper Jones led the attack by going 4-for-4, and Mark Wohlers recorded his fourth save in four appearances in the '96 postseason. The momentum in the series shifted in Game 2 when Gary Gaetti's seventh-inning grand slam off Greg Maddux turned a 4-3 Cards' lead into an 8-3 victory. In Game 3, Ron Gant homered twice to account for all the Cards' runs in a 3-2 win. Atlanta seemed to be in control in Game 4, leading 3-0 behind Denny Neagle with two outs and no one on in the St. Louis seventh, but the Redbirds fought back to tie the score, then claimed the lead for good in the eighth on a solo shot by Brian Jordan. With their backs to the wall in Game 5, the Braves struck for five first-inning runs in a 14-0 win, sending the series back to Atlanta. Lopez went 4-for-5 with two doubles and a homer, while Mark Lemke added four hits and Fred McGriff homered in the club's LCS-record 22-hit attack. In Game 6, Maddux blanked the Cardinals through seven innings en route to a 3-1 win. Mark Wohlers' eighth-inning wild pitch accounted for the only Cardinals run in the last three games. In Game 7 the outcome was never in doubt after the Braves scored six in the first, capped by Tom Glavine's three-run triple past a diving Gant. The 15-0 rout broke the Braves' own LCS record for runs in a game and sent Atlanta to its fourth World Series in the last five played. Lopez won MVP honors, batting .542 (13-for-24) with five doubles, two HRs and six RBI.

1997 League Championship Series - Florida 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves, appearing in a record sixth straight LCS, were denied their third straight World Series berth when the Florida Marlins upended Atlanta in six games. Atlanta lost the series despite outhitting Florida .253 to .199. Greg Maddux, who allowed only one unearned run all season, took the loss in Game 1 when the Marlins reached him for five runs, all unearned, in a 5-3 loss. Tom Glavine combined with Mike Cather and Mark Wohlers to hold the Marlins to three hits in a 7-1 victory in Game 2, as Ryan Klesko and Chipper Jones both homered to lead the Braves' 13-hit attack. With the series shifting to Miami, the Marlins took a two-games-to-one advantage with a 5-2 triumph in Game 3, as Charles Johnson broke a 2-2 tie with a three-run double off John Smoltz in the sixth inning. Game 4 saw Denny Neagle blank the Marlins on four hits, 4-0, enabling the Braves to even the series 2-2. Combined with his 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in Game 1, Neagle pitched 12.0 innings of shutout ball in the NLCS, allowing only five hits. Livan Hernandez gave the Marlins the upper hand with a complete-game, 2-1 victory in Game 5, allowing only three hits and notching a NLCS-record 15 strikeouts. The Marlins won the pennant when the series returned to Atlanta by taking a 7-4 decision in Game 6, sparked by a four-run first inning against Glavine. Keith Lockhart led the Braves by hitting .500 (8-for-16).

1998 League Championship Series - San Diego 4, Atlanta 2

Atlanta fought back from a three-games-to-none deficit, but fell short of an unprecedented comeback as the Padres prevailed in six games. The Braves entered the bottom of the ninth of Game 1 trailing 2-1, before tying the game against star closer Trevor Hoffman on Andruw Jones' sacrifice fly. Ken Caminiti responded in the top of the 10th with a solo shot off Kerry Ligtenberg, giving the Padres a 3-2 victory. Kevin Brown gave the Padres a spectacular effort in Game 2, holding the Braves to three singles in a 3-0 triumph, marking the first time since 1969 the Braves had dropped the first two games of an NLCS at home. Atlanta's offense didn't benefit immediately with the change of scenery as the series moved west, with San Diego taking a commanding lead with a 4-1 victory over a Braves squad that had managed only three runs over the first 28 innings of the series. Clutch hitting remained elusive, with the Braves loading the bases three times in Game 3 without managing to score in any of those opportunities. Atlanta appeared to be on the verge of being swept in Game 4 when, trailing 3-2 in the seventh inning, the offense finally awoke with a six-run outburst, with an Andres Galarraga grand slam capping the 8-3 win. The Braves repeated late-inning heroics in the eighth inning of Game 5 when Michael Tucker erased a 4-2 deficit with a three-run homer off Kevin Brown, who was appearing in a rare relief role for the Padres. Atlanta took a three-run lead into the bottom of the ninth, but a two-run homer by Padres' pinch-hitter Greg Myers sliced the margin to a single run. Greg Maddux came out to make his first relief appearance since 1987 and set the Padres down in order to register his first professional save. Upon return of the series to Atlanta, the offense once again went dormant, as LCS MVP Sterling Hitchcock and four relievers stopped the Braves in Game 6 on two hits, 5-0. All the runs crossed the plate in the sixth inning, as Tom Glavine was victimized by three unearned runs. Failure to produce any type of offense at home sealed the Braves' fate, with the team being held to two runs in 28 innings at Turner Field. Padres hurlers held the Braves scoreless over the final 19 frames of the series.

1999 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, New York 2

The Braves clinched their fifth NL pennant of the 1990s with an 11-inning, 10-9 triumph over the Mets in Game 6 in Atlanta. It concluded a thrilling series that first saw Atlanta come within four outs of a four-game sweep and would later see New York draw to within three outs of forcing a seventh game. Game 1 proved to be the only contest not decided by one run, with Greg Maddux (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 2 K) picking up the 4-2 victory and John Rocker recording the save. In Game 2, Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez blasted two-run homers in the bottom of the sixth to turn a 2-0 deficit into a 4-2 lead that the Braves would never relinquish. Kevin Millwood supplied another strong effort (7.1 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 2 ER, 1 BB, 4 K), with Rocker coming on to douse an eighth-inning fire after the Mets posted an unearned run to make the score 4-3. With the tying run on second and one out, Rocker fanned John Olerud and Robin Ventura (sandwiching an intentional walk to Mike Piazza), and gave way in the ninth to John Smoltz, who fired a 1-2-3 frame to notch the save in his first major league relief outing. After the LCS shifted to New York, the Braves scored an unearned run in the first inning of Game 3, and watched Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 7 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 8 K), Mike Remlinger and Rocker make it stand up in a 1-0 victory that gave the Braves a commanding three-game lead in the series. Game 4 saw the Braves carry a 2-1 lead into the bottom of the eighth, but Olerud's two-out, two-run single plated the tying and go-ahead runs, spoiling a superb outing by Smoltz (ND, 7.1 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 7 K). The Mets sent the series back to Atlanta after prevailing in a 15-inning marathon in Game 5, 4-3, which entered the record books as the longest game in terms of time in major league post-season history. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the top of the 15th on a two-out RBI triple by Keith Lockhart, but saw the Mets — who hadn't scored since a two-run homer by Olerud in the first — rally for two runs in the bottom of the frame on a bases-loaded walk to Todd Pratt and a Ventura drive over the right field fence that was ruled an RBI single when he left the basepaths. It appeared as if the Braves had finally put the Mets away with a five-run first inning when the series returned to Atlanta for Game 6, but New York battled back to knot the score at 7-7 on a two-run Piazza blast in the seventh off reliever Smoltz, and took the lead in the top of the eighth on a Melvin Mora pinch-hit RBI single. A Brian Hunter run-scoring single in the bottom of the inning tied the score again at 8-8. The contest carried into extra innings, with Todd Pratt's sacrifice fly in the 10th putting the Mets within three outs of a seventh game. Ozzie Guillen responded in the bottom of the 10th with an RBI single off Armando Benitez, against whom the Braves were 1-for-30 all year before the 10th-inning rally, making it a 9-9 contest. The Braves finally settled the issue in the bottom of the 11th when Andruw Jones worked a bases-loaded walk off reliever Kenny Rogers, sending Atlanta to its fifth World Series of the 1990s. Eddie Perez earned MVP honors after batting .500 (10-for-20) with two homers and five RBI.

2001 League Championship Series - Arizona 4, Atlanta 1

The Braves, appearing in their record 11th NLCS, were unable to solve the Diamondbacks' vaunted one-two tandem of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling, as Arizona captured its first pennant in a 4-1 series victory. The Braves managed only three hits in a 2-0 Johnson shutout in the opener at Phoenix, but did salvage a split of the first two road games as Javy Lopez's two-run homer in the seventh snapped a 1-1 tie, with Atlanta going on to an 8-1 win in Game 2. Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 2 K) notched the Braves only win of the series. Schilling turned in a dominating effort in the Diamondbacks' 5-1 victory in Game 3 in Atlanta, limiting the Braves to four hits in a complete game effort, while striking out 12. The Braves took a 2-0 lead through two innings as they attempted to even the series in Game 4, but three Atlanta errors aided a four-run D-Back third, giving them a lead they never relinquished in an 11-4 win and a commanding three-games-to-one lead in the series. The Braves committed four miscues overall, leading to six unearned Arizona runs. Arizona completed the three-game sweep in Atlanta and advanced to the World Series with a 3-2 triumph in Game 5, with the D-Backs again capitalizing on a Braves error to tally two unearned runs in the fifth inning that proved to be decisive. While not as effective as in his Game 1 shutout, Johnson still held the Braves to two runs over seven innings, giving him a 1.13 ERA in two starts in the series (16.0 IP, 2 ER, 19 K).

Braves In The Division Series

1995 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Colorado 1

In the first year of the expanded-playoff format, the Braves drew wild-card entry Colorado in the best-of-five-series. The series opened at Coors Field in dramatic fashion as the Braves won 5-4. Rookie Chipper Jones swatted his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to give the Braves the lead, and Alejandro Pena and Mark Wohlers held it after the Rockies loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with one out. Atlanta staged another rally in Game 2, prevailing 7-4, after trailing 4-3 in the ninth. Marquis Grissom hit two homers in the contest, his second and third of the series. In Atlanta, the Rockies avoided the sweep by hammering two homers and nine hits on the way to a 7-5 win in Game 3. Greg Maddux, Grissom and Fred McGriff led the Braves to a 10-4 victory in Game 4, sending the team to its third straight NLCS appearance. Grissom collected five hits in the finale, setting a franchise record for postseason hits in a game. Fred McGriff hit two homers in the contest.

1996 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Los Angeles 0

Despite hitting only .180 and being held to 10 runs, the Braves swept the Dodgers in three games, as the staff allowed only three earned runs in 28.0 IP (0.96 ERA). Game 1 in L.A. saw the Braves continue their tradition of one-run postseason games, as Javy Lopez's 10th-inning homer lifted the team to a 2-1 victory. John Smoltz earned the win, while Mark Wohlers pitched a scoreless 10th inning for the save. In Game 2, Fred McGriff's lead-off HR in the seventh tied the game at 2-2 and, one out later, Jermaine Dye hit another roundtripper to account for the games' final run. Greg Maddux allowed only two unearned runs in 7.0 IP to earn the win, and Wohlers recorded his second save in two games, as the Braves headed back to Atlanta with a two-games-to-none lead. Atlanta completed the sweep as Tom Glavine and Chipper Jones (two-run homer) led the Braves to a 5-2 triumph. Jones' blast followed a two-run double by Mark Lemke, capped a four-run fourth inning, and knocked out Dodgers starter Hideo Nomo.

1997 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves registered their second consecutive Division Series sweep, taking three straight from the Astros. Atlanta never trailed in the series, outscoring Houston, 19-5. Game 1 saw a vintage performance by Greg Maddux in a 2-1 victory, the decisive run coming on a homer by Ryan Klesko in the second inning. The Braves cruised to an easy 13-5 win in Game 2, as the offense broke a 3-3 tie with three runs in the fifth and five more in the sixth. In addition to collecting 10 hits in the contest, the Braves also received 10 walks, including eight issued by starter Mike Hampton. The Braves applied the knockout blow to the Astros in Game 3 at Houston, as John Smoltz went the distance in a dominating three-hitter, taking a 4-1 decision. Braves starters Maddux, Glavine and Smoltz combined for a 1.87 series ERA (3 ER in 24.0 IP).

1998 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Chicago 0

For the third straight season, the Braves recorded a sweep in the Division Series, this time over the Cubs. Dating back to the final game of the 1995 first-round series vs. the Rockies, the Braves had posted 10 straight wins in Division Series competition. Michael Tucker's two-run homer proved to be all the support needed by John Smoltz in Game 1, as the Braves cruised to a 7-1 victory. Ryan Klesko's seventh-inning grand slam accounted for Atlanta's final four tallies. Game 2 featured a classic pitching duel between Tom Glavine and Kevin Tapani, with the Cubs clinging to a 1-0 lead entering the bottom of the ninth. Javy Lopez then blasted a one-out homer, sending the contest into extra innings. In the bottom of the 10th, Chipper Jones delivered a one-out single to plate the winning run and send the Braves to Chicago with a 2-0 series lead. Former Cub Greg Maddux and rookie phenom Kerry Wood faced off in Game 3. Maddux, who led off the third with a double and came around to score on a passed ball, clung to a 1-0 lead through seven innings.

The Braves put the game out of reach with a five-run eighth, highlighted by an Eddie Perez grand slam. The Cubs touched Maddux for two runs in the eighth, but Kerry Ligtenberg pitched two scoreless innings and sent the Braves to their record seventh straight NLCS.

1999 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 1

The Braves rebounded from a 6-1 loss in Game 1 to take three straight from the Astros and advance to their record eighth straight NLCS. Atlanta's offense managed only one run on seven hits in the opener in Atlanta, with Greg Maddux absorbing the defeat. Kevin Millwood stepped up in Game 2 and turned in a masterpiece, hurling the fifth one-hitter in postseason history as the Braves evened the series with a 5-1 victory. Millwood allowed only a second-inning homer to Ken Caminiti. Eddie Perez plated the go-ahead run with a sixth-inning sacrifice fly. The series shifted to Houston, where the two clubs put on an extra-inning postseason classic in Game 3. Atlanta escaped with a 5-3 victory as Brian Jordan supplied all five runs, courtesy of a three-run, sixth-inning homer (erasing a 2-0 deficit), followed by a two-run double in the 12th. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the 10th, the Astros loaded the bases with no one out, only to see John Rocker come in and slam the door, with stellar support from shortstop Walt Weiss. Weiss saved the Braves with a diving stop of a one-out Tony Eusebio liner up the middle, which resulted in a force at home, followed by a Rocker strikeout of Ricky Guterrez to end the frame. After Jordan's go-ahead double in the 12th, Kevin Millwood was brought in from the bullpen and registered the save with a 1-2-3 inning. Braves appeared to have the series sewed up thanks to a five-run sixth in Game 4, giving Atlanta a 7-0 lead, only to see Houston storm back to narrow the Braves' lead to 7-5 in the eighth, with Caminiti striking the big blow with a three-run homer. A leadoff walk to Stan Javier in the bottom of the ninth again brought the tying run to the plate, but Rocker fanned Jeff Bagwell and Carl Everett, before Andruw Jones ran down a Caminiti blast to the warning track to end the series.

2000 Division Series - St. Louis 3, Atlanta 0

The Cardinals jumped on Braves' starters Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine and Kevin Millwood and cruised to a three-game sweep of the Braves, who had won five straight Division Series entering this one. The Redbirds set the tone for the series in the bottom of the first of Game 1, striking for six runs off Maddux, although a Chipper Jones error accounted for two of those tallies being unearned. Cardinals starter Rick Ankiel's bout of wildness (four walks, five wild pitches) contributed to the Braves' four-run rally in the third inning, narrowing the deficit to 6-4. Four Cardinal relievers held the Braves in check thereafter, however, allowing only a ninth-inning run as St. Louis claimed a 7-5 victory. In Game 2, the Braves scored two runs in the top of the first, but Will Clark's three-run homer in the bottom of the frame quickly erased the Braves' only lead of the series. Tom Glavine was tagged for seven earned runs in 2.1 IP, the second-shortest postseason outing of his career as the Cardinals took a 10-4 decision. The change of venue didn't help the Braves, as Fernando Vina opened Game 3 in Atlanta with a leadoff homer off Kevin Millwood and the Cardinals went on to complete a sweep of the series with a 7-1 victory.

2001 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves, appearing in the Division Series for the seventh straight year, took three in a row from the Astros to advance to their record 11th NLCS. Atlanta's pitching was dominant in the sweep, with the staff compiling a 1.67 ERA. Greg Maddux kept the Astros at bay in hitter-friendly Enron Field in Game 1, only to see Houston maintain a 3-2 lead heading into the eighth inning. Keith Lockhart's leadoff pinch-hit double was followed by a Marcus Giles single to even the score at 3-3, and two batters later, Chipper Jones deposited Astros closer Billy Wagner's first pitch into the left field seats for the decisive three-run homer in an eventual 7-4 win. Tom Glavine starred in Game 2, blanking the Astros over 8.0 innings and making an unearned Braves run in the second inning stand up for a 1-0 win, with John Smoltz recording the save. Home runs by Paul Bako and Julio Franco provided Atlanta with three runs over the first three innings and John Burkett teamed with four relievers to shut down Houston's high-powered offense en route to a 6-2 victory in Game 3. Chipper Jones finished the series with a .444 average, including two homers and five RBI, while Andruw Jones went 6-for-12 with a solo home run.

2002 Division Series - San Francisco 3, Atlanta 2

The Braves took a two-games-to-one lead in their record eighth straight Division Series, only to see the Giants rebound to capture the final two contests and the series. Atlanta faced an 8-2 deficit in Game 1, and after a three-run rally in the bottom of the seventh, went on to bring the tying run to the plate with two men aboard and no outs in the ninth. Giants closer Robb Nen, however, squelched the uprising by retiring Julio Franco on a liner to right and inducing a game-ending double play from Gary Sheffield. In Game 2, back-to-back homers by Javy Lopez and Vinny Castilla sparked a three-run second inning, and Kevin Millwood combined with three relievers to make the lead stand up for a 7-3 Braves win, evening the NLDS at a game apiece. The series moved to San Francisco for Game 3, in which the Braves snapped a 1-1 tie with a five-run sixth, courtesy of a bases-loaded single by Vinny Castilla, and a three-run homer on the next pitch by Keith Lockhart en route to a 10-2 win. Needing one more win to clinch the series, the Braves sent Tom Glavine to the mound in Game 4, but the Giants tagged Glavine for the second time in the series, sending the series to a fifth and final game in Atlanta. A second-inning solo homer by former Brave Reggie Sanders and a fourth-inning blast by Barry Bonds proved to be decisive, as Russ Ortiz and four Giants relievers stymied the Braves offense in a 3-1 clincher. Atlanta put runners on first and third in the bottom of the ninth with no outs against Nen, but saw him escape by fanning Sheffield and inducing Chipper Jones to hit into a game-ending double play.

2003 Division Series - Chicago 3, Atlanta 2

The Braves, in their ninth straight Division Series, matched up with the Chicago Cubs in a back-and-forth five-game series that ended with the Cubs taking Game 5 at Turner Field to send them to the NLCS. Chicago's pitching tandem of Kerry Wood and Mark Prior were the story. In Game 1, Wood took over. In addition to a dominating performance on the mound, Wood broke the game open with his two-run sixth-inning double to lead the Cubs to a 4-2 win in front of 52,043 in Atlanta. Russ Ortiz struggled, especially in the sixth when Moises Alou, Aramis Ramirez and Eric Karros led off with three straight singles. Robert Fick then bobbled a potential double play ball off the bat of Paul Bako, allowing Alou to score and setting the stage for Wood. The Braves scored first in the third inning on a Marcus Giles two-out homer and in the eighth on a Chipper Jones' ground out. The Braves rebounded to take Game 2, 5-3, on Mark DeRosa's eighth-inning two-out, two-run double off Dave Veres after John Smoltz allowed a rare run in the top of the inning that tied the game at 3-3. DeRosa was in the lineup after Giles suffered a severely bruised left quadriceps in Game 1. Giles still contributed when he limped off the bench and delivered a pinch-hit, two-out single in the sixth inning that scored Javy Lopez and gave the Braves a 3-2 lead after they had fallen behind, 2-0, in the top of the first. After walking the first two batters of the game and giving up a two-run Sammy Sosa double off the top of the center-field wall, Atlanta starter Mike Hampton battled out of a no-out, bases-loaded jam by striking out three straight Cubs to end the inning. He fanned all three batters in the second inning to match a postseason record of six consecutive strikeouts. Carlos Zambrano started for Chicago and allowed 11 hits, all singles, including a two-run single to Andruw Jones in the fourth inning that tied the score at 2-2. As the teams moved to an electric Wrigley Field for Game 3, the Cubs once again took the series lead with a 3-1 victory. Mark Prior battled in a classic pitchers' duel with Greg Maddux. The only Chicago runs came on a Randall Simon two-out, first-inning single off Maddux that scored Kenny Lofton and Mark Grudzielanek. The Braves' only run came on a Giles sacrifice fly scoring Mark DeRosa in the eighth inning. Game 4 was the first true glimpse of the Braves offense that was on display most of the regular season. Chipper Jones hit two-run homers from each side of the plate as part of Atlanta's 12-hit attack. It was Chipper's first two-homer playoff game since his postseason debut in Game 1 of the 1995 Division Series. The first of his two home runs came from the left side off Chicago starter Matt Clement in the fifth inning and the second came in the eighth inning off lefty Mark Guthrie, giving Atlanta a 6-2 lead. Ortiz, coming off three days of rest, held the Cubs to two earned runs on seven hits over five innings. Eric Karros was the hitting star for the Cubs, launching two solo home runs, one in the sixth inning and one in the eighth inning. Sosa almost tied the game in the bottom of the ninth, but his drive off John Smoltz fell into Andruw Jones' glove on the warning track. Game 5 showed just why the Cubs would be moving on. For the second time in the series, Wood turned in a dominating performance (8.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 7 K), shutting down the Braves for a 5-1 Chicago clincher in front of 53,775 fans at Turner Field. During the NLDS, Wood allowed just seven hits over 14.1 IP against the NL's best regular-season offense. The lone Atlanta run came on a controversial play in the sixth inning. Rafael Furcal raced home from second base on a ball hit by Sheffield, who returned after missing Game 4 with a bruised hand suffered in Game 3, that appeared to be caught by a sliding Kenny Lofton in center field. It was ruled a hit. Hampton, pitching on three days of rest, endured a 30-pitch first inning, allowing just one run on a Moises Alou broken-bat RBI single. Alex Gonzalez led off the second inning with a homer to center and Aramis Ramirez hit a two-run home run in the sixth inning to give Wood all the support he would need.

2004 Division Series - Houston 3, Atlanta 2

In their record 10th straight Division Series, the Braves met up with the Houston Astros for the fourth time in the opening round but for the first time failed to take the series. The series was filled with big hits and key pitching, but in the end Houston's big bats proved to be too much. Game 1 saw the Astros pound out four home runs, leading to a four-run third inning and a three-run fifth inning in a 9-3 win. The run support was more than needed for Roger Clemens. The Braves had chances to break the game open early against Clemens, but he escaped jams in each of the first four innings. Jaret Wright started for Atlanta and allowed a career-high three homers in 4.1 innings of work. Andruw Jones provided a highlight with his eighth career postseason home run off Clemens in the fifth inning. The Braves evened the series in dramatic fashion, taking Game 2, 4-2. Trailing 2-0 entering the seventh inning the Braves scored on a Rafael Furcal single in the seventh and added one in the eighth on Adam LaRoche's double to tie the game. John Smoltz went 3.0 strong innings starting in the eighth, just the second time as a reliever he had gone that many innings. He also added a single in the ninth—his 12th career postseason hit, a record for pitchers. The game remained tied 2-2 until the bottom of the 11th inning when Rafael Furcal hit a game-winning, two-run homer off Dan Miceli to give Atlanta a 4-2 win. Roy Oswalt started for Houston, allowing just one earned run on eight hits over 6.1 IP. Mike Hampton started for the Braves and gave up just two earned runs on four hits before leaving in the seventh inning with tightness in his left forearm. The Braves bullpen combined to go 4.2 scoreless innings. The series shifted to Houston for Game 3 and saw the Astros go up a game with an 8-5 win. Braves starter John Thomson was forced to leave after four pitches when he left with a re-injured left oblique muscle. Paul Byrd made his first career postseason appearance in relief and allowed four earned runs on seven hits in 4.1 IP, the big blow coming on Carlos Beltran's two-run, third-inning home run. The Astros stretched the lead to 7-2 on Morgan Ensberg's sixth-inning, two-run double off Tom Martin. Brandon Backe allowed two runs over 6.0 IP, his only mistake coming on Johnny Estrada's fourth-inning homer. Andruw Jones hit his second homer of the series, a three-run shot off Russ Springer in the eighth. Game 4 was an example of the season-long resolve the Braves displayed. Facing Roger Clemens (5.0 IP, 2 ER) for the second time in the series, the Braves rallied from a three-run deficit entering the sixth inning to win 6-5. Atlanta jumped out 2-0 in the second on an Andruw Jones RBI single and an Adam LaRoche RBI groundout. The Astros came back with five runs in the bottom of that inning, highlighted by a three-run homer by Craig Biggio. The Braves tied the game in the sixth on LaRoche's first career postseason homer, a three-run shot off Chad Qualls. The game turned in to a battle of the bullpens after Russ Ortiz left (3.0 IP, 7 H 5 ER), but the Braves pen took charge. Over the last 6.0 innings, they allowed six hits and no runs. The game-winner came in the top of the ninth inning after Rafael Furcal was hit by a Russ Springer pitch with two outs. Furcal then stole his second base of the day and came around to score on J.D. Drew's RBI single. John Smoltz picked up the win by going the final 2.0 innings and getting Jeff Kent to ground into the Astros third double play of the game to end it in the ninth. The series returned to Atlanta for the deciding Game 5 and the Houston bats certainly showed up. The Astros pounded out 17 hits and scored 12 runs in a 12-3 rout. The game was 3-2 entering the sixth inning, but the Astros added one in the sixth, five in the seventh and three in the eighth to pull away. Roy Oswalt picked up the win on short rest, going 5.0 IP and giving up two earned runs. Houston scored a NLDS-record 36 runs in the series and hit an NLDS-record 11 home runs. Carlos Beltran was the series star hitting .429, and he went 4-for-5 with two home runs and five RBI in Game 5. Jaret Wright got the call for Atlanta but gave up four runs in 5.1 IP. Chipper Jones went 2-for-5, but wound up without an RBI in the series. Rafael Furcal had another strong game with his second homer of the series and two more hits, pushing him to .381 (8-for-21) for the NLDS. Andruw Jones hit .526 (10-for-19) in the series.

2005 Division Series - Houston 3, Atlanta 1

Extending their Division Series streak to a record 11 consecutive appearances, the Braves took on the Wild Card winner Houston Astros. Both teams featured a slew of youngsters that would play prominent roles in the series - the final play of the classic fourth game would feature a rookie from both squads - but the Astros would ride good old fashion pitching from their aces and overachieving offense from a normally dormant lineup to defeat the Braves for the second consecutive season in the Division Series. Houston's Morgan Ensberg put on a Game 1 clinic, tying an Astros record with five RBI and helping his squad to a 10-5 win in the opener. The game, which was to feature the pitching duel between Tim Hudson and Andy Pettitte, turned into a slugfest in which the pitching pair combined to allow eight runs. Reliever Chris Reitsma allowed four earned runs and recorded just one out in the eighth inning, helping Houston to a win that tied starter Andy Pettitte with John Smoltz for the most wins in postseason history (14). Smoltz took back his title as the postseason's winningest pitcher in Game 2, hurling seven innings of one-run ball for his 15th playoff win. Houston's 1-0 lead in the first inning was short-lived, as the Braves scored three runs in the second and two more in the third en route to a 7-1 win. Rookie backstop Brian McCann scalded a three-run homer off Roger Clemens in his first career postseason at-bat to put the Braves up 3-1 - a lead from which they would never look back. Andruw Jones went 3-for-4 and Adam LaRoche doubled in a pair of runs, while the bullpen was solid. The Astros went with 20-game winner Roy Oswalt against Jorge Sosa (making his first career postseason appearance) for Game 3, a 7-3 Astros victory that unraveled for the Braves in one inning. While the two starters had similar lines - both allowed three runs and walked two - it was a dreadful seventh inning that led to the Braves demise. With Sosa pulled, Reitsma continued his rough Division Series showing by allowing Craig Biggio's third double of the game followed by an infield single to speedster Willy Taveras. Reitsma gave way to lefty John Foster, but slugger Lance Berkman nailed Foster's first pitch for a home run, and youngster Joey Devine finished the job by allowing a run of his own - all of this without the Braves registering an out. The loss spoiled the second consecutive three-hit night for Braves home run king Andruw Jones, who raised his average to .636 in the series. On just three days' rest, the Braves sent Tim Hudson to the mound against Brandon Backe in a Game 4 that would become a classic. It looked like nothing but a Braves steamroll early on as Adam LaRoche continued his tear, bombing a grand slam in the fourth followed by an Andruw Jones sacrifice fly that chased the Astros' starter. Hudson left with a 5-1 lead, and when McCann hit his second homer of the series to put Atlanta up 6-1, it seemed wrapped up. But when the normally reliable Kyle Farnsworth came in to close out the game in the eighth inning, he allowed a grand slam to Lance Berkman and a two-out, solo homer to light-hitting Astros catcher Brad Ausmus in the bottom of the ninth to tie the game at 6-6. The two teams went on to essentially play another entire game, with both pitching staffs combining for eight innings of scoreless ball that saw the Braves miss opportunities with runners in scoring position five times, including loading the bases with one out in the 14th inning. In the bottom of the 18th, Houston rookie Chris Burke drove Devine's pitch over the left-field wall for a game-ending solo homer that gave the Astros their second consecutive Division Series win against the Braves. The series loss wasn't without some highlights for the Braves, who continued their excellent fielding from the regular season and committed no errors in the four-game set. Adam LaRoche went 4-for-8 (.500) with six RBI in the series and Andruw Jones went 8-for-17 (.471) with three doubles and five RBI.

The greatest home run hitter of all time, Hank Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron re-wrote baseball's record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856); and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime (755). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), third in runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), games (3,298) and hits (3,771), 10th in doubles (624), 12th in singles (2,294) and is tied for 14th in years of service (23). His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration. On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later. Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award. He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972. During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves. Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959. Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83. Since December of 1989, he has served as Braves' Senior Vice President. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

THIRD BASE

41

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1978, Eddie Mathews was the only player in franchise history to play for the Braves on the Major League level in Boston, Milwaukee, and Atlanta. He was signed in 1949 by Johnny Moore at the age of 17 and by the age of 20 became the Braves' regular third baseman. During his Hall of Fame career spanning 17 years, Mathews appeared in three World Series, was a nine-time National League All-Star, and led the majors in home runs in 1953 (47) and '59 (46). He twice finished second in the National League MVP voting, in 1953 to Roy Campanella and in 1959 to Ernie Banks. Mathews averaged slightly over 30 home runs per season during his career, and 14 times he hit 20 home runs or more. Ten times he hit 30 or more, and four times he hit 40 or more. His franchise records include: most RBI in a season since 1900 (135 in 1953), tied for most consecutive games with an RBI (8 in 1954), most career walks (1,444), most home runs on the road (30 in 1953), and tied with Hank Aaron for most home runs in a season with 47. In 1967 the Braves traded Mathews to Houston, where he reached the 500 home run level. He was subsequently traded to the Detroit Tigers late in the year to help with the pennant chase and appeared in his third World Series. Eddie finished his playing career with Detroit in 1968. Mathews returned to Atlanta in 1971 as a coach under Luman Harris and replaced him as manager in 1972. Eddie managed into the 1974 season, accumulating a record of 149-161-1 in 311 games for a .481 winning percentage. In his only full season as manager in 1973, the Braves placed fifth with a record of 76-85-1. Eddie was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

Murphy was the Braves' No. 1 (and fifth overall) draft pick in 1974. Originally signed as a catcher, he was moved to the outfield by Bobby Cox in 1980. The move helped, as Murphy averaged just under 30 HRs and just under 90 RBIs from 1980 to 1990. During those 11 years, Murphy won back-to-back league MVP awards in 1982 and 1983, appeared in seven All-Star games (leading all players in votes in 1985), won five Gold Gloves, and appeared in 740 consecutive games from September 26, 1981 through July 8, 1986. Murphy's 15-year career with the Braves came to an end on August 4, 1990, when he was traded to Philadelphia. The Braves received Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher, and Victor Rosario for Murphy and Tommy Greene. Murphy played in only 18 games with Philadelphia in 1992 due to knee problems and appeared in 26 games for the Colorado Rockies in 1993 before retiring. Murphy holds 13 Atlanta franchise records including most home runs (371), RBI (1,143), hits (1,901), runs (1,103), and games (1,926). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2000.

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997, Phil Niekro was signed as a free agent in 1958, but didn't see his first major league action until 1964 in Milwaukee, starting out as a reliever. He saw limited playing time until 1967, when he became a permanent fixture on the roster through 1983. Niekro had 14 straight years with 10 or more wins until the strike shortened season of 1981. He posted three 20-plus win seasons with the Braves, with a career-high 23 in 1969, and logged over 300 innings four times, with a career high of 342 innings in 1979. From 1974 to 1980, he led the league in innings four times and was never out of the top five. In '73 he pitched a no-hitter to beat San Diego, 9-0, on August 5th at Atlanta Stadium. He became the oldest pitcher (46) to record a shutout with a four-hit, 8-0 victory on October 6, 1985, against Toronto as a Yankee. During his 24-year career, Niekro made five All-Star appearances, four as a Brave, won five Gold Gloves, and won 318 games, placing him 14th all-time. He is fifth all-time in innings pitched and eighth all-time in strikeouts. Niekro holds or shares 14 Atlanta career pitching records including: most games (689), complete games (226), innings pitched (4,533), games won (266), most strikeouts (2,855), most shutouts (43), and most hits (4,136). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

WARREN SPAHN

FULL NAME: Warren Edward Spahn
BATTED: Left THREW: Left
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 175
BORN: 4/23/1921 in Buffalo, New York
DIED: 11/24/2003 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1942, 1946-64
NUMBER RETIRED: 1965

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1973, Warren Spahn signed his first contract out of high school with the Braves for $150. He debuted for the Braves in 1942 and after ending the season in the minors, enlisted in the Army. Spahn returned to the Braves in 1946 and began to pitch his way into the record books, becoming the winningest left-hander in baseball history and fifth all-time with 363 total victories. He is also sixth all-time in shutouts and eighth all-time in innings pitched. Spahn won the Cy Young Award in 1957 while leading the league in victories and complete games. He was the Cy Young runner-up three times: in 1958, 1960, and 1961. Spahn posted 20 or more wins a National League-record 13 times. Eight of those years he led the league in wins. He was an N.L. All-Star 14 times, led the league three times in ERA, nine times in complete games, four times in innings pitched, four times in strikeouts, and four times in shutouts. Spahn's eight seasons leading the league in wins and nine seasons leading in complete games are both major league records. His streaks of five consecutive seasons (1957-61) leading the league in wins along with seven consecutive years (1957-63) leading in complete games are both major league records. Spahn threw two no-hitters in his career. His first was on September 16, 1960, at the age of 39, against Philadelphia. He allowed only two base runners in the 4-0 victory. The second no-hitter was a 1-0 victory over San Francisco on April 28, 1961. Spahn holds or shares nine franchise records including: most games started (635), complete games (374), innings pitched (5,046), games won (356), 20-win seasons (13), and shutouts (63). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium (1966-96)

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The first regular-season game was played April 12, 1966, vs. Pittsburgh, and the final regular-season contest was played September 23, 1996, vs. Montreal. The final game took place on October 24, 1996, when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in Game 5 of the World Series. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' to the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' and the ballpark had a capacity of 52,769 for baseball. The stadium was also used by the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and was used as the baseball venue for the 1996 Olympic Games.

Turner Field (Opened 1997)

Grand Opening – April 4, 1997. Braves defeated the Chicago Cubs, 5-4.

History – The 1996 Olympic Stadium, built just south of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility between September, 1996, and April, 1997. AFC Stadium was imploded in August 1997 and the site is now a parking lot.

Location – Between Ralph David Abernathy on the north, Hank Aaron Drive on the east, Bill Lucas Drive on the south and Pollard Blvd. on the west. It's very near the junction of I-75/85 and I-20.

Seating – Official capacity for Turner Field is 49,583. Three levels supported by four concourses. A cross-aisle walkway divides the lower concourse. Field level and dugout seats are below the cross-aisle, the terrace level above it. The second level, the Lexus Level, includes 58 private suites, three party suites and the 755 Club, the ballpark's private membership club. The third, or upper level does not go all the way around the park, thus providing fans a view of the downtown Atlanta skyline.

Playing Field – Prescription Athletic Turf, featuring a state-of-the-art mechanical drainage system and hybrid Bermuda grass. The turf for the playing field is grown in an area below the scoreboard beyond the center field wall.

Field Dimensions – The stadium dimensions are 335' down the leftfield line, 400' to center field, 330' down the rightfield line, 380' to the leftfield power alley and 390' to the rightfield power alley.

Entry Plaza – The main entry to Turner Field, it was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track and field complex of the Olympic Stadium were removed. The plaza features statues of Hank Aaron, Phil Niekro and Ty Cobb, monuments of the Braves' retired numbers, a huge video screen that shows the Braves game, a video wall broadcasting every other major league game in progress, photo kiosks, a Kids Zone, a retail store and a variety of concession stands.

Scouts Alley – Located just off the Entry Plaza, it contains life-size visuals of notable Braves and their original scouting reports, interactive skills and educational activities for youth and the Braves Museum and Hall of Fame, a project of the Atlanta History Center and the Braves.

Coca-Cola Sky Field – Coca-Cola Sky Field is a 23,000 square-foot baseball-themed attraction located above the leftfield club level at Turner Field. The distance is estimated at 435 feet from home plate and 80 feet above the field. A ball has yet to reach Sky Field during a regulation Braves' game.

Parking – 8,500 official spaces. The lot on the site of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium contains an outline of the playing field, including markers for home plate, the bases and the location of Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th home run.

Scoreboard and Sound System – Turner Field features the largest high-definition video display in the world. The Mitsubishi Diamond Vision, installed in 2005, measures 71', 4" by 78', 8" and integrates live video, scoring information and animations onto a single full-color screen to display game content in vivid detail. Also installed in 2005, a Daktronics LED fascia video display wraps around Turner Field between the Terrace and Lexus levels. The 1,085' by 42" display interacts with the massive high-definition board, but also features its own video, graphics, animation, game information and advertising. Turner Field also employs ScorePAD Sports, Inc's state-of-the-art STADIUMnet baseball scoring system. This system provides a wide variety of in-game, season, and career information on each baseball player in the game. The speakers in each seating section are independently controlled.

Disabled Seating – The entire ballpark is wheelchair accessible and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act. More than one percent of the seating capacity is allocated for disabled seating.

2007 Miscellaneous Information

2007 Braves Public Relations Staff

Brad Hainje ♦ Director of Media Relations

Brad Hainje is in his fourth season with the Braves. Prior to joining the Atlanta front office in February 2004, he spent the previous six seasons (1998-2003) in the St. Louis Cardinals Media Relations Department.

Hainje is responsible for handling the Club's daily media requests, including player interviews, press credentials and press box operations. He also oversees the writing, editing and distributing of the team's annual media guide, daily game notes and all baseball-related press releases.

Hainje, 37, spent two years (1993-95) as a Sports Information Assistant at his alma mater, Purdue University, and three years (1995-98) as Assistant Sports Information Director at Southwest Missouri State University. While at Southwest Missouri State, Hainje's publications won several national awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). His 1996, '97 and '98 SMS women's basketball media guides all received Best in the District honors, while the 1996 and '97 guides were named Fifth in the Nation and Best in the Nation, respectively, among all NCAA Division I schools.

Born in Lafayette, Ind., Hainje graduated from Logansport (Ind.) High School. He graduated from Purdue in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in communication. He and his wife Michele have two children, Jack and Grace, and reside in Marietta.

Beth Marshall ♦ Director of Public Relations

Beth Marshall joined the Braves Public Relations Department as a senior advisor in August 2004 and was named Director of Public Relations during the 2005 season. Prior to joining the Braves, she spent more than three years as Director of Corporate Communications for the PBA Tour in Seattle.

Marshall assists in all aspects of Braves communications, primarily focused on community affairs, sales and marketing and business affairs press outreaches.

Marshall has also worked in public relations for the WNBA league office, Planet Hollywood and its sports arm, Official All Star Cafe, Trump Plaza Hotel and Casino and the Philadelphia 76ers. She graduated with a degree in public relations from Harcum College outside of Philadelphia.

A native of Haverford, Pa., Marshall lives in Atlanta.

Andrina "Andy" Pressley ♦ Publications Manager

Andy Pressley is in her 11th season with the Braves and eighth as Publications Manager. After living in Boston, Mass., for five years, Pressley relocated to Atlanta in 1995 and started out working game day hospitality for the Braves. She was hired full time in 1996 and is currently responsible for a variety of print pieces, including pocket schedules, game day programs, yearbooks and ChopTalk. She is also responsible for the team's postseason publications.

Originally from Sacramento, Calif., Pressley graduated from UCLA with a bachelor's degree in history. While at UCLA she dove competitively for the Bruins as a member of the women's swimming and diving team.

Pressley and her husband Bob reside in Marietta.

Adam Liberman ♦ Publicist

Adam Liberman is in his eighth season as a member of the Braves Public Relations Department. He joined the Club as its public relations trainee in 2000 before being named public relations assistant in January 2001 and then publicist in 2004. He is responsible for assisting in the research and editing of the team's regular and postseason media guides, updating team records, statistics and game notes, as well as assisting with press conferences and player interview requests. Liberman is the primary point person for Braves photo requests, photoshoots and for arranging game-action photography.

Prior to joining the Braves, he served as the Communications Director for the Akron Racers of the Women's Pro Softball League in 1999. In 1997, he worked as an intern in the Cleveland Indians' Class-AA Akron Aeros' media relations department.

Liberman is a 1998 graduate with a Bachelor's of Science in Journalism degree from Ohio University, where he was an active member of the sports information department.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Liberman lives in Atlanta.

Meagan Swingle ♦ Publicist

Meagan Swingle is in her seventh year as a member of the Atlanta Braves Public Relations staff. Prior to joining the PR staff in 2001, Swingle worked as a trainee for the Braves Corporate Sales department. She manages communications and media outreach for the Braves business, marketing, and community affairs departments.

Swingle graduated Magna Cum Laude from Clemson University in 1999 with degrees in Communication and Journalism. Prior to joining the Braves, she worked as a publicity intern for Sports Illustrated for Kids in 1999 and as a marketing intern for CNN in 1998.

Swingle is active with the Atlanta Jaycees and the Atlanta Clemson Club, and she also volunteers with the Braves "Tomahawk Tutors" program, mentoring students at D.H. Stanton Elementary in Atlanta.

Born in Port Angeles, Wash., and raised in Jesup, Ga., Swingle currently resides in East Atlanta.

Adrienne Midgley ♦ Administrative Assistant

Adrienne Midgley is in her fourth season with the Braves and her second as Administrative Assistant. She is responsible for coordinating media credentials, assisting in researching and writing the team's media guide and providing administrative support to the director and the department.

Prior to joining the Braves organization as a trainee in 2004, she worked for the Los Angeles Dodgers organization in Vero Beach, Fla., where she was the spring training intern and then continued as the Administrative Assistant with the Single-A Vero Beach Dodgers. Midgley previously worked at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, in 2003 as the Membership Department intern. From 1999 to 2002, she was a member of the Methodist College Sports Information Department.

Originally from Pittsburgh, Pa., Midgley earned her master's degree in sport administration from Georgia State University in Atlanta, and her bachelor's degree in sports management from Methodist College in Fayetteville, NC. She is a member of the "Tomahawk Tutors," mentoring students at D.H. Stanton Elementary school in Atlanta.

Adrienne and her husband Richard reside in Buford.

Media Services

Media Credentials: Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news gathering agencies that have contacted the Media Relations Department at least 24 hours in advance of their assignment. To obtain media credentials, a written request must be made to the Braves' Media Relations Department (P.O. Box 4064, Atlanta, GA 30302) on appropriate letterhead stationery. Please specify the name(s) and function of the individual(s) being sent to cover the game. Identification will be required before credentials can be distributed. Credentials may be picked up at the Media Window located at the Southwest Gate of Turner Field on Bill Lucas Drive. Both the Media Window and Entrance open three hours prior to the game. Credentials are not issued to anyone under 18 years of age. Any party abusing this policy will forfeit their credential and all privileges.

Media Parking: Limited parking for the media is available in the Media Lot. The entrance to the Media Lot is located on the corner of Crew Street and Little Street (Little Street is off of Hank Aaron Drive, one block south of Bill Lucas Drive, directly behind the stadium). For further information, please contact a member of the Public Relations Department.

Media Entrance: The Media Entrance to Turner Field is located at the Southwest Gate, on Bill Lucas Drive near Pollard Boulevard. This is the side of the stadium farthest from downtown Atlanta, nearest the expressway. To obtain admittance to the stadium, members of the media must show one of the following: a Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card or an Atlanta Braves season/daily credential.

Press Box: The Turner Field Press Box is located on the Press Level. A 40-foot walkway leads directly from the Press elevator to the entrance to the Press Box. The Press Box can accommodate 104 individuals. Credit card telephones are located on the tabletops of the Press Box and in the workroom, located directly behind the Press Box. Dining facilities are located in the Press Area. Live shots and still photographs are prohibited from the Press area. Proper credentials are required for admittance.

Clubhouses: Take the Press Elevator to the service level. Walk straight ahead down the corridor, turn left to the main tunnel. The Braves clubhouse entrance is about 150 feet to the right, the Visitors Clubhouse is to the left. Both clubhouses open 3 hours prior to game time and are closed to the media one hour prior to and during the game. Following the game, the clubhouses re-open to the media within 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room and players' lounge are closed to the media at all times. Proper credentials must be displayed to access either clubhouse. Still Photographers are not permitted in the clubhouse without special permission. The clubhouses are limited to credentialed working media only.

Field: Enter the field via the Field Access corridor off the main tunnel between the Braves and Visitors clubhouses. The field and dugout areas must be cleared one hour prior to first pitch. Pre-game broadcast interviews and live shots must be done on the warning track or in the dugout. Post-game live shots can be done from the warning track after the teams have left the field.

Dark Rooms: Reserved dark rooms are located across from the Braves clubhouse, next to the Braves family room, on the service level.

Photo Areas: A limited number of still photographer field level positions is available, subject to team discretion. There are also upper level wells and outfield locations. The Field Access corridor is off the main tunnel between the Braves and Visitors clubhouses. Still photographers are not permitted in the clubhouses without special permission.

Broadcast Booths: Located in the Press Box. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Home TV), Booth 2 (Home Radio), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Visiting Radio), Booth 5 (Reserved), Booth 6 (Reserved), Booth 7 (Reserved). To obtain use of a reserved booth, please contact Sue Vandiver in the Public Relations department.

2007 Braves Radio/TV

The Atlanta Braves, TBS, FSN South, SportsSouth and the Braves Radio Network WGST-AM (640) and WUBL-FM (94.9) will team up in 2007 to bring Braves' fans the best and most comprehensive sports broadcasting in Major League Baseball. TBS, or its predecessor, WTCG, has been carrying Braves games since 1973. TBS reaches more than 90 million homes. FSN South, the largest regional sports network, reaches 11.8 million homes in seven Southeastern states and has broadcast select Braves regular-season and spring training games the past 14 seasons. SportsSouth reaches more than eight million homes across six southern states. WGST-AM (640)/WUBL-FM (94.9), as the Atlanta Braves radio rightsholder, will carry all 162 regular-season games and 12 spring training games. The Braves Radio Network includes approximately 150 affiliates.

Braves Broadcasters

Skip Caray

The 2007 Major League Baseball season marks Skip Caray's 32nd as a play-by-play broadcaster for the Atlanta Braves, tying him with Pete Van Wieren for seniority on the Braves announcing team.

In 2004, Caray was inducted into the Atlanta Braves Hall of Fame, along with Van Wieren. Caray is also the voice of the Braves on WGST-AM (640) and WLKS-FM (96.1) radio. In 2000, Atlanta Mayor Bill Campbell declared July 30th "Skip Caray and Pete Van Wieren Day" in honor of their 25 years of broadcasting Braves games.

Caray was nominated for a 1994 Cable ACE Award in the Sports Play-By-Play category. He joined Turner Broadcasting system, Inc. (TBS) in 1972 as the voice of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and was added to the Braves telecasts in 1976. He was play-by-play announcer for the first two seasons (1990 and 1991) of TNT's Sunday night NFL coverage and served as play-by-play announcer for baseball on TBS' coverage of the 1990 Goodwill Games.

Caray served as the play-by-play announcer for NBC's Major League Baseball Playoff coverage in 2000. Caray came to broadcasting naturally as the son of Harry Caray, the former Chicago Cubs Hall-of-Fame play-by-play announcer. Skip began his broadcasting career at KMOX-Radio in St. Louis, Mo., as host of a 15-minute high school sports show and as a sportscaster for high school basketball games. He later joined his father as a color commentator for University of Missouri football.

He began broadcasting baseball for the Tulsa Oilers of the Southern League in 1963. He also has announced for the Atlanta Crackers in baseball's Southern League and basketball for St. Louis University. He joined the NBA's St. Louis Hawks broadcasting team in 1967, moving to Atlanta with the team the following year.

Caray has called everything from Goodwill Games baseball and motoball to primetime college football and Atlanta Flames hockey.

He has been recognized with six Georgia Sportscaster-of-the Year awards from the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association, as well as a Georgia-area Emmy.

He devotes many hours to volunteer work, serving as a board member of Camp Twin Lakes, a camp for children with special needs and works with the Hemophilia Association.

Born in St. Louis, Caray is a graduate of the University of Missouri, with honors in journalism. Skip and his wife, Paula, live in Atlanta. They have four children: Chip, Cindy, Shayelyn and Josh.

Pete Van Wieren

The 2007 Major League Baseball season marks Pete Van Wieren's 32nd as a play-by-play broadcaster for the Atlanta Braves, tying him with Skip Caray for seniority on the Braves announcing team.

In 2006, Van Wieren won the Georgia Sportscaster of the Year Award from the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association, marking the 10th time he won the honor (1980, 1988-95, 2006). He was dubbed Atlanta's Favorite Sportscaster in 1977 by the Atlanta Journal.

In 2004, he was inducted into the Atlanta Braves Hall of Fame, along with fellow announcer Skip Caray. In 2000, Atlanta Mayor Bill Campbell declared July 30th "Skip Caray and Pete Van Wieren Day" in honor of their 25 years of broadcasting Braves games.

Since joining the Braves network in 1975, he has covered the Atlanta Flames of the National Hockey League, the Hawks and the Atlanta Falcons NFL pre-season football. He also served as a sports reporter for CNN and served as a play-by-play announcer on TBS's Big Ten Conference college football games.

Prior to joining Turner, he began his broadcasting career working as the play-by-play man for the Tidewater Tides of the International League for two years. He has also broadcast hockey, college and professional basketball and college and professional football. He also has been a sportscaster for WDHO-TV, Toledo, Ohio; WBNF-AM/FM/TV and WINR-AM/TV, both in Binghamton, NY; WPRW-AM/FM, Manassas, Va.; and WEER-AM/FM, Warrenton, Va.

Van Wieren, who was born in Rochester, NY, attended Cornell University. He and his wife Elaine live in Alpharetta, Ga. They have two children, Steven and Jon.

Chip Caray

The 2007 season marks Chip Caray's third season as the play-by-play announcer for TBS's Major League Baseball coverage.

Caray served as the play-by-play announcer for seven seasons (1998-2004) for Chicago Cubs games on WGN. His baseball resume also includes one season as the radio play-by-play announcer for Minnesota's Orlando (AA) affiliate in 1990, two years (1991-92) broadcasting the Atlanta Braves and three campaigns (1993-95) with the Seattle Mariners.

Caray spent five years (1996-2000) as a member of the Fox Network's Saturday baseball coverage, including three years as a studio host.

He is the third generation of Carays to serve as a play-by-play announcer, after his father Skip and grandfather Harry, who was the play-by-play voice of the Cubs from 1982 to 1997. A member of the Hall of Fame, Harry spent 53 seasons as a major league broadcaster. On May 13, 1991, the three generations of Carays worked together on a Chicago Cubs/Atlanta Braves game.

Chip's broadcast career also includes nine seasons as the television play-by-play voice of the NBA's Orlando Magic and stints calling both University of Florida and Florida State University football and basketball games for the Sunshine Network.

Caray graduated from the University of Georgia in 1987 and began his career with weekend TV sports anchor stints in Panama City, Fla., and Greensboro, NC.

He and his wife Susan have three children: Summerlyn, Christopher and Stefan.

2007 Braves FOX Sports Net South Broadcasters

Joe Simpson

Joe Simpson is in his 16th season as an Atlanta Braves broadcaster. This year marks his first season calling games on Fox Sports South and SportSouth. Simpson will also call select games on TBS broadcasts.

Simpson played professionally for 11 seasons, beginning in 1973 when he was drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the third round. He joined the Seattle Mariners in 1979 before being traded to the Kansas City Royals in 1983. An outfielder and first baseman throughout his professional career, he retired from the California Angels organization following the 1984 season. He had his best season in 1979, when he hit .283 in 120 games for the Mariners. Simpson worked as an analyst on Seattle Mariners telecasts for five years before joining Turner Sports in 1992. Simpson was named "Georgia Sports Broadcaster of the Year" in 1995.

An All-American outfielder and first baseman at the University of Oklahoma, Simpson was born in Purcell, Oklahoma.

Joe and his wife Kathy live in Marietta, Ga. They have two children, Meg and Gabe.

Jon Sciambi

Jon "Boog" Sciambi is in his first season as an Atlanta Braves broadcaster, calling games on Fox Sports South and SportSouth.

Sciambi joined ESPN in 2005, where he calls Major League Baseball games both on television and radio. He also joined 790 The Ticket as a radio host in South Florida in 2005 and calls select college basketball games for ESPN and ERT.

Prior to joining ESPN and 790 The Ticket, Sciambi served as a radio voice of the Florida Marlins. Teaming up with Dave Van Horne, Sciambi broadcast Marlins games over WQAM. He also was a part-time host of ESPN Radio's "Game Night."

In 2000 and 2002, Sciambi was the studio host for Westwood One's coverage of the Olympic Games. Prior to joining the Marlins as a play-by-play announcer, Sciambi hosted the pre- and post-game shows on Marlins radio broadcasts from 1997 to 2000. In 1996, he did play-by-play for the Boise Hawks.

A graduate of Boston College, Sciambi has called college football and basketball games for Westwood One, and has also served as a host for the pre/halftime/post-game show for the Florida Panthers.

Rules of Interest

Player Limits: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until Sept. 1, when it becomes 40 again.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 IP.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions; 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Major League Service: A full year of service in the Major Leagues is 172 days.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Disabled Lists

15-Day Disabled List: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-Day Disabled List: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

Regulation Game

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Turner Field Ground Rules

Dugouts: Dugouts are bounded by guard rails and any ball hitting guard rails or netting is IN PLAY. Ball hitting netting on home plate side of either dugout is IN PLAY. Ball hitting facing over either dugout is dead - ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder. Catch may be made in either dugout.

Backstop: Ball lodging in padding is dead - ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder.

Canvas on Tarp Drum: Catch may be made on canvas - Ball lodged behind or under canvas is dead. ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder. Batted ball lodging behind or under canvas - TWO BASES.

Foul Poles: Ball hitting any part of screen area supported by poles down left or right field line - HOME RUN.

Outfield Fence: Batted ball going over yellow line on top of outfield fence - HOME RUN.

BRUCE SUTTER ELECTED TO THE HALL OF FAME

Former Atlanta Braves relief pitcher Bruce Sutter was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Baseball Writers' Association of America by receiving 400 votes out of 520 ballots cast (76.9%) in his thirteenth year of eligibility. Sutter spent three seasons in Atlanta (1985-1986, 1988) and was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown on July 30, 2006.

BRVES IN THE HALL OF FAME

A total of 45 players, managers and executives with ties to the Boston/Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves organization have earned election to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, including 2006 BBWAA inductee Bruce Sutter, who played three seasons with the Braves. Eight of the other 44 players spent a majority of their careers in a Braves uniform including Hank Aaron (1954-1974), Hugh Duffy (1892-1900), Rabbit Maranville (1912-1920, 1929-1933, 1935), Eddie Mathews (1952-1966), Kid Nichols (1890-1901), Phil Niekro (1964-1983, 1987), Warren Spahn (1942, 1946-1964) and Vic Willis (1898-1905). For a complete list of Boston/Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves in the Hall of Fame, visit the "Hall of Famers" team pages at www.baseballhalloffame.org.
